RELICS OF THE OLDEN TIME.

old letters, memoranda, &c., alluded to in

"In April last, our Regiment began their march from Philadelphia towards Shamo-

"We have now built a very strong Forti-Burd, sen. The letter is dated our last :-

and approbation. There was one distin-

We continue our selections from the "Shamochan, Nov. 1756.

A FAMILY NEWSPAPER:-DEVOTED TO NEWS, POLITICS, LITERATURE, THE ARTS AND SCIENCES, AGRICULTURE, AMUSEMENT, &C. &C.

Edited and Published for the Proprietor by William M. Porter, Carlisle, Cumberland County, Pa.

VOLUME ZEILL.-NO. 41.

WEIDNIEDAY MOBNING, AUGUST 4, 1941.

audience from being "most gloriously hum-For the Herald & Expositor. bugged," illat I heard but one opinion ex-Death. Ah! thou grim monster, Death ! pressed by all who listened to Mr. Reed-The dread of mortal men; an expression of honest, heart-felt praise Some hearts would fain diseard thy thoughts Till dust dissolve to dust again guishing feature in Mr. Reed's address, Thy enervating power worthy of the man and the occasion, to All flesh and blood must try; which I can barely allude-I mean his Thy all-subdung, chilling touch, state pride. He spoke as a genuine son of Sinks deep the vacant eye. Pennsylvania should speak--as a man proud Thy cold and icy breath of the noble state that gave him birth-and Benumbs, the active claywhen he referred, in language peculiarly chan, and his Hon. our Governor, came The earthly tenement of soul, Which flies to endless day. appropriate, to her present embarrassments, with us as far as Harris's Ferry, 95 miles Nor rank, nor vealth, nor age, Thy stern dehand resist. Thou knock'sty he knock must be obeyed ; Firmly thou ost persist. The man of fouriscore years, The youth of trenty-one. Both to the silent omb have gone, 'Neath the sameshining sun, The former, racke with pain, pairiotic-remarks found a warm and a wil-For months, his vils kept, ling response in the breast of every high-Till, with complicatel sufferings; His lasting sleep h slept. The latter, flushed-wh-hone. Swift o'er the groutl was going, But ere his courser tached the goal, Life's precious blod was flowing. How solemn speaks thypice From God, to us, thugiven ; A Vonin, in the twinklings aren Called to the bar of Heren. To us, still saved, by who The vale of Death 's unod, His sudden death prochais the sound "Propare to meet thy od." G.

his voice. But why discuss this question? quest than we expected. there is no necessity for it-the unanimous expression of applause elicited by Mr. R.'s fication here, which is called Fort Augusta. address, is the best commentary that could a plan of which, and the river Susquehanbe written upon the charges preferred natust by this fort, you have here inclosed, For theferald & Expositor.

done by my brother, Captain Shippen, and brainst him by this literary tyro -But-we are gravely told by this astule "Captain Shippen and I had leave of and sagacious critic-this American Dennis, that Mr. Reed culled his ideas from Carlyle absence from the regiment lastsmonth, and and Baneroft :--- the presumption, perhaps we spent that time in Lancaster very agree-I ought to say impudence, of this would be ably with the family there. They were critic, is truly astonishing. With such an all hearty and well, and our visit gave them imputation resting upon him, Mr. Read can a good deal of satisfaction. Mr. EDITOR :--- The bjoined extract is "No doubt you know that my Lord taken from a letter dath -- Carlisle, July draw some consolution-from the fact that Loudon was sent over here in July last 14th, 1841," descriptiv of the commoncethere are some creatures in this world so Captain General of all His Marstys forces ment exercises of Dickison College, which- utterly beneath an honorable man's notice, recently appeared in th "N. Y. Herald," that the magnitude of any accusation which Abereromby-and-General Webb, and a reover the signature of Sicho Panza: they may make is lost in the insignificance "On Wednesday if 7th inst., the an-of the accuser. Permit me to ask the aunual address was delived before the stu- thor of this letter, whether he ever read Regiment. My-Lord has broke up dents and alumni of thinstitution, by the year's campaign, and marched his tro Carlyle and Bancroft ? I-venture to assert Hon. Wm. B. Reed oPhiladelphia. This into winter quarters. address was looked f with expectations that he never has, and even if he had, it is

