

HERALD & EXPOSITOR.

Carlisle.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28, 1841.

FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN BANKS, OF BERKS COUNTY.

Apology.—We owe our brother of the American Sentinel an apology. We last week published in our columns an excellent article relative to a National Bank, to which no credit was attached. It should have been credited to the American Sentinel.

It is said that Mrs. Harrison had reached Cincinnati, on her way to Washington, on the morning on which the intelligence of her bereavement arrived at that city.

HARRISON'S WIDOW.—We notice with unfeigned pleasure, says the American Sentinel, that men of all parties are giving their approbation to the proposed appropriation to Mrs. Harrison of a part of her deceased husband's salary.

We are pleased to see that our new High Constable, Mr. JOHN WALKER, is performing the duties of his office with such zeal and ability, and already the trees of the borough present an improved appearance.

We perceive by the Gettysburg papers that our quondam friend and tutor, Dr. Levee, is delighting the good people of that place by his amusing lectures on the science of Physiognomy.

MILITARY CONVENTION.—A State Military Convention is to assemble in Harrisburg on the fourth Monday of June next, the 7th of that month, for the purpose of completing business left undone by their meeting of January last.

Some excitement prevails in Shippensburg in consequence of the disappearance of a young man. It appears that the young gentleman was a student of the college at Gettysburg, and left that place on some time during the past winter.

The editors of the Intelligencer and Chronicle, Harrisburg, have our thanks for their kindness in forwarding us their respective papers, daily, during the session of the Legislature.

strengthen this supposition. Several men are now among the mountains searching for the body. His parents are residents of York county.

Some of our exchanges are filled with the trial, confession, &c., of Peter Robinson, convicted and executed recently in New Brunswick, (N. J.) for the murder of Mr. Saydam. It strikes us that this is in bad taste.

MITCHELL, the forger, has completely succeeded in baffling his pursuers. Instead of having gone to Texas, it is generally believed that he has taken passage to England.

The clever rogue who succeeded in swindling the Lafayette Bank of Cincinnati of thirteen thousand dollars, by means of a forged certificate of deposit, has also "done" the Bank of Kentucky, at Louisville, of the same amount, and by the same means.

Arrival of the Great Western. Four days later from Europe. The Great Western arrived at New York on Saturday last, after a passage of 16 days.

The Loecofocos appear to be very anxious that JOHN BANKS should resign his situation as President Judge of the Berks county courts.

The Loecofocos appear to be very anxious that JOHN BANKS should resign his situation as President Judge of the Berks county courts.

In case Judge Banks should resign, we have scarcely a doubt but that his Excellency would improve the opportunity of providing for "brother James." As the Ex-Judge's chances of pocketing any more thousand dollar fees are rather slim, we think he could be prevailed upon again to ascend the bench.

Fourteen of the members of the Bar of Northampton county (being part of Judge Bank's District), have addressed a letter to that gentleman, in which they request him not to resign his Judgeship.

No sooner did Fritz's defalcation become known, than he was promptly REMOVED, and every possible step taken to recover his deficiencies.

The editors of the Intelligencer and Chronicle, Harrisburg, have our thanks for their kindness in forwarding us their respective papers, daily, during the session of the Legislature.

The Nomination. The Loecofoco conferees met at Bloomfield, on the 20th instant, and nominated Amos Gustine, of Juniata county, as the candidate to fill the vacancy in Congress.

Resolved, That this convention has undiminished confidence in the Hon. Chas. McCure, their late representative in Congress, and that it is only in justice to the claims of Juniata, and in conformity to the usages and system of the democratic party of this district that the present nomination for the 27th Congress is now made.

Now this resolution carries a lie on its face. The nomination of Gustine was not made "in justice to the claims of Juniata," for it is notorious that "the claims of Juniata" have been disregarded as often as they have been urged, since she was first placed in this Congressional District.

Proceedings of the Harrisburg Presbytery. WHEREAS, It has pleased the Sovereign Ruler of earth to remove by death the President of the United States, and whereas, the church of the Lord Jesus Christ, whilst rightly free in our nation from all entangling alliances with the state, yet feels it to be her duty and her privilege to endeavor, by supplication to Almighty God and by earnest effort to promote the temporal and spiritual prosperity of our beloved nation.

Resolved by the Presbytery of Harrisburg, That in this solemn dispensation of Providence in taking away the Head of the Nation, we recognise the Mighty Hand of the King of Kings and of the Lord of Lords; and that we feel that we and the Christian People under our care, in common with our brethren and fellow-countrymen should be deeply humbled that national sin should require national judgment.

