Good News from Pittsburg.

Mr. Editor: We read with interest, a few weeks since, a call from the friends of temperance in Pittsburg, on the Washing Pittsburgh, and has relations living there ton Temperance Society of Baltimore, for some agents from the class of Reformed Drunkards; and are happy to furnish from, the Pittsburg papers evidence of the triumphant success of the Temperance cause in their hands. Some of your readers may perhaps be able to enter into the feelings with which Harris of the Intelligencer has recorded the reformation and the return to society of his long lost brother.

\ The Baltimore Temperance Reformers were to have held a meeting last night at the 4th Presbyterian Church in the 5th Ward, but so great a crowd collecting, they adjourned to the large Methodist Chuch, on Liberty st .- When we reached there, at 8 o'clock, we found the house full, and all the avenues to it blocked up. These men are doing their work. It was no idle prophecy of Vickers-join us or we will run over you.' They are breaking down all before them. The political excitement of last year was great, but the Temperance Reform, and the spirit which appears to be infused into its leaders, is no ways behind it. The men feel themselves the pioneers and apostles of a great and glorious cause, and are fired with all the zoal of successful laborers. We need not say they will be victorious. They are already on the tide of triumph, and are sweeping all opposition from before them, like a torrent from a mountain .- Pittsburgh Visitor.

The temperance cause is advancing in Jay of Jone 1841.

The sure algest with an arrange and music rescelled Fuldenting. I. W. Gravet happy success. It is done with the right John C. Bryan. John F. McFeely feeling. Those who define and those who T. W. DeCoursey, Win. Price. did not, alike come foward, and take the pledge. Those who drank, to drink no more; those who drank not, give a solemn assurance that they never will. This is as it should be, all mingling together as one people, and moving in one column, arrayed against the enemy. It is distinct, tooa cause by itself, unconnected with any sect of religion, or indeed, any religious excitement at all. It is a great moral movement, and as such will best subserve the cause of true religion, whose only foundation can be on soberness, temperance, and truth. -Pittsburg Visitor.

From Harris' Intelligencer.

The Glorious Temperance Cause. This heavenly cause goes on gloriously, triumphantly. In almost half a century in Pittsburgh we have never seen such a complete moral revolution, such triumphant marches in the great temperance ranks .-All classes, all agos, all ranks, all denominations, and, both sexes press every night to our overflowing churches, and join their tipler, or the temperate drinker, to the feet of Jesus in their right mind.' Every church | www. www. www. where they have held meetings has been full, and they have sometimes had two meetings at extreme points on the same night, On Thursday night there was a very large crowd at Dr. Herron's church and many joined. On Friday and Saturday night joined. On Friday and Saturday night suited to the season, in North Hanover street, bethere was an overflowing meeting in W25- tween the Bank and Comman's Hotel, consisting in ley Chapel, 5th Ward, and many annexed part of Claths. Cassimeres, Sattnetts, Vestings, their names, and some few at the last minner of conts, Stripes, Shiptings, Sheetings, Cambries, Jaconets, Edgings, Lawns, Mouse de Laines, &c. &c. ute came in 'rags and wretchedness,' ashamed to be seen in the light, to join the Washington Temperance Society. On Monday night a very large meeting was held in the Second Associate Reformed Church Fourth street. On Tuesday night at the Third Presbyterian church, where about 100 joined, also at Dr. Lacy's, Laceyville; here the small church was crowded and about 70 joined after John D. Mahon, Esq. Mr. Small of Baltimore, and others addressed the meeting, and one poor but intelligent man, who, kept a small groggery, joined, gave up his business, and the humane joined and bought him out and made a frolic in destroying his stock of liquors. On Wednesday night a meeting was hold in the Bev. Joseph Kerr's church, 6th street, the Rev A. M. Bryan presided, and Mr. Small and others addressed the meeting and about 130 joined. On the same night an over-130 joined. On the same night an over-flowing meeting was held in the Rev. Dr. Swist's church, Allegheny, city; where about 350 joined. On Thursday evering another meeting equally as large was held in the Rev. Dr. Presley's church, Allegher to be done in the neatest and most substantial manny, and about 300 joined, and many could ner.

Unwards Garlisle, May 19, 1841. of 2000 have joined the Washington Temperance Society of Pittsburgh and Allegheny since Messrs Small, Vickers and Williams, the Missionaries from Baltimore, have been with us to tell their simple story and the horrors of drunkenness, and the Catholic Temperance Society numbers upwards of 2000-making 4000, and the in work seems only beginning. On Monday, night "the bitter tale of a woman's sorrows' from a drunken husband was read, and filled a vast number of both sexes with deep anguish and sorrow, and yet they, like the fair author who wrote her own sufferings, lived to rejoice in the glorious reformation. We heard of a nice, noble little boy, about 7 or 8 years of age, who attended the temperance meeting at Dr. Swift's; he heard the invitation for all classes and ages to join; he rose to sign his name, then paused, believing it to be his solemn duty first to consult and ask his mother; he went home and told all about the tales of sorrow he had heard, the advantages and blessings of temperance, and then said.

"Mother may I join." She run and kissed her little boy, and said, "Yes, my son, my

Dr. Elder-Dear Sir-I received a let ter this morning from our Missionaries, Messrs Vickers & Small, and was pleased to hear of their success: please to inform them that James Jackson Haris joins our society this night: he is with me now at my house, waiting for the hour to go down to the society. This gentleman is from who will be pleased to hear of his reforma-

Rheumatism---Acute or chronic, giving quick ease.

Its operation upon adults and children in reducing rheumatic swellings, and loosening coughs and tightness of the chest by relaxation of the parts, has been surprising beyond conception. The common remark of those who have used it in the Piles, is "It acts like a charm."

THE-TILES.—The price, $1, is refunded to any person who will use a bottle of Hays' Liniment for the Piles, and return the empty bottle without being cured. These are the positive orders of the propried for to the agents, and out of many thousands sold, not one has been unsuccessful.

To Physicians and Patients.

The Blind Piles, said to be incurable by external applications.—Solomon Hays warrants the contrary. His Liniment will cure Blind Piles. Facts are more stubborn than theories. He solicits all respectable physicians to try it upon their patients. It will do them no harm, and it is known that every physician who has had the honesty to make the trial, has candidly admitted that it has succeeded in every case they have known. Then why not use it? It is the recipe of one of theirmost respectable members, now deceased. Why refuse to use it? Because it is sold as a proprietary medicine? Is this a sufficient excuse for suffering their honest patients to linger in distress? We think not. Physicians shall be convinced that there is no humbug or quackery about this article.—Why then not alleviate human suffering? If they won't try it before, let them after all other prescriptions fail. Physicians are respectfully requested to do themselves and patients the justice to use this article. It shall be taken from the bottles and done up as their prescription if they desire.