" Upon my arrival hero from Lancaster, of pleasure by ourconnoiseurs, who, questionable with me whether the powers the 6th of this month, Colonel Clasham judging from the repution of this gentle- of his mind are strong enough to appreciate man, expected a litery treat. But alas the mystical beauties of the first mentioned for these degenerate ays of letters, the writer. It is quite easy to make charges and as there is no field officer in this regi- and the old charch received her in its quiet ment but the Colonel and myself, I now was most gloriously umbugged with a of this nature, and people may be found command this garrison and the regiment." tame condensation of ic histories of the silly enough to believe that the author of French, English and Aerican Revolutions them is a person of very extensive and ge---interspersed with cracts from Gleig's life of Cromwell-Tits of Robespierre, neral reading. Why not produce the exanegic on the modest tracts which the author alleges Mr. Reed the impossibility of getting up any more glish females, for the pursuit or object in sours the disposition---inflames lust-stim-Extract of a letter from Col. James Burd, (then a Major in the Pennsylvania Provincial Regiment) to his father, Edward be impracticable, not to say imprudent, to tion, nor the lighter beauties of the sene-lettres, seem to move them from the geneattempt to march a step further this fall. ral apathy and indifference, or coldness of and the quantity of provisions at Raystown ANALYSIS OF FEMALE CHARACTER .--

But let the glorious attempt be made now, temperament, which is their most remarkaor at any other time, I pray_God_to-give ble defect. In England, Scotland, and him success, and return you all home in reland, in Germany, I land, well-educated Irelatid, in Germany, France and Italy, and peace and safety. women evince an enthusiasm, and express, " There is good news from-Europe in because they-feel, a passionate delight in

-to the "dark cloud that hangs as it were from Philadelphia. We arrived at Harris's the papers, now sent under cover to Major speaking of works of art which they may upon the distant horizon ready to burst the 5th May. There we laid waiting for have seen, or literary productions which Shippen. I refer you to his letter and him they may have read, or of poetry or music upon her with all its fury."-When he stores, &c.; until the first of June, and his to yours. Mr. Franklin-keeps his cha- which they may have heard; and the symspoke of her future destiny in tones not of Honor was pleased to stay with us all that despair, but of hope and confidence, and time. Then the Governor left us, and we Mr. Hamilton sometimes. - I forgot to tell of others, only seems to increase the ferwhen he exhorted her sons to be true to marched on to Shamochan, where we arthemselves, true to her best interests, his rived the 6th of July, and found the inhabitants of the town fled, and they had burned at. Virginia, had been solicited , twice and I have never yet witnessed any thing ap- for the first time, for yery few change a bad the town to the ground before their deparminded Pennsylvanian within the sound of ture. Here we had a much easier con-> good number of the trustees; and particumust be a deficiency of taste and feeling. larly by the tutors and scholars. Mr. Whether this is the result of climate and Halsey assures me he is very little inferior physical temperament, as some suppose, to Mr. Burr, and if he was but a New En- or the mere influence of cold manners, as gland man, he would be chosen nemine I am inclined to adopt the former supposito set off at break of day, so I must con- ament is evenced in the m clude. Your affectionate father, EDWARD SHIPPEN."

The following touching description, which for graphic power, simplicity and pathos, is hardly equalled in the English language, is an extract from "Master and although probably the American wo-

Humphrey's Clock," by Dickens, and de- men make the most faithful of wives, and on this continent; with him came-General scribes the interment of a young and beautiful child, whose sweetness of disposition inforcement, among whom is the Highland and purity of character are calculated to the women of Europe, or would be ready his finterest deeply the heart of every reader: "Along the crowded path they bore her now; pute as the newly-fallen show that covered it; whose day on earth had been as fleeting. Under that where she had sat when Heaven in its mercy brought went to Philadelphia to stay the winter, her to that peaceful spot, she passed again.