Amos Gustine. We extract the following from the letter of Amos Gustine, to the Juniata conferees. Speaking of his nomination, he says:—

"I unhesitatingly say, this is to me unsolicited and unexpected, and however deep my sense of gratitude for this evidence of public confidence reposed in me, I cannot forbear saying, that I feel that should you carry out the measure, you will assign me duties which I am not competent properly to perform."

Now he "unhesitatingly" says what he and his friends know to be untrue. So far from the nomination being "unsolicited," he has for some years been laboring in his efforts to effect it.

Pennsylvania Legislature. In the Senate, Tuesday April 20, petitions were presented by Messrs. Case and Miller. Mr. Pearson, from the committee to whom was referred the bill to repeal certain acts in relation to the Philadelphia and Trenton rail road company, reported the same with amendments.

LOOK OUT FOR A SWINDLER.—Within a few days of the last of March, the Cashier of the Lafayette Bank of Cincinnati received by mail, a letter purporting to be from the Commercial Bank of New Orleans, of which the following is a copy.

W. G. W. Gano, Esq. Cashier. Lafayette Bank, Cincinnati. DEAR SIR:—In conformity with the request of W. M. Parker, Esq. of London, I have enclosed half my certificate of deposit in his favor, No. 380 or $13,000 specie, which please deliver to him on presentation of the first half.

Mr. Parker is unacquainted in your city, and has adopted this course for safety and identity. I recommend him to your favor. Yours respectfully, GEO. O. HALL, Cashier.

On the 30th, March, Mr. Gano in a letter to Mr. Hall on other business, alluded to the above letter as follows: "Mr. Parker has not yet appeared, when he does I shall hand him the half certificate sent for his use."

Commercial Bank of New Orleans, New Orleans, April 7, 1841. W. G. W. Gano, Esq. Cashier.

Dear Sir:—I have this moment received your letter of the 30th ult. referring to a letter from me of the 17th instant, in relation to a certificate of deposit.

The body of the forged letter from Mr. Hall, is written in blue ink, of precisely the tint of that used in the Commercial Bank of N. Orleans, and is in the hand writing of the clerk of that bank, who fills up letters for the signature of the cashier, except the words, "I recommend him to your favor," which, together with the name of the cashier, are in black ink; and on comparing it with a number of letters from the same bank, of late date, not the slightest difference can be discovered, either in the paper, ink, or hand writing.

The paper especially bears the same water mark, and is from the same ream. The public are requested to be on the alert: The person who represents Mr. Parker, is a small man, with brown or auburn hair, rather broad forehead, and keen expression of countenance.

A liberal reward will doubtless be offered, and any one who shall detect this rogue will be well paid.

It is possible that he may have disposed of the notes for checks on some of the Atlantic cities; in which case it is very desirable that any broker or bank who may have made the exchange, should write at once to their correspondents, to stop the payment, and if possible arrest this daring villain.

Virginia Election. We have received by the Baltimore Express of the 24th, the following returns of the Virginia Election.

THE PULPIT. Are directed to the Harbinger Celebrated Medicines, which are recommended by thousands as a preventive and cure for diseases of the Stomach and Nervous System.

A Court of General Quarter Session of the Peace, began on Monday the 24th of April, 1841, and held at Carlisle for Cumberland before the Hon. Samuel Hepburn, President, and John Stuart and John Leffery, Esqs. associate Judges.

Deaths, Deaths! You who are blessed with little children, and have the care of them, should not forget that these "little ones," sooner or later, will be afflicted with the evil effects of teething, which carries off thousands annually.

Notice. All persons indebted to the estate of Wm. B. Milligan, either by Note or Book account, are requested to make payment to his Trustees, on or before the 1st of June next, as no further indulgence can or will be given.

Dr. Paris' Soothing Syrup for Children Cutting Teeth, which gives instant relief to the little sufferer. This fact I have tested various times, and always with the same beneficial results.

Remember, none is genuine unless the signature of Dr. Paris is impressed on the phials; also be careful and purchase only at the medical office, No. 19 North Eighth street, and advertised Agents. Beware, there are several persons imitating a deleterious article on the public for the above, put up in glass bottles, with the name of Paris spelt different. When you purchase see that the name of Paris spelt as you see it in this notice, and unless the phials are impressed with "Dr. Paris' Soothing Syrup" touch the name of Paris.
