Since this College has been placed under the care of the Methodist Conferences, it has been eminently successful. It is expected that the winter session will commence with a considerable accession of students, and we hope it may be so. Parents have every encouragement to send their children here; the situation is one of the most healthy in the Union, the course of study is as extensive as that of any other College, and the correct moral deportment of the students, affords the best evidence of the good government of the Institution.

Edward Everett, of Mass. has been nominated to the Senate as Minister to England; Col. Todd, of Ohio, as Minister to Russia; and Daniel Jeniser, of Maryland, as Minister to Austria.