ix. 25. where she had many a time sat musing and laid their burden softly on the pave perfect in temper, yet light, and forming linman family, none, it may be safely ment. The light streamed on it through from heel to point the segment of a circle It is also stated that Dr. Rese voluntarily The following is a copy of an original the colored window - a window where the aftirmed, has had a more extended influof about seven feet radius.--Monthly Visi- tendered his resignation of his diocese etter from Edward Shippen to his son-in- boughs of trees were ever rusding in the ence, and produced at the same time effects about four years ago, while in this country, law, Colonel Burd. Mr. Shippen was the summer, and where the birds sang sweeny more monotonic to stimulating liquors. To this cause, prisummer, and where the birds sang sweetly more disastrous to society. that the use of which, though not at that time, was subsequently accepted, and the Rev. Mr. Odin MANNER OF FEEDING STOCK. was appointed in his place. The latter, Of the manner of feeding stock, I do however, has not accepted the appointment. would fall upon her grave. Earth to earth, ages of disease among individuals-and the think too exclusive use is made of raw corn. We have also been assured by undoubted ashes to ashes, dust to dust. Many a multifarious evils of poverty, vice, and It is one of the best grains undoubtedly to authority, that a gentleman just arrived "To Colonel James Burd, commander of asnes, oust to dust. Many a minimulations crise of porter, the most considerable por-finish off a fatting lot of stock, but to keep from Rome, saw Dr. Rese there, and had the Second Batallion of the Pennsylvania many a stiffed sob was heard. Some- tion of mankind. them along in store order, it lacks bulk, a conversation with him, and that he was The concurring testimony of the ablest and is too stimulating. Machines have Regiment, at Troyal Hanning, per favor and there were not a few-knelt down .-as free as any other person in the city. All were sincere and truthful in their sor- physicians have established beyond a doubt, beeu in use here to break up the corn cob From these facts, which appear to be well that the most formidable-or porent-which and all, into-meal; but they have proved-so--authenticated, we are persuaded that Cas-The service done, the mourners stood they can encounter in the opperation of defective as to rather prejudice the farmers telli's statement is without foundation. As against them. I suppose they lack strength part, and the villagers closed around to remedies prescribed, is the influence of init has been brought before one of the memin many of their parts, and somewhat too look into the grave before the pavement flamatory beverages on the constitution of bers of our government, it will, no doubt, complex in their construction. If some of stone should be replaced. One called to a patient; that the use of them is ever peroccasion an investigation that will go to the eastern machinists would only turn mind how he had seen her sitting on that nicious, never beneficial; whilst experience elicit the facts, and establish the truth of very spot, and how her book had fallen on has confirmed the lamentable truth that, their attention to this subject, and make a the matter.-Ledger. her lap, and she was gazing with a pensive with few exceptions, he who has long machine that is both strong and simple, face upon the sky. Another told, how he been addicted to habits of intemperance is and of a reasonable price, he could not but The following story, by Hogg, is irresoon accumulate a fortune here, in vending had wondered-much that one so delive te as is sure to become its victim. she, should be so bold; how she had ne-ver feared to enter the church alone at lating liquids, alcohol, under whatsoever them-the demand in this immense fertile sistible: "It's a good sign of a dog when his face region of the southwest would be almost been induced to call yr attention to it, tion of his own abilities: He apes the wit, killed twoy or three hundred, and taken night, byt had loved to linger there when guise it may be modified, has a tendency grows like his master's. It's a proof he's unlimited. They are also greatly in want of a streng, powerful machine to cut up not because I believe it those who read although his attempts at wit are about as many prisoners, and beat off the rest. This all was quiet; and even to climb the tower to cat away the liver-corrode the lungsaye glowerin' up in his master's een, to disvain and impotent as the efforts of Mac- news, you may be sure, gave us great stair, with no more light than that of the inflame the stomach-ruin the appetitecorn, stalks and all, something upon the cover what he's thinking on, and then withprinciple of a hay cutter, but the demand out the word or wave o' command to be affmoon rays stealing through the loophole in impede digestion -- discolor and taint the blood-defile the breath--crimson the nose for these would be much less than the for- to execute the wull o' his silent thocht, the thick old wall. A whisper went about --- parch the lips---blister the tongue---scald whether it be to wear sheep or run down mer. I wish that I could see a chemical analy- deer. Hector got sae like me, afore he solicitous lest the reption of Mr. Reed from the vasty deep-but alas, they will Hughes conveyed copies of these letters. and talked with angels; and when they the throat-impair the voice-bloat the face not come. Possessing all the melancholy In two days afferwards we had the plea- called to mind how she looked, and spoke, -- dim the cyc--waste the muscles--palsy sis of corn cobs. I do not suppose that deed, that I remember, when I was owre and her carly death, some thought it might the limbs-derange the nerves-and delete- there is much nutriment in them, neither is lazy to gang to the kirk, 1 used to send the covert insinuations an anonymous madness of a bard, without any of the in- sure to see your letter of the 14th ult., with be so, indeed. Thus, coming to the grave teriously affect the heart; moreover, as there in straw; but all who have tried meal him to take my place in the pew, and the spiration, he aspires to be thought a poet, a confirmation of the repulse you had given in little knots, and glancing down, and though its warrant were not yet fully execomposed of the cobs and the grain, agree minister kent nae difference. Indeed he Reed's fame rests upo foundation too Shade of Byron ! and of Kirk White ! !