

insinuating the possession of the faculty, with the hitherto dormant principles of ered, who still peals forth his imperative one Alp of truth and sc

I HAVE just received my usual supply of fresh Garden Seeds, which may be had either in pa-pers or in bulk, at the agency store of -Carlisle, March 3, 1841.---3t

Sherriff's Sates. By virtue of sundry write of Venditioni Exponse to me directed, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of the county of Cumberland, will be exposed to public sale, on Saturday the 27th day of March, 1841, at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the Court House in the borough of Carlisle, the following described Real Estate, viz: A the shows o're the eity ercep, While shows o're the eity ercep,

A 'Fract of Land situate in North Mid-A I fact of Land situate in North Mid-deton township, Cumberland county, containing, Ninety-six acres, more or less, bounded by lands of Abraham Hetrick, William Baker, — Hurtman, David Coble and others, having thereon erected a large TWO STORY STONE HOUSE, a large STONE BANK BARN, and other out houses, STONE BANK BARN, and other out houses, Seized and taken in execution as the property of Peter Hetrick:

And see, she springs away with one light bound, itark! a sound, itark is a sound, 1683. Seized and taken in excention as the property of Robert D. Gulhrie, dec'd.
Oh! The unsuelegind hours, how pure the joy,
Also, A lot of ground situate in Monroe township, Cümberland county, containing one acre and forty perches, more or less, having thereon erected, a Tan House, Bark Shade, Blacksmith Shop, and other out houses; there are 23 vats and a latchgs in suid Tan Yard. Seized and taken in growtime as the wronget we followers.
Oh! The unsuelegind hours, how pure the joy, When here verdent growth and onward files, O'er verdent growth and onward files.
Oher verdent growth and onward files.
Oher verdent growth and onward files.
When the young fancy up and onward files.
O'er verdent growth and the clouded skies;
When flowers alone seem scattered, 'neath our feet, and mid-day choughts and twilight dreams are sweet;
When all our wrong the of Thome Williem and the state and the set the set

3 latches in suid Tan Yard. Seized and taken in execution as the property of Thomas Williamson. Also, A Lot of Ground, situate in the borough of Carlisle, containing 42 feet in breaddh, and 240 feet in depth, more or less, adjoining a lot of Rufus E. Shepley on the rast, an alley on the north, a lot of Mirs. Boyle on the west, and Louther street on the south, laving thereon erceted, a TWO STORY LOG HOUSE, and other: out houses. Seized lis twilight's hour ! The same as when a child,

Slowly the shadows o'er the city ercep, While soon how many a living thing will sleep! The hum of trade is waxing faint and low, And bright-cycd night reveals her star-gemme brow !

brow! Ah! can it be? Has vanity a part In that yet pure and unaffected heart? The mirror; wins here eye, and many a charm. Is there flashed back all eloquent and warm. With youth, and truth and beauty? Hark! a sound, spark struck out from Deity itself-the ven's last best gift to man" was there-not pires have originated from the smallest bemost perfect (if perfection will admit of to sooth his sorrows or share his toils, for ginnings, mounted slowly and steadily up nicated to our laws during that time; and indicating great bodily strength, and a legrees) of all the works of creation. Here, we must observe, no doubt some- carth. Before, man had been happy- and then sunk back into obscurity, like the we are indebted to the subject of this no- ces firmness and benevolence-of-purposewhat to the surprise of our readers, that now, woman had come to make his happi- huge Leviathan of the deep, that slowly the subject which we proposed to our ness the fulness of perfect bliss . But, alas! selves at the outset was "MAN." But we may not dwell upon so bright a picture. thinking to indulge in a few desultory re- Man was a moral being, and as such, submarks, by way of introduction, we have ject to the moral government of his Creaunintentionally advanced far towards the for. He was endowed with a capacity for end of the journey without once stumbling misery as well as happiness. His happiover our subject. Well, then, to our sub- ness was placed in his own keeping-an ject. What is man ? - Plato defined him awful penalty was affixed to the act of disto be "a two-legged animal without feath- obedience to the command of his Makerers." A cotemporary philosopher, Dio- so long as he retained the state of inno-genes, brought before his pupils a fowl cence in which he commenced his exisstripped of its feathers, as an animal that tence, all the evil passions were but lifeless would fully satisfy Plato's definition. Now germs, that nothing but disobedience would after all that has been written on this sub- ever start into active growth. As yet the ject, if we should attempt a concise de- pure streams of virtue and goodness, alone, scriptive definition, a most happy illustra- were welling up from their deep sources tion would be presented in us of one indi- in the heart of man; while the fountains of vidual at least of the species coming undar evil had not yet begun to cast up their Discost definition an evaluated by Diogenes, bitter waters, yet begun to cast up their Plater will forbase as in an understanding and all biter wares as follows: 4 gallons of milk sion, that they were to be numbered among of his mighty discoveries, before the found a half pints of cream, which yielded, after by one "a reasoning animal." Another streams were there. Love, in its primitive the favored few? But Father Time, the dation and truth of them were fully estab- churning 15 minutes, 40 ounces of butter: has, in our opinion very properly, added, purity, virtue and all the genule affections "an animal capable of reasoning"-thereby were there in active exercise, side by side lifts his massy form above the surface of the ocean, but to sink again into the fathom- prudence must be left to some industrious jurity and presumption. less abyss. Look at ancient Rome-her young lawyer, whose time and talent will unknown origin-then the proud mistress enable him to do a great service to his proof the world. But where is she now?-

