ued protection to her orphan daughter.

smiling children gathered round her knee, no one could have told that one of those children was the daughter of these who had outraged and insulted the gentle being, whose 'maternal kindness was extended equally to

THE POWER OF FORETELLING DEATH. Some persons have an idiosyncrasy to be reflected by emanations which have no percentible effect on mankind at large. Some have catarrh and asthma when near certain when within a pertain distance of persons certain intensity, I understand that the parrect terms, the acknowledgment of Ameri-tient who produced it has died. The can Independence; and on the motion he Martemque accendere cantu"--- were still plienomenon has been known to the nurse, ing communicated to him the day before it for war,'--- a fearful lottery, in which one has not this idiorynerasy, and is perfectly was still ill, but hoped to be in town to- Chatham's Administration, produced no with as much advoitness in England as he ighorant that she ever has it. In her som- morrow." On that morrow he appeared in solid advantage to his country---and how has in this country: numbulism she has it simply; but, in her the House of Lords for the last time. delirium, it is attended by an allusion that she sees a figure, something like the rep- of Lords, leaning upon two friends, wrapresentation of death, wrapped in a white ped upon flannel, pale and emaciated. from the emanations, the taller the figure; seen than his aquiline nose and his penethe etronger, therefore, are the emanations, trating eyer. He looked like a dying man; roasting on the bars of a grate; it we have and raised it, casting his eye towards hea- and who if one curl of his glossy wool the rheumatism, we may dream that some ven, and said, 'I thank God that I have were displaced, would be thrown immedi-

On learning this wonderful fact, I ex- subject on which he spake. amined carefully into it, and ascertained its reality. But having had, among a few of ed. I resolved to remove her into my other there at the close of the day when she ain was given up." could not see the patients. Accordingly, ged the nurse of the ward to accome the Duke of Richmond rose to explain. in the useless study of the puerile forms without a farthing to pay for his lodgings, situation of our country and productions of to utter a word, and I led her, not to listened to him with attention and compo- heart to see the "painted lizards" trodden with him home to New Orleans. He therethe bedside of patients, but up one side sure, and, when his grace had ended, rose out stopping; and no one knew the object he fell backward in convulsions. He was I had hold of her hand the whole time. of battle.

The patient, who was then in a state of That sa persect insensibility, soon died; the other, Colonel Barre, formerly the bitterest of his He who looks upon all men as equals, and to Lord Brougham, and I hoped it was not Then, its mounts merges will be, chemics, but lately become a close ally— who fears not to stand in the presence of a very improbable that you might also give PLEDGE OF THE CUMBERLAND COUNTY from the House of Common world him a lately become a close ally— who fears not to stand in the presence of a very improbable that you might also give PLEDGE OF THE CUMBERLAND COUNTY TEMPERANCE SOCIETY. from its nature, necessarily fatal. I consthe House of Commons voted him a publicing. The man who is guided by moral him a letter of introduction to me. I acsidered it my duty to inquire into this in- lie funeral and a monument in Westminster honor, and not obliged to have laws made cordingly referred Colonel Edwards to my contrary to physiological and pathological ties generously and cordially joined. truths; but it was an unusual modification. and had I not inquired into it, I should posed the innocent and excellent little girl more to add. to another false and base accusation of im-between the standard and the same of resultant the result of the standard and the standard posture.

condition, supplied her with means to reach run a tilt against public amusements, but I contemporaneous letters and memoirs, they vault of Heaven, in this sunset hour; how really been here—that he had presented to considerations connected with this great and the town in which Isabel resided. She lived but a few weeks after her arrival at the hospitable mansion of Dr. Dillingham, but her pray every modest woman and modest man; brought them out in sull bolder prominence. In the first place, it would not be easy to sky. It is the very gate of Heaven—and Republic of Texas, having heard something tinuance of your co-operation, in carrying her friend, and by her assurances of contin- a different scale for the different sexes? specify any positive advantage (except, that lone star seems to be a beacon-light, of this, wrote to Lord Brougham to say that This promise Isabel most faithfully per land, to discountenance its advancement of Canada) which the country has in- us, erring wanderers home. We can also prisoned for forgery in Texas, and had es, of adding to your past efforts. Who, in formed, and when, in alter days, a group of there. If we have not yet the perfection of thereted from Lord Chatham. The very hear their blest voices, as they mingle caped from jail; that he, General Hamilton, our day, has ever seen so great a work ef-

Lord Chatham.