- the energy, and falling off in cuted; a detached portion of it aims at the that except for the last stage of the fatting once asked me, next day, " what I thoche head-bursts through its delicate vesselsprocess, it goes quite as far, and makes as o' the sermon, for 'he saw me wonderful church was cleared in time of all but the crowds out reason --- and takes up its sacri- much flesh as the corn alone; of this I have attentive among a rather sleepy congregasexton and the mourning friends. They legious residence in the brain, profaning not the slightest doubt, provided it is mixed tion.". Hector and me gied ane anither self behind an irresponse name, and like the most distinguished writers of the last but you have slain a considerable number saw the vault covered and the stone laid that celestial receptacle of the divinity in up with a sufficiency of water, and allowed sich a look and I was feared Mr. Pator man-the seat of his immortal soul. In the to slightly ferment before feeding; and as would have observed it; but he was a sim-Then, when the dusk of evening had temple of God is holy, which temples ye a corroboration of this opinion, I will here ple, primitive, unsuspectin' auld man-a give the details of a little experiment I made come on," and not a sound disturbed the sa- are." Now, ought not the unhallowed very Nathaniel without guile---and he jealered stillness of the place-when the bright use and influences of liquor, when we re- at home in Buffalo last summer. oused neathing, tho' both Hector and me I had twenty-two Berkshire swine in a moon poured in her light on the tomb and fleet upon this important light derived from was like to split; and the dog, after laugh-Holy Writ, to be discarded altogether small pasture during the month of August, in' in his sleeves for main than a hundred amongst Christians? where the herbage was so completely dried yards, could stand it no longer, but was Since such is the effect of this subtle up as to give them no feed from it. I acobliged to loup awa owie a hedge into a notatoe field, pretending to have scented agent upon the sensorium of every individ- cordingly ordered them lour bushels of outward things and inward thoughts teem ual who partakes of it, no wonder that from fraw corn per day, but this did not seem to partrickges." with assurance of immortality, and worldly excess in some, mania a potu, or insanity, satisfy them, and they were roving about hopes and fears are humbled in the dust should have swelled the catalogue of diseas- the pasture uneasy, and, as I soon found, before them-then, with tranquil and sub-A BACHELOR'S IDEAS OF A WIFE. A es at the present day, or that so much should losing flesh. I then took three bushels of missive hearts they turned away, and left wife should have eight qualifications, which begin with the letter P-Piery, have been subtracted from the stock of pue- ship stuffs, (which is the best quality of the child with God. Oh ! it is hard to lie industry, by the increase of lunatic asy, bran from our flouring mills,) and divided Perseverance, Patience, Prildence, Fatritake to heart the lessons that such deaths lums originating from this very cause. . it equally into two barrels, and then filled will teach; but let no man reject it, for it otism, Politeness, Penetration, and Por-Alcohol, taken internally, may justly be them up with water. In about 24 hours tion. lenominated a poisonous liquid, destructive this swill will commence; farmenting; and That willeh should be first of all, and universal truth. When death strikes down of the health, character, and general welfare every day about 1 o'clock, P. M., the hogs most in consideration, which is Pretty, is in most in consideration, which is Pretty, is in which is the last of all, the last of all, the innocent and young, for every fragile form from which he lets the panting spirit of man. Chemical analysis and physiolo- were called up and the whole placed in free, a hundred virtues riser in shapes of gical experiment have clearly established troughs as fast as they could eat, and they and with many. not at all. That which, at mercy, charity, and love, to walk the world, the fact, that when, received into the stom- could entirely finish the whole two barrels and bloss it. Of every tear that sorrowing ach it remains unchanged, unassimilated, ---- of the mixture. They then seemed fully should be the last of all, and least of all in mortals shed on such green graves, some good is born, some gentler nature comes, in the destroyer's steps there spring, up bright creations that defy his power, and his dork and backhow a travelet of the system not as blood. Getty contented. A busine of rate, cortis, how we we that defy his power, and his dork and backhow a travelet of the system not as blood. I do not setter do yer the grass just how over two settered over the grass just bright creations that defy his power, and his dork and backhow a this four the grass associate masked in its to annue the more the grass just his dork and backhow a this four the grass associate masked in its to annue the the four the backhow the lot grand consideration, which is Portion, is now become first cot all, most of all, and with a ANTI TRE-TOTALISM. The brewer of the his dark path becomes a way of light to operations, yet charged with ruin and com-his dark path becomes a way of light to operations, yet charged with ruin and com-heaven." his dark path becomes a way of light to operations, yet charged with ruin and com-heaven." his dark path becomes a way of light to operations, yet charged with ruin and com-heaven." his dark path becomes a way of light to operations, yet charged with ruin and com-heaven." his dark path becomes a way of light to operations, yet charged with ruin and com-heaven." his dark path becomes a way of light to operations, yet charged with ruin and com-heaven." his dark path becomes a way of light to operations with death. Having his understanded the health, it peat, light ruin were in as good condition have breeders. They judgment---effaces the memory---extin- from 120 to 400 pounds, would have aver- gollons of water.