ORIGINAL ESSAY.

head only to point to the place beneathwhich repose the ashes of her departed glory-a monument at once of her former has controlled or influenced, the decisions and lower apartment. The milk is pur of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. To outlive his own, and hand down a bright name for the admiration of other ton that owing to the concentration of the boiling water is introduced into the lower ages, has always been regarded by man as powers of his mind, and attention to the one. At the end of another twelve hours a very desirable object. But of all the un- single point he might happen to be exam- the cream is taken off much more easily numbered millions of the inhabitants of ining, a degree of obscurity and apparent and perfectly than in the common way, earth, how meagre is the catalogue of confusion, is found in his writings, which and is also more abundant and richer. The those whose deeds have entitled them to a a superficial observer would attribute to a result of twelve, experiments carefully lasting memory among mankind ?- how defect in his understanding. Accordingly, made, was as follows: 4 gallons of milk the favored few? But Father Time, the dation and truth of them were fully estab- churning 15 minutes, 40 ounces of butter; hale, hearty old man, whose youthful lished among men of science. His mind 4 gallons treated in the usual way, gave in bloom a lapse of 6000 years has not with- moving with rapid and gigantic strides from 48 hours, 4 pints of cream, which yielded indentity or individuality."-IV Wharti, standing the devotion of the Chief Justice to that jealous mistress his profession, he indulges a secret passion for letters, which, however, his prudence induces him to conceal, lest he should excite the rage of quainted with him, to be sociable and fond ing-strongly impressed with the opinion that he is a man of integrity, and great be-

In person the Chief Justice is large, rostability and certainty have been commuas yet nor toil nor sorrow knew a place on to the highest pinnacle of their splendor, for how large a proportion of the benefits sound constitution. His countenance evin. and his demeanor is calculated by its dig-But a detailed history of our own jurisnity to command respect and repress famil-AMICUS CURIE.

fession, by the careful execution of such a The sculptured column now lifts its lofty work. All that is attempted here is brief- Devonshire, England, eatled clouted cream, CREAM .- The peculiarly rich cream of ly to portray the leading characteristics of is obtained by using zine pans of a pecuthe master mind which for so many years liar construction, consisting of an upper into the upper apartment; and after it has It has been remarked of Sir Isaac New- stood twelve hours, an equal quantity of

Lime in Planting Trees .-- An English

ed-and taken-in-execution as the property of John Early. And all to be sold by me PAUL MARTIN, Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Carlisle, Feb. 13, 1841, St

EXECUTORS NOTICE.

Estate of Andrew Shower, dec'd. ETTERS TESTAMENTARY on the estate of mediate payment, and those having claims to present them for settlement.

JOHN FISHBURN. Executor of Andrew Shower, dec'd. Splendid Lotteries. 30.000 Dollars!

AND 200 Prizes of $500. · /VIRGINIA MONONGALIA LOTTERY. GRAND CAPITALS.

GRAND CAPITALS. ($30,000-$10,000. $5,000-$2,357-$2,000-$1,900 $1,800-$1,700-$2,357-$2,000-$1,900 $ of $1,300...5 of $1,250-201 of $1,250-$1,200-$1,500 Tickets $10-$1,500, & Tickets $10-$1,500, & Certificates of Packagesof 25 Whole Tickets $130 Do. do 25 Half 100 65-75 Outstore do 395 do 25 Quarter do 3250 $10,000--$15,000 Virginia Leesburg Lottery: Class D for 1841 .-- To be drawn at Alexandria Va. on Saturday, the 27th of March, 1841. GRAND SCHEME!

