
OHIO THUNDER!

Old Tip's State is here!!

20,000 Majority for Corwin!!

We have received the returns by means of slips and extras from 67 of the 77 counties of OHIO. They show that the office holders have met with the most tremendous rebuke ever given by a suffering and insulted people. The Whig gains are enormous in every county heard from. The majority for Tom Corwin, the wagoner boy, the Harrison candidate for Governor, is already 22,303, and the counties to come in cannot reduce it to less than 20,000.

This majority, when Old Tip takes the field in person, will be increased to 33,000. The members of Congress will stand 13 Whigs to 6 Locofocos. In 1838 they stood 8 Whigs to 11 Locofocos. The Senate will be Whig, and in the House the Locos will scarcely muster a corporal's guard.

Hamilton County,

the home of General Harrison, gives Corwin a majority of 162. In 1836 Van Buren's majority was 839. In 1838, Shannon's (Loco Foco) majority was 351.

DR. DUNCAN,

the Knight of the Whiskey bottle, is defeated, and allowed to spend the remainder of his life in catching fish in the Little Miama.

100 Cheers for the Buckeyes!!

Where is Governor Porter? "It is idle," says Governor Porter, about four weeks since on his return from Ohio, "for the Whigs to talk of carrying Ohio. Shannon's majority will be 15,000." So much for his predictions! Probably he was mistaken, or perhaps the Governor's stump speeches have contributed to this result.

The following states have held elections since the nomination of General Harrison, and ranged themselves thus:

The electoral votes thus certain for Harrison amounts to 182—148 being the number necessary to a choice. Certain for Van Buren, 22!

CARLISLE, MONDAY OCTOBER 19, 1840; 2 o'clock p. m.

Hurrah Boys,

The Day is Ours!

WE are out of the woods at last; the Old Keystone is regenerated—the real Democracy is triumphant—the Harrison Flag floats in triumph from the Alleghenies to the Delaware.

PENNSYLVANIA IS INDEED

O. K.

Thirteen Members of Congress—a majority of five in the State Senate—53 members (a majority of 6) in the House of Representatives, and a handsome

MAJORITY OF THE POPULAR VOTE.

Van Buren Federalism is prostrated—the Sub-Treasury defeated, and the infamous Standing Army Plan vetoed by the People of Pennsylvania.

Honor to the Sons of Pennsylvania! Honor to the Whigs who have been true to their ancient faith.—Honor to the old Jackson Democrats, who forsook their party in this contest, and went for their country. Honor to the Farmers and Working men of the country, who have thus put the seal of their reprobation upon the Van Buren doctrine of 16 cents a bushel for wheat, and 12 1-2 cents a day for labor.

Remember, Harrison men of Cumberland county, the Presidential Election will be held on Friday the 30th of October.

Turn out every man—don't leave a vote at home. Cumberland must be regenerated—we have said it, and it must be so. The State is safe—but Cumberland county must be wheeled into the Whig column. We can do it—turn out and we WILL DO IT. Read your Electoral Tickets—be sure you have the genuine—here it is,

FOR PRESIDENT,

GEN. WM. H. HARRISON,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

HON. JOHN TYLER,

Election on Friday, October 30, 1840.

The Electoral Ticket.

CAUTION TO OUR FRIENDS.

☞As the time for printing and distributing the Electoral Ticket is near at hand, we have deemed it our duty again to caution our friends in reference to said ticket; and that they may not be deceived, we here subjoin the ticket as corrected by our State Committee:

HARRISON & TYLER ELECTORAL TICKET.

SENATORIAL.

JOHN ANDREW SHULZE, Lycoming county.
JOSEPH RITNER, Cumberland county.

REPRESENNATIVE,

1. Levis Passmore,	12. John Dickson,
2. John Price Wetherill, Thomas P. Cope,	13. John McKeehan,
3. Jonathan Gillingham,	14. John Reed,
4. Amos Ellmaker, Abraham R. McIlvain, John K. Zeilin,	15. Ashbel B. Wilson,
5. Robert Stinson,	16. Ner Middleswarth,
6. William S. Hendrie,	17. George Walker,
7. J. Jenkins Ross,	18. Bernard Connelly, jr.
8. Peter Filbert,	19. Joseph Markle,
9. William Addams,	20. Justus G. Fordyce,
10. John Harper,	21. T. M. T. McKennan
11. William McIlvain,	22. Herman Denny,
	23. Joseph Buffington,
	24. Henry Black,
	25. John Dick.