and Loyal Hanning, and the difficulty, or The American ladies did not appear to me ion---depraves the taste---stupifies con- feed may be thus stated: rather (if winter should set in immediately) to evince the same passionate admiration, which is constantly witnessed among Encience---annihilates honor---prostrates self-____4 bushel of corn per day, on which the respect---debases the social affections- stock was growing poor, at 45c. $1:80; 3 bushels ship stuffs' 25c. 75; 1 bushel corn, before spring; I say, he is without 'doubt, which they were engaged. Neither paint- ulates the wicked passions --- dethrones the 45., extra time in mixing the swill with considering all these things; and so am I--- ing, sculpture, poetry, or music, neither reason --- contaminates the soul--- and thus water and feeding, 25c $1. Making a saand I am almost ready to conclude it will the higher topics of intellectual conversa- quenches rational life, whilst it mars and ving of 80 per cent., and that it would be tion, nor the lighter beauties of the belles defaces the handy work of the Almighty, equally great, if not greater, with corn cob meal thus mixed up, especially boiled, I in corrupting man! have not the least doubt. Corn alone guishes sensibility-pollutes the imagina- aged about 250 pounds.

gives too much fat inside, without a cor-INSTRUCTIONS TO YOUNG MOWERS .-Every farmer, who has employed many responding bulk of flesh outside, which mowers, has had occasion to pity the manseems to be the most necessary material ner in which some of them "dragg'd their for good breeding. What would a man slow swarths along," while we were de- think to be fed on pork alone? Would he lighted with the case, rapidity, and smooth- not daily crave bread and vegetables? Inness with which others, of far less strength | deed it is doubtful to my mind whether he would not sicken and die under such a regiwould pass over the field.

new Series, Vol. 5,-NO. 84.

The instructions of a kind and indulgent men. Root crops ought to be grown here more father, on this subject, are not only fresh riot in England, and visits our mutual friend pathy which they thus kindle in the minds in my memory, but lrave made first-rate than they are. Land that will yield 50 bushels of corn to the acre would turn out mowers of many young men, and perhaps the Major that Mr. Davis, the minister vor-and intensity of their own. Among may be useful to some of those who may at least 300 bushels of potatoes, or 900 of mow for the first time hereafter. I say, beets, carrots, parsnips, or rutabaga, and beets, carrots, parsnips, or rutabaga, and the expense of raising and securing these as often refused, to be President of Nassau proaching to this; and as it is not deficiency habit (of mowing particularly) after it is last cannot be greater than that of the first, Hall at Princeton. Mr. Findlay is a very of information, for most of them possess a once acquired. "As the twig is bent the and 4 bushels of that one would certainly clever man, and much approved of by a wider circle of knowledge, in whatever is tree is inclined;" so with those who use be equivalent to 1 bushel, with the stalk tree is inclined;" so with those who use folder that accompanies it, of the other.

