Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy,

Is performing some of the most wonderful enres on record. Mr. Wm. Pearson, of Delaware county, Pennsylvania, was taken in the fall of 1840 with a distressing cough, which daily increased until he became so much reduced in flesh that he was obliged to be helped in and out of bed. His Physicians at length gave up all hopes, and pronounced his lungs fatally affected and incurable. In this hopeless situation he was for ten weeks; when a friend of his called to see him, and discovering his awful condition, he immediately procured three bottles of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy, (having witnessed the effects in a similar case, induced him to procure the medicine,) and give it according to directions, and to the astonishment of all his friends, the patient began to feel better before using the medicine one week. After using it strictly six weeks, the patient was rendered able to resume his daily occupation. How many thousands of valuable friends have been taken away from us for the want of proper treatment. The very many who are yet among us, and behavior myder alsaying symatoms to such I Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy, have been taken away from us for the want of profet treatment. The very many who are yet among us, and laboring under alarming symptoms, to such I beg to say, procure immediately Dr. Duncan's Ex-pectorant Remedy, and if it be not too late, you may be restored to perfect health. HOREHOUND. An unparalleled remedy for common Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Breast and Lungs, leading to Cousumption; composed of the concentrated virtues of Horchound, Boneset, Blood Root, Liverword and several other vegetable substances.—Prepared only by J. M. WINSLOW, Rochester, N. Y.

Pittsford, Monroe co., Nov. 9, 1838.

Mr. John M. Winslow, Druggist,
Dear Sir: I have been for a scries of years afflicted with an affection of the Lungs, and a hard cough, and have many times arose in the morning as completely exhausted by excessive coughing during the night as a person would be by a hard days labor. I have tried most of the popular remedies of the day, but never found relief until I met with your Balsam of Horchound. All the other remedies or palatives, that I have used, leave the bowels in a congested state, while yours leaves them soluble and free. This I consider a great desideratum. On taking a dose of the night, and my sleep is refreshing. I take great pleasure in recommending your Balsam of Horchound to all those afflicted with pulmonary complaints or any disease appertaining to the lungs, and I take this opportunity to thank you for the great register and benefit I have experienced through your instrumentality. Yours, with much respect.

HEALTH ELIXIR. There is not one ease of Pever in a thousand, but may be effectually broken up and removed by the use of this Elixir. It removes all acidity indigestion, bilious matter and constipation from the stomach and bowels. It operates gently and effectually on the bowels, and powerfully on the kidneys and skin. It removes all unpleasant feelings after a hearty meal, and promotes a good appetite. It needs only a trial to give perfect satisfaction. It has become a general practice with many to use this article in all cases of colds, pains in the bones, or heavy disagreeable feeling, tendering to headache brehildness. For hearseness, if taken through the day, it completely restores the voice without producing sickness. Whooping cough, and all coughs of children are cured by it.—The stomach is kept in perfect order by it, and it is quite impossible that any disease; should commence while a person is using this Syrup.
