

IN SENATE. TUESDAY, March 5, 1830. The Senate proceeded to act upon the nomination of Samuel Hepburn, by the Governor, for President Judge of the Judicial District composed of the counties of Cumberland, Perry and Juniata.

He went into a review of the history of the late mob outrages... He stated that the late mob outrages were a recurrence of the acts of violence, outrage, and rebellion. He referred to acts of the Governors of other states, who called upon troops to protect arsenals...

as usual that assemblage; and Mr. Penrose denouncing it in terms of eloquent declamation. A more forcible speech than that made by Mr. Penrose I have rarely listened to.

From the Christian Statesman. THE TIMES.—NO. II. The Press. In our last number, the influence of the newspaper press in this country was particularly noticed...

From the Kingston (U. C.) Chronicle. We have seen a private letter from Lowry Canada, which states that the 28th and 23d Regiments have already proceeded to the disputed territory...

From the New-York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

MUSIC IN COMMON SCHOOLS.—And why not?—What asks the Boston Board of Education?—What is the great end of our system of popular instruction? Are our schools mere houses of correction...

Mr. Penrose said, he would support the nomination of Samuel Hepburn, if the Governor were to make any motion to strike out the 11th division from the bill...

Mr. Penrose replied: He would oppose the payment of the troops at all events. He charged the Speaker with taking the Chair and organizing the Senate at the meeting of the Legislature...

Mr. Penrose replied to the allegations of Mr. Brown, with a most withering torrent of sarcasm. He held himself ready at any other time to justify his course...

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure...

From the Kingston (U. C.) Chronicle. We have seen a private letter from Lowry Canada, which states that the 28th and 23d Regiments have already proceeded to the disputed territory...

Mr. Penrose said he must take special notice of the Senator from Schuylkill, who had written in his official dignity, a most revealing and unbecomingly libelous account of the city volunteers...

THE POWER OF CONSCIENCE. Some days since a gentleman from the West, who was stopping at one of our principal hotels, had retired to rest, when some one entered his room opened his pocket book, and took from it $700.

THE AROOSTOOK RIVER. The Portland (Maine) Courier says, in explanation of the present seat of border difficulties: "The names Restook, Aroostook, Aroostic and Aroostoch mean the same thing...

IMPORTANT TRIAL. On Monday, the case between the two branches of the Presbyterian Church, came up before the Supreme Court in the city. Judge Rogers on the bench.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

DEVELOPMENT OF ANECDOTE.—A venerable American Judge relates the following anecdote: "The morning following the battle at Yorktown, I had the curiosity to attend the dressing of the wounded; and among others whose limbs were so much injured as to require amputation, was a musician, who had received a musket ball in the knee.

YET LATER. BANGOR, March 6th, 9 o'clock, P.M. The express line this morning brought letters from Houlton, dated at 10 o'clock last evening. Captain Veige had just arrived from Jarvis' camp, with information of the capture of more trespassers with their teams, &c.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.

From the New York Stars. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. Important Discovery.—Carnegie's Invention.—The solar rays draw in water, more or less pure, all the objects upon which the object-glass (lentille) is directed.