WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30, 1841.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JOHN BANKS OF BERKS COUNTY.

Literary Notice.

The 52d Anniversary of the Union Philosophic Society of Dickinson College, will be celebrated in he Methodist Episcopal Church of Carlisle, Pa., or Monday the 5th of July, 1841. The citizens generated ally are respectfully invited to attend. Exercises to mmence at 7½ o'clock. By order of the Committee of Arrangement. N. B. Frank Johnson's celebrated Band will.

LITERARY NOTICE.

An exhibition of the Sophomore Class of Dickinson College, will take place in the Chapel, at 10 o'clock, on Tuesday morn ing the 6th of July.

Major General Alexander Macomb the commander-in-chief of the U. States Army, died on last Friday. He entered the army as a Cornet of Dragoons in 1799.

GENERAL HARRISON.—The body of the late President has been removed from the vault at Washington and taken to North Bend. Congress adjourned on the occasion, and a body of United States Marines are to escort the remains to meir final resting place.

The Rev. Thomas C. Thornton, we are gratified to learn, has been appointed President of Clinton College, Miss. The institution is under the patronage of the Methodist Episcopal church in that state.

ROBERT R. GUTHRIE, Esq. has been appointed by Mr. Granger, Postmaster at New Bloomfield, Perry county, Pa., in the place of Major Alexander Magee, relieved clergy of our ancient borough and county, cratic State Committee be requested to assent of the respective states, to the locafrom duty. This appointment is a most will respond favorably to the call of our take charge of the whole subject, and excellent one, and will no doubt give very correspondent "A." and improve so good through county and township committees general satisfaction.

MILITARY ENCAMPMENT. AT CAMP WAYNE, YORK, PA.

The citizen soldiers of York, Pennsylvania, intend holding an Encampment at campment, promising that those who attend shall receive a soldier's cordial welcome. From what we know of the citizens of "Little" York, we are convinced that in no other town in the Union would our volunteers receive a more hospitable reception, and we trust that many of them will avail them of visiting that ancient borough.

Yes, and keep it before the people, and due by the commonwealth, to contractors, office holders, and for interest on state loans, before the "Relief Bill" was passed; and that if this bill had not became a law, the wheels of government, in the classic language of Governor Porter, "would have stopped for want of greasing."

Porter is not satisfied with making the state signalize the merits of the illustrious dead, a debtor to the banks, to the amount of donor upon whom he had bestowed such three millions of dollars only; but he has great and manifold blessings: made another requisition on the Banks, for a loan to the state of five per cent. on their capital, under an act of Assembly passed yet weeping at the grave of her departed at the session of 1839-'40.

MEASURES.

The prompt action of the Senate receives the greatest approbation. Let them establish the fiscal agent, distribute the public lands, tax luxuries, and, if possible, pass the bankrupt law. If it be necessary to include the banks, better do this than leave the country under its present embarrassments. I believe that this last measure would on the whole be acceptable if it secures the relief demanded by our fellow citizens. It would also secure the passage of the act itself.
