STEREOTYPE PLATES AT PUBLIC SALE.

WILL be sold at public sale on Monday the 20th day of October inst., in Harrisburg, the one undivided half of the Stercotype Plates of that popular musical publication entitled, "Evangelical Music," comprising two entire and complete.sets, one in vound, and the other in Patent Notes, including copy right, &c. Each set comprizes 312 pages.—The plates were made in Note York-under the direction of Mr. Charles Dingley, the neatest and nost correct musical typographer in the country; are but little worn and are in excellent order. The book is in very general use in Pennsylvania, and to some extent in Ohio and Indiana, and in the hands of an enterprising publisher would become extensively insuse. The present pursuits of the owner of the one-part of these plates now offered for sale, renders it impossible for him to superintend (in the most superficial manner) the publishing and sale of this book, and has induced bim to offer his entire interest to an unreserved sale. The other half of these plates and copy right belongs to Mr. W. O. Hickok, of Harrisburg, book-binder-by-profession, and a gentleman calculated to aid extensively in the sale of the work. A velocity of the content of the country. The book is in very general use in Pennsylvania, and to some extensively insuse. The present pursuits of the owner of the one-part of the sold at public sale, on the premises, in Dickinson township, Camberland country, the content of the co book-binder by profession, and a gentleman calcula-ted to aid extensively in the sale of the work. A very great bargain may be expected. Terms—six months credit will be given, the purchaser giving the other Farm contains 130 bond, bearing interest, with approved security. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, and attendance

J. H. DEVOR, Attorney in fact of Geo. Fleming.

began to threaten something of a more serious insture. Being recommended to use the above Syrup, I finally gave it a trial, and am happy to say it gave me alternost instant relief. I have used it frequently, and always with the same beneficial effects. If others would use this medecine at the commencement of their Colds and Coughs, they would prevent a disease which would be more alarming in its character, and much mote obstinate in the cure.