The following passage is the conclusion ham," in a late London Quarterly: We are now arrived at the closing scene of great oppression, sickness and misery treating his Majesty to dismiss his Ministers, and to wilndraw his forces by sea and whose frame is sinking. The emanations land, from the revolted provinces. There which are constantly proceeding from was bardly a topic in this motion which ell are so altered in their composition, I Lord Chatham had not himself repeatedly presume (in extreme debility, that a high urged; and it was, no doubt, so framed and invariably verified by her for a long was to be made, he apprised the Duke, or two brilliant prizes are dearly purchased period before I heard of it; and Elizabeth "with unspeakable concern, that the differ- by the misery of individuals and the cala-Okey only by chance communicated it to ence between them on the point of the in- mity of nations. We believe the world is me in November during her delirium. - dependence and sovereignty of America, by this time pretty well disposed to sub-When not in a mesmeric state, that is, was so very wide that he despaired of scribe to Sir Samuel Romilly's opinion, when not delirious nor somnambulist, she bringing about any reasonable issue. He that the glories, as they are called, of Lord Philadelphia, has practised his forgeries. Lord Chatham came into the House robe. The more intense the oppression Within his large wig little more was to be and the near the nersum is to their end war a seen a figure of more dignity; and his open honest countenance, is often an entire longery.

This is, perfectly in accordance with the appeared like a being of a superior or found to be possessed of the real antire. Of this Edwards, I had some previous slaves. delirium. If we have an inflammation of ness and difficulty, leaning on his crutches, the foot, the heat of this is very likely, in and supported under each arm by his his gloves than of his honor; whose shirt the United States, and my predecessor in to freedom, by sending them to an English Journal of Commerce. our dreams, to make us fancy the part is friends. He took one arm from his crutch bosom must be as pure as a virgin's fame; the Department of State. one is giving us the bastinado: in oppres- been enabled to come here this day---to afely into strong convulsions. The blood sion of the breath, we may dream that we perform my duty, and to speak on a subsee a demon sitting upon us-in short, ject which has so deeply impressed my through the heart of a Russian serf, is as have the night mare, and it is very con- mind. I am old and infirm-have one foot, ceivable that, the more distressing the op- more than one foot in the grave-I am pression, the larger might the figure be im- risen from my bed to stand up in the cause of the highest of England's noblemen. It now believe, your name has been most agined. Thus, the sensation, which she of my country-perhaps never again to is a false, illiberal idea, that because a man improperly made use of, and your writing in promotion of his most praiseworthy obknows to arise from the influence of a per- speak in this House. The reverence- cannot claim alliance with the proud and forged. I enclose you a letter which, when ject, will be properly appreciated. son' hurrying to the grave, gives her a the attention—the stillness of the House fancy that she sees the figure, when in her was most affecting: if any one had dropped the list of gentlemen. We are all created writing, and which I now believe to be a delirium; but, if she is near a sinking per- a handkerchief, the noise would have been alike-our mothers suffer the same pangs; forgery. son when in a state of somnamhulism, in heard. At first he spoke in a very low and and shall the one who is ushered into life which her reason is sound, she not only feeble tone; but as he grew warm, his voice upon a silken couch spurn him whose limbs figure, but tells you that the idea of the and affecting, and perhaps more then at class, from time immemorial, has shed the students who have signalized them- give his vote against so impolitic, so inglo- are most heard, and to most effect, through- land, and that Lord Brougham having done solves, some by scribbling and some by rious a measure as the acknowledgment of talking, experience of the falsehoods and the independence of America; and declared in poverty, but clothed by truth with the thought it necessary to trouble me with There is not a spear of Rice, or Wheat, or absurd-objections to which all the mesme- he would much rather be in his grave than jewelled robe of honor. Does the mere fact this letter. But that now he was in a Tobacco, or a Cotton plant, that springs ric phenomena of my patients were expos- see the lustre of the British throne tarnish of a man's being able to make a bow with great difficulty, Lord Brougham was award, in which she was unacquainted with the glory of the nation sunk to such a de-tleman? Shall the children of one mother neither the American Minister, Mr. Stethe diseases of the patients and with the gree as it must be when the dependency of be divided, because one portion are gifted venson, nor any other of his fellow coun-

