MOMENTARY CHANGES.—The bodies of all created ings are perpetually undergoings, species of revo-lonary change, it is therefore evident, that in order unionary change, it is therefore evicent; that in order of facilitate this periodical change, the natural outlets of the body must be kept in a proper condition; for if the noxique humors are allowed to sojourn too long in the body, they become excessively sharp and corresive, occasioning the most terrible and tatal disorders, which frequently entail years of suffering and unguish. When this is the ease, I would conscient outly recommend to such the immediate use of the property of the pro anguish. When this is the case, I would conscientiously recommend to such the immediate use of the BRANDRETH VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS—a medecine which has attained its present standard of usefulness, solely from its exceeding salutary properties; these Pills, being in Irain nothing more than an assistant of nature, causing her to do that which is required to produce a healthy condition of the body. Such being the case, it is evident that they can be administered with safety to advanced age, as well as to helpless infancy; and invariably with the same beneficial results.

Remember, these Pills are not sold genuare, at any Drug Store, either in the city or country. any Drug Store, either in the city or country.
Purchase them in Carlisle of Geo. W. Hirnen, or of Agents published in another part of this paper.