$40,000---$15,000. 6,000 Dollars 3,000 Dollars 6,000 Dollars 5,000 Dollars 30 Prizes of 1,000 Dollars. 60 of $500 --- 80 of $300 --- 129 of $200. &c

Tickets only $10-Halves $5--Quarters $2 50 Certificates of Packages of 26 Whole Tickets $140 70 Do. do 26 Half do Do. 26 Quarter do • Orders for Tickets and Shares and Certificater of Päckages will be prompily attended to, and as soon as the drawing is green an account of it will be forwarded to all who order from us Address D. S. GREGORY & CO. Managers, Washington City, D. C.

the proper use of which is too often ne-

For the Herald & Expositor. In the contemplation of the world in him to the Great Author of all things.

and to the inhabitants of distant worlds un- Physical science, that with all its boasted no longer finding a fit residence in the of the surrounding gloom. known, the earth itself is but a particle of perfection, reaches only the effects, with- bosom of man, took her flight, and left matter lighted up by the rays of the sun. out attempting to fathom the depth in there a void, never afterwards to be per-Let these laws cease to exert their appro- which the causes of the operations of Na- fectly filled, and ever since the fall, manpriate influence, and the whole material ture are hidden, has informed us that the kind has been seeking to regain the lost gressed the limits which we had prescribed. Gibson with more profit that the mere sweet in warm weather. Fermont Far. Class C for 1841.—To be drawn at Alexandria universe rushes madly into ruin, and con-'Va. on Saturday the 20th of March, 1841. [Insign and discord hold universe rushes madly into ruin, and confusion and discord hold undisputed sway. complicated in its structure, most beauti-That this is not the lot of man in this words on this point.

Let'the law of attraction but be reversed, fully perfect in all its various parts, and world, by a fatality as strange as it is uniand that of repulsion usurp its place, and what is more wonderful still, possessing versal, none are willing to believe from the has never been free from superstition. It lo! we who now tread with a firm, step within itself the principle of self-motive- cxperience of others; but all rush on in the secons to be almost an inherent principle but end in correct results. A judgment without the loss of a single tree, and this and form erect, immediately commence our a principle that has eluded thus far the full and confident expectation that they at of his nature, which is greatly heightened uncertain, endless flight into the infinity of keenest scrutiny of Art, as it must ever least are to be successful. But happiness, boundless space. The science of Astro- continue to do, so long as the truths of Na- like an airy phantom, with her fairy form nomy, a science that has been enlarged and tural Philosophy maintain their supremary. and gorgeous robes, lures on her volaries enriched by the successful efforts of the If the structure of the body, which is na- to persist in the vain pursuit, until just mightiest minds the world has ever boasted; tural and tangible to the senses, is so enmightiest minds the world has ever boasted, leads us to the inevitable conclusion, that the same great principles which guide and govern matter here, are equally powerful in controlling the worlds that glimmer in the depths of empty space. "Order is is beauty in the thought, from the fact that it is preeminently true. The operations by the aid of which to trace its mazy wind-the taby rint, has sought in vain for a clew it is preeminently true. The operations by the aid of which to trace its mazy wind-that happiness is best attained by those who of Nature in her more active capacity of ings-the "modus operandi"-or the man, are least ardent in the search; that she bepresenting matter under new forms, fitted ner in which the counexion between the longs exclusively to no one condition in for supplying the wants of the animal creamind and body exists, is a problem that life more than another, by any absolute tion, as well as the efforts of the mechanic has hitherto defied all attempts at solution; necessity." Six thousand years have now aris to accomplish similar objects, are all As the wisdom and experience of age clapsed since the creation. Generation reducible to the same great principles of looks back with a placid since upby the after generation have rolled away, and lignorance and inexperience of youth-so where are they? "Death has been busy All perfection, whether in nature or art, science herself, as each advancing step converting the wide domains of each into s always the result of a series of succes, sheds new light upon her path, finds that one vast sepulchre. The life of man is sive approximations. The slately edifice all her discoveries dwindle into insignifi- but a "vapour;" or to use the idea of ano-Washington City, D. C. The Moltheren, Teelhing, The Moltheren, Teelhing, The Moltheren, Teelhing, The Moltheren, Teelhing, The forward the period, sea areaward the forward the period is present and in provide its present form only by the f that proudly lifts its summit to heaven, cance when compared with the broad field ther, like a brilliant meteor, that shoots hatred, ambition, and unholy pride--like orders to the grim legions of Death, with never stooped to scan or measure the val- ter. The increase in the quantity of cream glected. Man is made up of two princi- the "Lion and the Lamb lying down to- his "iron tongue," wipes out for ever with lies beneath. He took it for granted that is 121 per cent.

glected. Man is made up of two princi-ples—the one placing him at the head of the animal creation, as its most perfect specimen, the other, like the tremendous break the seals—to open the flood-gates of specimen, the other, like the tremendous break the seals—to open the flood-gates of specimen, the other, like the tremendous break the seals—to open the flood-gates of specimen, the other, like the tremendous break the seals—to open the flood-gates of specimen, the other, like the tremendous break the seals—to open the flood-gates of specimen, the other, like the tremendous break the seals—to open the flood-gates of specimen, the other, like the tremendous break the seals—to open the flood-gates of specimen, the other, like the tremendous break the seals—to open the flood-gates of specimen the other tremendous break the seals to open the flood-gates of the specimen the speciment to possess the base paid more respective treme to speciment the seals to prepare some kind natural agencies of electricity and magnet ism, that are intangible to the senses, and only known by their effects, assimilating him to the Great Author of all things.