I had in view. I felt her shudder as she immediately supported by the peers around passed the foot of two beds, and after leav- him, and by his youngest sons, who haping the word, she told me that she had felt pened to be present as spectators. He was the sensation and seen the figure which she conveyed first to the house of Mr. Sargent, waw in her delirium, but in her delirium in Downing street, and then to Hayes, nurse informs me that in passing one bed day, the 11th of May, terminated a glorious she heard her whisper, "There's Jack," life by a death, it may be said, in the ser- locked to pity, and whose arm is always men would not assist him. while she shuddered, but I did not, although vice of his country, and on the very field nerved to redress the injuries of the oppresceeded, our opinion on the several points own opinions, provided those opinions do they knew your hand-writing perfectly use renovemon the community. 'have been devoid of all spirit of profession- of Lord Chatham's policy, and the varying not infringe the decrees of justice in its well, and were sure the letter was a genual inquiry, and moreover should have ex- features of his character, that we have little most rigid sense. Such a man and only ine one. I have said I cared very little a-

That he was the most powerful orator proud appelation of a "gentleman." [elt that I should behave very ill to you, if that ever illustrated and ruled the Senate of Thank God! we are in a country where I permitted "a valued friend" of yours to this empire-that for nearly half a century the field of honor and renown is open to be arrested when I could avert it by the An American Lady's Opinion of the he was not merely the arbiter of the desti- all. The lowest freeman in the land is in loan of £250. I accordingly advanced the An American Lady's Opinion of the he was not merely the strong of his own country, but "The fore-part the governor of its proudest officer.— money.

"In Gitana" after the singing, and Tagli-most man in the world"—that he had an office, 19 North Eighth street Philadel-proud dignity of natural right, knowing during this month of September, saying election, a favorable opportunity to call the attention of the friends of temperance, and that he cannot be oppressed while he re-that he took so long a period in order to attention of the friends of temperance, and the lady of the philadel-philadelof her arms, and, if she would restrict her- by all the minor accomplishments—that his spects himself. There is no distinction of be quite certain that he should have arrived of our auxiliaries in particular, anew to the self within the limits of decency, there ambition was noble—his views instinctively classes here—the blacksmith and the sena- at New Orleans and been able to transmit consideration of the high claims of the could not be a more exquisite spectacle of elevated.-his patriotism all excessive—that tor—the shoemaker and the President all the money to the day. I felt myself quite temperance cause upon our zealous and its kind than her dancing. I would give in in all the domestic relations of life he was haileach other as "gentlemen." - Crercent secure of repayment till about 3 weeks or constant support. Our comparative silence them, may have educated and improved the with pure beings-that he'is of an able and eloquent review of the "Cor-respondence of William Pitt, Earl of Chat-government? How many statesmen may his example have formed? How many improvements may his precept have probelieve, left such scanty traces.

Though so sagacious and so accomplished a mind could not be insensible to, and fade and die. Apt emblems of life. non præstantoir alter---Ære ciere vivos, short a space of his career was that epoch of doubtful glory."

The Gentleman.

which flows in a rich and generous stream pure in the eyes of God as the life current let you know of some transactions in which England. which eddies round the princely fountain I have been engaged, and in which, as I wealthy, his name should be stricken from I first saw it, I believed to be your hand-

sed. Who smiles not at misfortune, and would give any friend of yours about whom That same evening-on the motion of who mocks not the affliction of his fellows. such a one, should dare lay claim to the bout Colonel Edwards's securities, but I every modest man and woman, then, in our perhaps, the possession-videat quantum hung out from her golden portals to guide this Edwards had been convicted and im- volence; and to urge on you the necessity there. If we have not yet the perfection of herited from Lord Chatham. The very a matured civilization, God save us from the corruptions that preliude and intimate its decline!—Miss Sedgwick's New Work.