The cohorts of the National and State Administrations—the Office Holders and Drill Sergeants of the men in power at Washington and Harrisburg, thanks to the virtue and zeal of the People, have been signally overthrown in Pennsylvania, and that hitherto strong fortress of Locofocoism taken by storm at the ballot boxes. We say we have beaten the Van Buren party in Pennsylvania—that the cause of Harrison & Reform triumphed most gloriously on the 13th of October in the Old Keystone. And why do we say so? Because the result has exceeded our anticipations. Because we have redeemed the Senate in spite of the patronage and power of the State and National Administrations, corruptly, audaciously, and tyrannically employed against us. We have borne down and walked over the 50,000 Office Holders and workmen in the employ of the State Administration. We have baulked the hordes of Post Masters, Custom House Officers, Marshals and Deputy Marshals employed against us. We have carried the Chester District, the Bucks District, and the York and Lancaster Districts, in spite of James Cameron and all the Bullies and bought-up votes thrown into them.—This result is, of itself, a glorious achievement—worthy of celebration—and fully enough justifies the cry of VICTORY! But we do not stop here. The House of Representatives, which last year was against us by a majority of 40, is now either with us, or so nearly with us that the power of the Locos to do further evil against the credit and currency of the Commonwealth is paralyzed. Nor is even this all that we have gained. In the present Congress the Delegation from Pennsylvania stands 11 Whigs, 17 Locofocos; in the next Congress, which comes into power after the 4th of March next, we shall certainly have 13, and probably 14 members—having gained 1 in Bucks, 1 in Huntingdon, and 1 in Washington counties, and lost but 1 in Philadelphia county. But our Van Buren opponents say they have from 10 to 15,000 majority of the popular vote. That's gammon. They have no such thing.—They make large claims just now for effect. They don't mind lieing when their political salvation is at stake, and depending upon the production of a certain result. The bulletins of the Harrisburg Keystone, Gazette, Reporter and Magician, and of the American Volunteer, are filled with gross misrepresentations; and scattered far and wide to deceive the people. Even the Locofoco State Central Committee—scared at the lowering aspect of the political sky—has taken the field and issued a budget of falsehoods to rally the broken and scattered ranks of the party once more to the contest. Let our Whig brethren rejoice at these significant signs of the sudden and signal downfall of these Traitors to Honesty and enemies of the Public Liberty. Whenever we see any faction resorting to base means, we may be sure that its end draweth nigh. The presses of this used up faction of Robesperian levellers, have not the honesty or the courage to inform their readers that within four weeks they have lost Maine, Maryland, and Georgia. They claim Maine in opposition to the clearest testimony. They raised a shout of victory over Baltimore city and county—but they did not tell their good friends that Maryland had given a Harrison majority of 2500. They passed over little Delaware in silence—and to judge by the barrenness of their columns, the tidings of Georgia's loss has not reached them. On the 13th New Jersey vindicated the broad seal by a majority of about 1600, and a large majority in the Legislature. But they will not acknowledge a defeat there—and when the news from Ohio shall pour in upon us, and 20000 majority for Corwin stare them in the face, they will shut their eyes and refuse to see it. When they will not acknowledge their defeats in other states, how can we expect them to confess that they are whipped in Pennsylvania? They won't do it until they shall be so badly knocked down and tramped upon as to become perfect cripples, helpless and hopeless. They will LIE on, without intermission until that time—and we tell our friends, wherever this extra may find them—to place no confidence in Locofoco Bulletins issued between this and the Presidential election. There will be scarcely any truth in them. Rely upon it, our prospects in Pennsylvania were never so good. We feel certain that even at the election of the 13th, the popular vote was cast in our favor—and that on the 30th, if our friends will once more go to the polls—she will give HARRISON TEN THOUSAND.

The remaining counties will not materially diminish this majority. The Locofocos claimed Georgia as certain for Van. What say they now? Maine, Maryland and Georgia—32 Electoral votes—all lost to VAN within four weeks. Van, Van, Van! VAN'S A USED UP MAN.
