

HERALD & EXPOSITOR. Carlisle. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1841.

FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN BANKS, OF BERKS COUNTY. Democratic Whig Ticket.

SENATE, Thomas G. McCulloh, Michael C. Clarkson. ASSEMBLY, Major Samuel Givin, Christopher Au.

COMMISSIONER, James Hoffer. TREASURER, Jacob Zug. DIRECTOR OF THE POOR, Col. John Wynkoop.

AUDITOR, Thomas B. Bryson. CORONER, William Culbertson.

LOGOFOCO TICKET. Senate—William R. Gorgas, James X. McLaughlin. Assembly—William Barr, Jos. Culver.

To the Patrons of the "Herald & Expositor."

My connection with the "Herald & Expositor" ceases with the present number. It is unnecessary to advert to the cause of my withdrawal, except to say, that having received an appointment under the General Government, my time will be so fully occupied with other duties, as to render it impossible for me to remain in charge of the paper, without manifest injustice to its numerous readers.

The communication signed "Allen" has been received, and burnt! and if the author don't mend his ways, we are afraid the Devil will play the same joke on him some day.

We are indebted to the publishers of the Boston Atlas, and Daily Ledger, for early copies of the Foreign news, by the Caledonia.

The reader will find, on our outside cover, an able letter from General JOHN M. DAVIS, of Westmoreland county, to David R. Porter. The General conveys him of the vilest hypocrisy and duplicity, and clearly shows that the Executive is a cold, selfish, and calculating man, unfit to govern a free and generous people.

Mechanic's Convention.—The mechanics of New York State recently held a convention at Albany, to take into consideration the best mode of relieving themselves of the State Prison monopoly.

Some of the Southern politicians are certainly very erratic fellows. It was probably their various "turn-about" which gave rise to the negro saying, so often heard in Virginia, that "white men are very uncertain!"

It was stated the other day by a loco-foco, that Gov. Porter, spent two days at the York Encampment, and kept sober all the while. We admire such an instance of abstinence, and hope the example will be generally followed. It is perhaps, unnecessary to state, that no liquor was allowed on the camp ground.

Our Prospects.

Every day is adding to the popularity of JOHN BANKS. From all parts of the State we hear of numbers who were former supporters of David R. Porter, and have now publicly declared their determination to support John Banks in preference to the Veto King.

Let every freeman remember, that his vote may decide the question. If you have local prejudices, or personal preferences, forget them, and remember only that your ticket may be the death warrant of liberty or the instrument of freedom.

Whigs of Cumberland. A few days more, and you will be called upon to exercise a responsible duty.

The coming election is of vast importance to every voter. Under the administration of David R. Porter, the state debt has been increased to the enormous sum of FORTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS.

Your fellow citizens, in every part of the State, have withdrawn their confidence from Governor Porter—they disapprove of the manner in which the public affairs have been administered—they see one act of perfidy followed by another, crime begetting crime, dishonesty rewarded by place and profit, and white-washed guilt riding into office and power, on the shoulders of political prejudice.

At a meeting of the Democratic friends of John Banks, in Dauphin county, the following gentlemen were appointed a "Central Committee of Correspondence" to communicate with their fellow citizens in the several counties of the State.

But David R. Porter and his party cannot triumph. The approaching election will afford an opportunity of correcting the abuses which now exist. The love of office—the influence of patronage—the force of those who are held together by the "cohesive power of plunder," may be great and strong; but there is a strength greater than this; there is a redeeming spirit in the people which will wrest the sceptre from the hand of tyranny—a spirit which will save the state from degradation, and our citizens from misery and ruin.

Let every man turn out on the day of the election, and cast his vote for honest JOHN BANKS.

Let every man turn out on the day of the election, and cast his vote for honest JOHN BANKS, the candidate of the people, the man who has never swerved from the path of rectitude, and who will rescue the government from the mire of corruption in which it has been placed by Previous Pardon Porter.

THE MONSTER BANK.

It was alleged some time ago—and not denied—that the United States Bank, gave Gov. Porter 99,000 dollars for signing the suspension act, of 1840. Subsequently the Governor took the Bank under his special care, had his nephew C. W. Brook Esq. appointed one of the officers, and a few weeks afterwards the Bank exploded.

The Loco-foco ticket is now complete, and the claims of J. Ellis Donham, David Hume, Esqrs., and certain other of the prominent and patriotic loco-focos, have been overlooked. They will probably be rewarded at a future day.

Some of the Loco-foco editors take great credit to themselves for not having attacked the private character of Judge BANKS. The character of the Judge is pure and unspotted, and this is the true reason why he has not been assailed.

Colonel Hugh Lindsay, of Berks county, hitherto a violent loco-foco, and who last summer had a controversy with the Buckeye Blacksmith, has abandoned Porter. He says, (what intelligent men have always known) that Porter is no democrat.

At a meeting of the Democratic friends of John Banks, in Dauphin county, the following gentlemen were appointed a "Central Committee of Correspondence" to communicate with their fellow citizens in the several counties of the State.

Notwithstanding what has passed, I have confidence that the President will co-operate with the Legislature in overcoming all difficulties in the attainment of these objects; and it is to the union of the Whig party, by which I mean the whole party, the Whig President, the Whig Congress and the Whig People—that I look for a realization of our wishes.

I am, gentlemen, respectfully, your obedient servant, DANIEL WEBSTER.

The New Cabinet.

The opinions and character of the men whom President Tyler has called around him as advisers have become the subject of universal inquiry and interest. We give such facts with regard to each as are fresh in our memory.

WALTER FORWARD, Secretary of the Treasury.—Mr. Forward is a citizen of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. Our first knowledge of him, was as a Democratic member of Congress from his District in 1824, and an ardent champion of the American System.

JOHN McLEAN, Secretary of War.—Mr. McLean came into Congress, if we mistake not, in 1816, as a Democratic Representative of the Warren District, Ohio.

ABEL P. UPSHUR, Secretary of the Navy.—Judge Uphur is a citizen of Northampton county, in Mr. Wise's district. He has been a delegate in the Legislature, and distinguished himself in the Convention of 1828, which formed the Constitution of Virginia.

At a meeting of the Democratic friends of John Banks, in Dauphin county, the following gentlemen were appointed a "Central Committee of Correspondence" to communicate with their fellow citizens in the several counties of the State.