Lord Chatham.

The very hear their blest voices, as they mingle caped from jail; that he, General Hamilton, our day, has ever seen so great a work effected in a single year, as has been effected a national glory, and therefore a national glory, and the though glory, and the though glory, and the though gl the corruptions that prelude and intimate a national glory, and therefore a national Whose soul will not kindle within him, and and that Edwards had made no reply to in this country during the past year, by extent to which his lectures, so to call does not feel that he is holding converse Hamilton, and my Solicitor showed him the only temperance principle which we

"Just on the boundary of the spirit land, Close to the realm where angels have their birth?" rer and better when he listens to her voice? hardly possible to do any thing towards the of this illustrious life. On the 7th of April, | duced? How many errors and evils may How impressively does God speak to us, legal conviction of Edwards for this for- efficient action on this subject, and all the 1778, the Duke of Richmond, hitherto the his authority have repressed? But of di- at this sweet, sad season. He makes all gery, but it may be possible, by exposing grasses in flower; some when near a hare, ally and supporter of all Lord Chatham's rect, permanent, practical ameliorations of nature beautiful, and gives us faculties to him to prevent him from defrauding other toxicating drinks is yet working desolation dead or alive; some have indescribable sen- American policy, moved an address to the our social and political condition, few of enjoy its beauties. Sweet flowers, ye too, people. I fear, therefore, you may think sations of a most distressing kind when Crown, recapitulating in detail the expen- our statesmen-even those who had not a in your ever varying hues and delicious I am giving you a great deal of unnecessary grave, making drunkards of the moderate near a cat. Elizabeth Okey has a sense ses, losses, and misconduct of the war, en- thousandeth part of his abilities -- have, we odors, whisper the name of your Creator: trouble in sending you this long detail, but Ye wear the richest dyes, and send forth as your name had been so much mentioned mortal," in the gardens of God.

MORE EXPLOITS OF EDWARDS, may wish to commend to me. THE FORGER.

We find the following correspondence in the Boston Daily Advertiser of yesterday. Edwards, the forger, now in prison in MARSHFIELD, Oct. 8, 1841.

Yours, with much regard. DANIEL WEBSTER.

WILSETON, Sept. 12, 1841. My Dear Sir: I have thought it right to

Some time last spring, while I was living at Althorp, I received a letter from a has not the sensation merely---sees no rose, was as harmonious as ever; oratorical were first laid on a truss of straw? Which person who signed himself Monroe Edwards, enclosing the letter which I hereof history-the gentleman of fashion or self, that he made use of the letter to Lord "He rejoiced that he was yet alive to the gentleman of nature? What voices Brougham when he first arrived in Enged—the dignity of the empire disgraced, scrupulous exactness constitute him a gen- broad, which I knew to be the case, that patients themselves, and to conduct her America on the sovereignty of Great Brit- with gracefulness of action and coxcombry trymen, would assist him, because they that sails from a Northern port which does of demeanor, while the others will not stoop were so hostile to his objects about the ne-After speaking for some time with great to cringe at flattery's fawn, or waste the groes, to which allusion is made in the the Southern Planter. The God of Naabout five o'clock, in December, I log enthusiasm, he sat down exhausted, and hours given them by Heaven to improve; enclosed letter, and that he was actually ture, if we regard only the geographical pany us. I enjoined the little girl not While he was speaking, Lord Chatham of fashion? Oh, how glad it makes one's or to carry him and a son of his he had under foot by the gentleman of nature! to fore sent me your letter, and/asked me to of the ward and down the other, with to reply; but his strength failed him, and see them shrink away at the approach of lend him two hundred and fifty pounds, of honest men, fearing that they may be called fering as a security certain bonds and reupon to acknowledge their own inferiority! ceipts upon some bank in the United States. Who is the gentleman? he who can As to these securities I thought very little know not where to find them. Our interboast of nothing but a name, upon which about them, but I concluded they were ests are the same, our manners the same, dishonor has never thrown its leprous poi- good, as they were offered by a friend of our language the same. Springing from son. He who can lie down upon his pil- yours. Now this story was a very plau- one common stock, we are bound together only calls Jack, at two of the beds. The where he lingered for three days, and Mon- low at night knowing that he has done his sible one, with the exception of the asser- by every tie of endearment that can oper-