A. B. A. mow one or two hours in each day, during February, 1841. the having season, for two or three years, when, hy the following directions, he may

Summer Complaint .- A friend has furnished us with the following prescription, for the above, complaint, and also for the dysentery, with an assurance that it is fully suspended on the fuger by the lower neb, as efficacious as the bean plant, which is the point and heet of the scyllie may be at rather scarce in the West: "Take of rhuequal distance from the ground. When at barb, Salæratus, Peppermint, and Cinnamon, two scruples each, pulverize, mix, and steep in a half pint of boiling watercool and then add two table spoonsful of good brandy, and sugar enough to make it palatable. Dose-one table spoonful every-hour-till the discharges assume a-natural appearance, which will generally be in a few hours."-Zancsville Gazette.

body turn with the seythe as on a pivot, THE ALLEGED IMPRISONMENT OF THE the heel of the scythe passing within two BISHOP OF DETROIT.-The statements or three inches of the advanced foot. This made in the letter to the Secretary of State, will relieve the arms, and so divide the efrespecting the imprisonment of the Rev. Dr. Rese, the Bishop of Detroit, are contradicted by a writer in the Catholic Herald. The writer says he has seen Bishop

Rese publicly in the streets of Rome, and Let the boy also at first-he instructed to at that time he resided in the convent atlip only ten or twelve inches of grass, untached to the church of San Lorenzo, in til his creet posture and the horizontal po-Lucina, where the writer is confident he sition of his scythe become habitual, when his love of ease, his interest, and his desire yet continues, as his name was mentioned as officiating prelate at the obsequies of the late princess Borghese, at that church, 가 있는 것이 가지 않는 것이 가지 않았다. 유럽이 같은 것이 가지 않는 것이 가지 않는 것이 같이 많이 있다.

be able to successfully compete with the strong but illy instructed: Let the snathe others, imagine, I cannot determine; tho' and sevilie be very light, and the sevilie of azordiko-edge, and so tung that when s of that which, 'il' women have any passion at all, however deep-seated it may be, will ashe edge of the grass, let an old and good. suredly bring it out-I mean the progress mower, (who is to walk near him halt an of their attachments, or loves: for I have neither heard or seen any evidence of that our,) instruct him to stand nearly creet. all-absorbing and romantic feeling, by which the hips being farther advanced_than_the this passion is accompanied in its develop shoulders, and under-no circumstance to ment, in all the countries I have named ; stoop, and when inserting, his scythe into the grass be sure to keep the heel nigh the ground; and when cutting the clips and afmost correct members of society, that any ter let the point be equally near it, let the nation or community can furnish, I do not think they love with the same intensity as to make such sacrifices of personal considcration, in rank, fortune, or conveniences fort that he will mow with as little fatigue of life, for the sake of obtaining the object as he can perform light work, and soon of their affections, as women readily and laugh at the "six footer" who stoops to perpetually do with us.-Buckingham.

"Every man that striveth for the mas cry is temperate in all things." 1 Cor.

Of all, the direst scourges that have even to triumph, will require a long scythe, been permitted to afflict and desolate the reach his grass.

speakers grand uncle, ten almost verbatim filehed from Carlyle and Bancroft? Let from an eulogium pronneed on the wor- him convict Mr. Reed of the literary theft proprietor of the land on which Shippens- that stirred among those branches in the marily, may be ascribed the origin and exthies of the Revolutiony the Hon. John if he can-until he does so, the community burg, in this county, is built. The letter sunshine, some trembling, changing light, istence of warfare between nations-the rav-Quincy Adams, on theth of July, 1834. will set him down either as a blustering is directed as follows !----True, some of Mr. Reis ideas were new and beautiful, that is, thy have lately been pedant or an ignorant fool. written and may be foll in the publica- Thet me now inquire who this modern tions of Messrs. Carly and Bancroft .--Johnson, so_profoundly skilled in the art Ilis oratorical powers thest are only tolerable, his principal far being tameness, of criticism, is, and how much weight his want of emphasis, and total destitution of opinion is entitled to when the merits of a expressive gesture." literary production are at stake. The iden-the letter referred to wattach the slightmight suffer a scriotdiminution from scribbler in the New Ik Herald. Mr.

