Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry an invaluable remedy for all diseases indicative of Pulmonary affections, such as recent chronic coughs, hoarseness, whooping cough, wheezing and difficulty of breathing, croup, and spitting of blood, &c. How many sufferers do we daily behold approaching to an untimely grave, wrested in the bloom of youth from their dean, relatives and friends, afflicted with that common and destructive ravager, called consumption, which soon wastes the miserable sufferer, until he becomes beyond the power of human skill; if such sufferers would only make trial of Dr. Swayne's invaluable medicine, they would soon find themselves henefitted, than by gulphing the various ineffebtive certain remedies of which our newspapers daily abound. This syrup immediately begins to heal the ulcerated lungs, stopping profuse night sweats; mitigating the distressing cough, at the same time, inducing a healtry and inatural expectoration; algorical the harmas the sufferer on the slightest exercise, and finally the heetic sust in the pallid, and emaciated check, with smean beganes to variah, and the sufferer will here into the ployment spain of comfortable health.

The Blind Piles, said to be incurable by external applications.—Sofomen Hays warrants the contrary. His Liniment will cure Blind Piles. Facts are more stubborn than theories. He solicits all respectable physicians to try it upon their patients. It will do them no harm, and it is known that every physician who has had the honesty to make the trial, has candidly admitted that it has succeeded in every case they have known. Then why not use it? It is the repipe of one of theirmostrespectable members, now deceased. Why refuse to use it? Because it is sold as a proprietary modicine? Is this a sufficient excuse for suffering their honest, patients to linger, in distress? We think not. Physicians shall be contined that there is no humburg or quackery about this article.—Why then not alleviate human suffering. If they won't try it before, let them after all the prescriptions fail. Physicians are respectfully requested to do themselves and patients the justice to use this article.—It shall be taken from the hottles, and done up as their prescription if they desire. 1.1VER COMPLAINT:—In diseases of the Liver, particularly when attended with a cough, indigestion or wandering pains in the side, it has also proved very efficacious, and cured many cases of this kind after the most powerful remedies had failed.

2.7 ASTHMA.—In this complaint it has also becaused in numerous instances with the most singular success. It opens the chest, rendering the breathing perfectly free, arrests the cough, and will seldom fail to give permanent relief.

Pittsford, Monroe co., Nov. 9, 1838.

Mr. John M. Winslow, Druggist,

Ced with an affection of the Lungs; and a hard cough, and have many times arose in the morning as completely exhausted by excessive coughing during the night as a person would be by a hard days labor. I have tried most of the popular remedies of the day, the cough of the country of the coun but never found relief until 1 met with your Balsam of Horehound. All the other remedies or palatives that I have used, leave the bowels in a congested state, while yours leaves them soluble and free. This I consider a great desideratum. On taking a dose of your Balsam when going to bed, I rest quietly throthe night, and my sleep is refreshing. I take great pleasure in recommending your Balsam of Horehound to all those afflicted with pulmonary combining or my disease any disease and the latest and plaints or any disease appertaining to the langs, and I take this opportunity to thank you for the great relief and benefit I have experienced through your instrumentality. Yours, with much response
