THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES

A CHRONICLE OF
The Turf, Field Sports, Literature and the Stage.
PUBLISHED WITH ILLUSTRATED STEEL ENGRAVINGS.
WILLIAM T. PORTER, EDITOR.

The First Number of a New Volume of "The Spirit of the Times" will be issued on the 6th of March, 1841. In the course of the year, a series of MAGNIFICENT STEEL ENGRAVINGS, uniform with the embellishments of the preceding volume, will be presented to the subscribers. A Portrait of MONMOUTH ECLIPSE, from a painting by Tassie, will commence the series, and be succeeded by those of other distinguished horses during the year.

A List of AMERICAN WINNING HORSES of the preceding year will be published, arranged in four distinct TABLES—one of four mile winners, one of three, one of two, and one of one mile winners. These tables show at a glance the winner of every race of the last year, his age, color, pedigree, and owner, the prize won, the weight carried, the time made, and the horses who were beaten. The date and place of the race, and a reference to the page of the preceding volume where the race was originally published. These tables are compiled with infinite care and labor, and at great expense; they are of constant practical use, and increase in value every year. A list of ENGLISH WINNING HORSES for the same year will be published in the volume arranged in the English form.

A Table of the AMERICAN WINNING TROTTER HORSES, with the age, color, owner, time made, weight carried, &c., &c., will be published in this volume; and in addition, there will be an abstract of every great Trotting Performance in America, for several years past. This abstract has been compiled from several authentic sources, and will be extremely interesting as the only COMPLETE RECORD OF AMERICAN TROTTERING ever attempted.

An Alphabetical List of STALLIONS for 1841, in the usual form, will also appear, which, instead of the usual list, will be found convenient to breeders for designating the age, color, pedigree, owner, place and price of standing, of nearly every distinguished Stallion in America.

In addition to the various subjects enumerated above, the present volume will contain a faithful and complete record of all IMPORTANT RACING and Trotting Matches, and Racing Appointments; Currents on Breeding and Training; Pedigrees and Performances of Distinct Horses, with all the Current News and On this in Sporting Circles, both at home and abroad. And to complete the Sporting Department, full details, original and selected, will be given upon all mainly pastimes, as Hunting, Sporting, Fishing, Yachting and Boating, Pedestrian and other Athletic and Manly Sports.

Another part of the paper will embrace a BREEDING AND AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, designed to promote the interests and minister to the instruction of breeders of fine cattle, sheep, &c. Selections from the most approved American and English writers on these important subjects will be constantly found in its columns. THE SPORTING AND RACING DEPARTMENT, increased by the addition of the Portraits of several of the most distinguished Horses in the Union, engraved in a style of superior finish and beauty. The next prominent feature is the PICTORIAL PAGE, constantly devoted to original criticisms of the drama, and notices of the New York theatres, Green Garden lectures, &c., &c., with all the extensive theatrical correspondence maintained with every city in the Union, and by which the paper is already favorably known and widely circulated in theatrical circles.

Again, selections will be constantly made from the periodicals of this country and England, and thus be formed a complete and useful LITERARY DEPARTMENT, occupying several pages. For all these varied Departments, ample room is secured by the immense size of the present sheet, which for the first time, has been enlarged to the general elegance of arrangement, is second to none in the Union.

No local agents being employed by the proprietors, gentlemen wishing the paper sent to their respective post-masters, or remit by mail. A number of files from the commencement of the volume, will be preserved for sale at the office. The contents adapted, as the valuable Statistical Tables of the paper nearly all appear in the early part of the year.

Poetry.

From the New York Mercury,
A NEW NATIONAL MELODY;
SON SET TO MUSIC BY JOHN.

As a sensitive 'coon by a sleeping one day,
The sound of a wood-cutter's hatchet he heard;
So he jump'd on a stump to see what was to pay,
And thus did he sing—aye, he sang like a bird:
"Woodman, spare that tree!
Touch not a single bough;
In youth it sheltered me,
And I'll stick to it now."

Hard by, in a pine, sat a sober old owl
A fanning himself in the cool western breeze;
And he wore on his features a horrible scowl,
As he sang to the zephyrs that swept through the trees:
"Hov, O hov, ye gentle breezes!
All among the leaves and twigs—
Till you give my blood the frozes."

A skunk and a possum together then met,
And they shook hands and kissed, and most lovingly chid;
For they'd, y'know, years ago, that they ne'er would forget
One another through life—so they struck up and sang.
"Should our acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind;
Should our acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne."

A fox leaped out of the thicket, and played
With his brush for a while, in a transport of glee;
Then thoughtfully walked to a green forest glade,
Where he sat himself down, and most sweetly sang:
"Off in the stilly night,
Ere slumber's chains have bound me,
Faint memory brings a sight
Of nice, fat geese around me."
In concert all joined, to the tune of "Moll Brooks";
The stars glitter'd "ere," and the bright silver moon
Gave brighter and brighter 's they sang, without Looking back.

"We'll not go home till morning,
We'll not go home till morning,
We'll not go home till morning,
Till daylight doth appear."

Seed Sowers.—We would recommend to every farmer who is able, to purchase some one of the good seed sowers, that have now to be had for various prices, at the manufacturing establishments, or agricultural warehouses. There are now so many kinds of them that a person can suit himself either as to form or fashion; and when you get a good one, the sowing of the seed is very great. If you do not feel able to purchase one, you may purchase one of the best neighbors to unite with you in the purchase, and thus divide the expense. Maine Farmer.