which we live, on what side soever we him to the Great Author of all things. As a close trough would be much better with an eye of fiendish malice, If we set revelation aside, how gloomy of intuitive knowledge of these subordinate than an open one, you may have a cover turn our eyes, we behold every thing replete reciprocally dependent each upon the oth- was lurking among the pleasant retreats of is the condition of man. As we have betirn our eyes, we benold every thing replete reciprocally dependent each upon the oth-with evidence of the fact, that all the mater; for while the body is the instrument, terial parts of our globe, lifeless, inanimate, upon which the mind depends solely for who is not wont to turn a deaf ear to ho-terial parts of our globe, lifeless, inanimate, upon which the mind depends solely for in this way, sufficient for a common dairy, inert as they are, are subject to influence its supremacy, it is equally true, that the neved words, when clothed in the garb of very darkness of the future is hidden by a of Lucidus' Dialogues, appear to be a con- at no great expense. It would last inde-LETTERS TESTAMENTARY on the estate of Mest Pennsborough township, deceased, having issued to the subscriber in due form: Notice is hereby given to all, persons indebted to the estate of said decedent, to make im-indebted to the estate of said decedent, to make im-of matter, that floats like a point of light in the relation existing between steam and the relation of matter, that floats like a point of light in by the relation existing between steam and offer any effectual resistance to her soft she is forced to turn back with soiled plu-mentary view of the case, to detail the facts ble would soon be paid for-to say nothing the sunbeam, which alone renders it visi-the engine through which only it becomes blandishments and winning smiles, became mage, having found no resting place. As or lay down familiar principles as a foun-of the time saved in churning. We do ble, and the huge unwieldly mass of the effective. Dispense with one, and you a willing party to the act, which brought the glare of the lanthorn, from contrast, dation for his argument, but taking it for not see why zinc pais-which are said to locity around the great centre of light and the set well known, prolocity around the great centre of light and may be compared to a balloon, while the all their posterity. From that moment, the impenetrable, so the light that is shed upon ceeding without preface in medias res, he dairy-with the tin range as above would heat, are alike chained and bound together mind is the inflating principle that tends deep stain of guilt settled upon their souls. his path by the intellect and reason of man, grapples at once with the difficulties of the not be quite as good as the complicated by the principles of attraction and cohesion; to the elevation and refinement of both.- Happiness, in her purity and perfection, serves only to show more plainly the depth case, and having annihilated them, in his and expensive Devonshire pans. And it

Herculearf grasp, abandons the argument would be easy for a dairy woman to satis-We had intended to take a comparative as abruptly as it was commenced. The fy herself respecting the principle without view of our subject before and after the old and experienced lawyer, therefore, either. By using cold water instead of to our remarks, and can add but a few student, who needs the help of elementary principles to aid him in ascending the steeps The most enlightened condition of man of Jurisprudence.

paper says that a large plantation of trees, however by ignorance, and is the open enemy of truth. This principle prevailed in all its strength before the Christian era. ministering and applying them in all their bushels of lime will suffice for an acre. It naturally sound, nurtured by profound study has been achieved by a simple process ; it details, his integrity, his sincere love of must be thoroughly mixed and incorporat-justice, his profound learning in his pro- ed with the mould before the plant is in-Beneath the shadew of her wings lay the printing and long absence from any par- would force it on prematurely, but this aptombs of generations, sculptured with every to bluit the edge of forensic eloquence and less. ticipation in the conflicts of the Bar, tend prehension is proved to have been ground-

> Indeed none of the Judges of that court Age of Sheep .- The age of sheep may seem to possess in a high degree the graces be known by examining the front teeth. of eloquence; though not destitute of the They are eight in number, and appear of eloquence; though not destine of the large a during the first year of a small size. In qualities more requisite to the Bench, gra-during the first year of a small size. In vity and dignity. We have already had the second year the two middle ones fall occasion to allude to the somewhat con-out, and their place is supplied by two new fused obscurity of many of the opinions of teeth; which are easily distinguished by

Colossus-like, with one foot on Mars' Hill

while they enchanted the eye, lent all their weaken the faculty of public speaking. charms to licentiousness and fielion. Such was the sway of fascination and error, when Truth, in the lowly form of a servant, sat down on the Mount of Olives to teach mankind. Even in her lowly thrun she proved her might, and triumphed over op-position of the fiercest character.