object is simply to shie Mr. Reed from truth. What motive cohave influenced the writer in so palpabnisrepresenting facts, I know not, unlessive a propensity inherent in some person differ from the rest of the world in the mate they may form of the merits of a lary production, for the sole purpose of biring a reputation for profoundity of flect and acute powers of discriminatic hich they are conscious they do not pess-or it may be that he wished to be ught eccentric, which is considered by he as indisputable evidence of the posion of strong and varied powers of it. When the author asserts that the anneo was "most gloriously humbugged" Mr. Reed, and that his address was a. 'e condensation of the histories of the En, English and public sentiment in Carliand gives ut-of Mr. George Gibson, Q. D. " Lancaster, 6th Nov. 1758. "Dear Mr. Burd-

" About the 15th or 16th ultimo, Johnny Without stopping, MEditor, to remark tity of the author can very readily be disupon the evident impriety in the con- covered from reading the letter-but if that Gibson, Mr. Hans Barr, and Mr. Levi Anstruction of some of it sentences in the were not the case, his own conduct since drew Levi, wrote us from Raystown that above paragraph, and assing by the bad its-publication has completely unveiled the an 'account' was just arrived there from taste displayed in the setion of words to mystery. With only an ordinary share of Loyal Hanning, of your being attacked by express the author's taning, I will pre- talent, and but a limited, superficial cduca- a very large body of French and Indians mise my remarks by ating that I have tion, he has conceived a very exalted no- from Fort Du Quesne, and that you had est importance to it, codering the source beth to clutch-the spectral dagger :-- like cause of rejoicing, as it did the people in whence it originated, r because T feel the famous Glendower, he can call spirits Philadelphia, to whom Mr. Barnabas among the oldest there, that she had seen secure ever to be endated by the cow- With a smattering of American and En- lent as to the number killed, yet our joy whispering groups of three or four, the ardly attacks of a write ho shelters him- glish literature, and the names of some of was greatly increased. I make no foubt the dastardly assassin a his blow at the and present centuries at his command, he of the eneny, and I don't care a farthing down.

unsuspecting object of lengeance. My assumes to be the censor of public taste in whether I ever know the quantity, nor do matters of refined and polite literature, and I care whether you have killed more than what I conceive to be are and malignant believes himself perfectly competent to sit half a dozen of them; it is enough for me imputation, destitute of ry semblance of in judgment upon the efforts of his supe- to be convinced that you have driven off monument, on pillar, wall, and arch, and riors, and consign them by his fiat, pro- the enemy, and have bravely maintained most of all (it seemed to them) upon her the Post you were sent to sustain; and were quiet grave-in that palm time, when all nounced "ex-cathedra," to a literary death, you certain you had killed two or three or warm them into an ephemoral existence, just as it suits his whim or caprice, When hundred out of twelve or fourteen hundred filteen or twenty years shall have passed before their retreat, yet you could not be over, his head, and ignorance, impudence sure of success had you sallied out and purand stupidity shall have given place to a sued them. Indeed, by taking such a greedy few-grains of common, sense, he may, then step, you might have been drawn into an porhaps aspire to be thought a critic but ambuscade, and by that means been de- is one that all must learn, and is a mighty, not before. He should know that an feated, which might have put an end to the empty head, like an empty barrel, always present expedition. You happily called makes the loudest noise, and ought to be to mind, that a bird in the hand was worth remarkably careful lest he afford a practical two in the bush: And though you don't mercy, charity, and love, to walk the world, illustration of the truth of the poet's words: pretend to equal skill with an experienced officer, yet I think you may lay claim to some share of bravery, as you have so well dofunded your post, and I make no question but the General will pronounce you a Great Steamship - The cnormous iron good and faithful servant, and will enjoyst three thousand six hundred tons, and with- you another time, I suppose he's with terance to that which he is to be a plain out paddle wheels, being intended to be you by this time, and considering the sea-and deliberate falsehood b far was the propelled by the Archimedian screw. son of the year, the badness of the road, them.

That every braggast shall be called an ass." DICKINSON.