But I thought it very probable that you you were interested, a letter of introduction

Mary Woltsonerafe, but into men, women and ballet dancers; for surely a woman sed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers; as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers.

32 Peliciple Office, No. 19 North Eighth street powers as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by his own wonderful powers.

32 Peliciple Office, No. 19 North Eighth street powers as Go into the thick deep wood; listen to the lacordingly spoke to Brougham, when I seed over by confident is a forgery.

As to the recovering the £250, that of How eloquent is nature!—who is not pu- course is out of the question; it is also fault! the sweetest fragrance, as you are about to, in the transaction, I think it is as well that

Believe me, my dear sir, Yours, most truly, SPENCER.

Hon. Daniel Webster, &c. &c. &c.

Marshrield, (near Boston) Oct. 29, 1840. introduce to the honor of your acquaintance operations. my valued friend, Colonel M. Edwards, a Mr. Hale .- I know not how I may bet highly respectable and wealthy farmer of ter guard the public against further prac- Louisiana, who visits England with a view tices of an impostor, than by publishing of conferring with H. M. Gov't. on the True gentlemen are to be found in every the following letter from Earl Spencer, re- subject of 200 African captives, now illegrade of society. The floughman, with ceived by the Acadia. The accompanying gally held as slaves in Texas. Said Afrihis broad sunburnt hand, his homely dross, letter, purporting to be written by me, is cans were sold with an estate to Col-Edman-milliner, who is much more careful of some time ago, upon the late President of before unknown, attempted their restoration colony, but was prevented from so doing by the direct interposition of the Government of Texas. These poor Africans have Any service it may be in your Lordship's power to render Colonel Edwards

I have the honor to be Your Lordship's most ob't. serv't. DAN'L. WEBSTER. Rt. Hon. Earl Spencer, London.

"CONFLICTING INTERESTS."-The Raleigh (North Carolina) Register makes the figure in her delirium is delusion—the prothus of delirium.

The prothus of delirium is delusion—the prothus of delirium.

The prothus of delirium is delusion—the prothus of delirium.

The prothus of delirium is delusion—the prothus of delirium.

The stated that you leigh (North Caroling) kegister makes the stated that you leigh (North Caroling) ke names are enrolled in the dazzling pages Lord Brougham as well as this one to my and South," about which much is said now-a-davs:— "We demand to know what these con flicting interests are? Is the interest of the on the remotest part of our Southern terri tory, that does not contribute to the sup port of the Northern Merchant, Manufac turer and Farmer. There is not a vesse not, directly or indirectly, bring wealth to its soil, or consider man as the creature of sordid interest, seems to have ordained this mighty Republic to be forever one and indivisible. No part of the inhabitable globe is more intimately, more indissolubly connected. As to "conflicting interests," we would sow discord among us ?"

Temperance Department

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, DO AGREE, THAT WE WILL sidered it my duty to inquire into this in- lie funeral and a monument in Westminster honor, and not obliged to have laws made cordingly referred Colonel Edwards to my NOT USE ANY INTOXICATING LIQUORS NOR TRAFFIC IN teresting fact. There was nothing in it Abbey, a tribute in which men of all par- for his observance. He who has true de- Solicitor in London, and sent up this letter THEM AS A BEYERAGE; THAT WE WILL NOT PROVIDE mocracy in his soul-who desires and purporting to be from you. My Solicitor THEM AS AN ABTICLE OF ENTERTAINMENT, OR FOR We have so fully expressed, as we pregives to every man the enjoyment of his took the letter to Messrs. Baring, who said

> For the Herald & Expositor. To the Temperance Societies, Auxiliary to the Cumberland County Temperance Society.

