

HERALD & EXPOSITOR.

Carlisle.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 5, 1841.

FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN BANKS, OF BERKS COUNTY.

A CARD.—The subscriber acknowledges his grateful thanks to his friends and neighbors...

FIRE.—The dwelling house of Mr. Andrew Holmes, on High street, was set on fire last Monday evening by a spark from the Locomotive.

TOWANDA (PA.) BANK.—We see it stated in the Philadelphia papers, that the notes of this institution are selling in that city at a very heavy discount.

We learn that the body of the young man, Gustavus Melzheimer, whose disappearance we noticed last week, was found in the mountains, about six miles south of Shippensburg, on Sunday the 26th ult.

Charles F. Mitchell, the forger, is now in Montreal. He had been arrested there, but subsequently given up, it being understood that no process could legally hold him.

STEAMSHIP PRESIDENT.—Great anxiety is manifested in our eastern cities as to the fate of the steamship President, which left New York on the 11th of March last for Liverpool.

A CHANCE FOR PRINTERS.—The editor of the "Junonia Aurora," (English) and "Der Junonia Valley Bericht," (German) in consequence of severe indisposition, has determined to dispose of his establishments, lock, stock, and barrel.

That eccentric individual, John Smith, is sick at the hospital in Providence, Rhode Island. The editor of the Journal chuckles mightily at it, thinking he shall not be obliged to chronicle any more of his freaks.

ENGLAND AND THE U. STATES.—There is now every probability that the difficulties between the two countries will be amicably settled.

and too little to gain, to enter upon it rashly. Prudent men in England know this, and will do all in their power to avert such a calamity.

JOHN HORN, over whose removal the Volunteer sheds so many crocodile tears is a brother of the immaculate Henry, and one of the most unscrupulous party hacks in the county of Philadelphia.

SHINPLASTERS.—The authorities of the borough of Harrisburg have issued a large batch of shinplasters, redeemable in five years, at 1 per cent interest.

The Harrisburg Reporter denies that the Governor has authorized Charles Pray to retail grog in defiance of law.

The Perry Freeman wishes to know whether Mr. Amos Gustine was or was not a "democrat" when he voted for Phos. Whiteside.

The Harrisburg Telegraph, in alluding to the removal of Mr. Findlay, from his situation as Treasurer of the Mint, says that he is a defaulter.

Governor PORTER has nominated the Hon. CHARLES SHALER for a Judgeship, to succeed the Hon. T. B. Dallas, deceased.

The opinion of Washington, that to employ in high offices men opposed to the Government, is "political suicide," is a maxim by no means to be despised.

It ever there was a man who deserved the deep execration of an insulted and much injured people, that man is David R. Porter. The whole time and talents of the members of the Legislature have been devoted to devising means for the relief of the people.

Veto power is justly alarming the people of this state. That KNOWLEDGE prerogative, which our ancestors retained in order to prevent the injurious effects of hasty legislation, is now used whenever a bill is passed which does not square with the narrow and silly prejudices of our bright Executive.

Pennsylvania Legislature. In the Senate, April 24th, the revenue bill was under discussion, until 12 o'clock, when the Speaker and members proceeded to the Hall of the House of Representatives.

Such is the prevailing tone of a Paper that has waged "war to the hilt" against every man in the Republic who refused to bow the knee to Jackson and Van Buren.

Reminiscences are always useful though sometimes unpleasant. Let us refer, for a moment to the doctrines and conduct of the Jackson and Van Buren Administrations in relation to appointments.

From the U. S. Telegraph of March 30, 1829. "If the work of reform may seem to go slowly on, the people may rest satisfied that it will surely proceed.

From the Albany Evening Journal. Whinnings and meanness of Loco-Focoism. Wretches detestable for their cruelty are always to be despised for their cowardice.

PROSCRIPTION FOR OPINION'S SAKE. The Whig gullotine continues in full and free operation. Whatever may have been the declarations of General Harrison before the election, the mockery of Mr. Webster's manifesto since, and the vague pretensions to an opposing course by Mr. Tyler, it is evident that the removals and proscriptions followed during Gen. Harrison's last illness.

At the recent court Judge Parsons very properly refused to renew Mr. Pray's license. This afforded no little satisfaction to the great body of our moral citizens.

Another PREVIOUS PARDON. Charles Pray keeps a public house in Harrisburg in the Masonic Hall Building, generally known as "The Exchange."

NATIONAL BANK. The New York Express of yesterday says: "The Chamber of Commerce, at their meeting yesterday, resolved upon the appointment of a committee to draft a memorial to Congress, for the incorporation of a National Bank."

GENERAL HARRISON. The following interesting incident which occurred at Pittsburgh, while General Harrison was on his way to Washington, is a beautiful illustration of the constancy with which he recognized his duties as an accountable being.

At the hotel where General Harrison was lodged, a child in which he manifested a very strong interest, was ill, and a well-known medical gentleman of Pittsburgh was brought, about 9 o'clock in the evening, to see the little patient.

A Washington letter writer states that the Senate will stand 27 to 25, on the abstract question of a National Bank. He adds: "Should any one of the 27 prove impracticable in regard to details, the measure will be lost."

Deaths, Deaths! You who are blessed with little children, and have the care of them, should not forget that these "little ones" sooner or later, will be afflicted with the evil effects of teething.

Dr. Paria is impressed on the phials; also be careful and purchase only at the medical office, No. 19 North Eighth street, Philadelphia Agents. Beware there are several persons imitating a detestable article on the public for the above, put up in plain bottles, with the name of Paria in spec. different. When you purchase, see that the name of Paria is impressed with "Dr. Paria's Soothing Syrup" touch it not.

To my Creditors. Take notice that I have applied to the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Cumberland County for the benefit of the insolvent Lewis of this County.

Some of the federal loco-foco papers are attempting to get up a clamor about the appointment of an Editor in the western country to office; and some jealous or shallow persons of our own party seem disposed to concur in the outcry.

A measure is now before the French Chamber of Deputies, which excites much attention; it is a proposition that persons holding office, with certain exceptions, shall not be allowed to sit in the Chamber of Deputies.

A letter from London in the New York Express, says: "Every thing remains in the same dull and inanimate state, and scarcely an article of our staple manufactures can command a price above the cost of production, with wages at every department reduced to the starvation point."

The New York Express of yesterday says: "The Chamber of Commerce, at their meeting yesterday, resolved upon the appointment of a committee to draft a memorial to Congress, for the incorporation of a National Bank."