The Executive Committee of the Cum-forward this wonderful enterprize, of benethe enclosed letter, which he says he is recognize as having any power for good; and if we have not shared fully in the efforts of this great movement, it is not our

We have in our hands all the means o motives to impel us to it. The use of inall around us-carrying the drunkard to his grave, making drunkards of the moderate drinkers, and sowing the seeds of future Black Sarah A Black Thomas ruin even among the children of our rising population. Nothing but frequent meeted a mind could not be insensible to, and fade and die. Apt emblems of life.

you should be aware of what has taken ings, which every man, woman and child in fact highly appreciate, the value of mental cultivation, social improvements, if we are ready, like the glorious forests selfish influence operating upon us, I must in which every friend of temperance can in which every friend of temperance can commercial enterprize, and all the fair and and beautiful flowers, we may wrap our also admit, that I am not sorry to be able take a part, will be found sufficient to meet The street dentity, that a use urged; and it was, no doubt, so framed susceptibility may suffer from them.—with a view to secure his concurrence; but finished are called to bloom in the work of the work have hereofore retarded the work of the saw that it involved, though not in distance of the saw that it involved, the saw that it involved is the saw that it is the saw your wishes, and do all I can to show hos- in our county. There are scores of men Baily Rosanna pitality to any friend of yours whom you all around us to whom the pledge has never Brown John been offered. Let us harness ourselves up for the work; prepare ourselves for some little personal sacrifices, if necessary, for the public good; organize our committees, &c., for efficiency of action, and thee what, by the blessing of Heaven, we can effect before the close of 1842. It is already time My, Lord-I have taken the liberty to for us to begin to prepare for another year's

> M. CALDWELL, H. AURAND, L. G. BRANDEBURY, HENRY DUFFIELD, Executive Committee

LIVING UP TO PRINCIPLE. The Captain wards, and imposed on him as "hona fide" of a beig from the State of Maine was a Gaitchen L.

S slaves. Subsequently learning their true short time ago at St. Croix, and was there Gotslall Jacob the nome and the street of the street of a gentleman, than the energated knowledge; as he attempted similar frauds claim to freedom, lie, with a magnanimity offered $1000 to bring home a cargo of run, Hill Peter Hoffmann George P Hortman Christian but refused, preferring to return in ballast.

Handshue George Hoffer John-han THE EFFECTS OF DRUNKENNESS .- The claims on H. M. Gov't. and it is with the great Lord Chancellor Bacon's opinion of Hall Owens view of representing those claims in their drunkenness was, that "All the crimes on proper light that Colonel Edwards visits earth do not destroy so many of the human Hathaway Mr or Mr Robertson earth do not destroy so many of the human traine Philip race, nor alienate so much property, as Koushenour John Ketel John Kiehl George Sr

Hats!: Hats!!! Hats!!!

JUSH received, Fashionable Russia, Beaver and Silk Hats, and for sale by CHAS. BARNITZ. Carlisle, October 6, 1841. Dayton Berkly Kecler Geo. B

Men's and Boys' Boots and Shoes. I have just received for winter sale a full stock o Men's and Boys'

Boots, Shoes and Brogans, hich are offered cheaper than any ever offered be fore in this place.

CHAS. BARNITZ. Carlisle, Oct. 6, 1841.

Caps! Caps!! Caps!!! Just received and added to my former stock a beautiful and seasonable stock of Mens' and Boys Glazier, Fur, Cloth, Selet, Hair and Seal Caps, of on and at the lowest prices. CHAS. BARNITZ.

Carlisle, Oct. 6, 1841.

HARRISBURG STEAM SAW-MILL.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Dauphin; Cumberland, Franklin and other of Daupan, Cumperland, Frankin and other neighboring counties, that he has now on hand a large stock of timber of the very best quality, both oak and pine, and is prepared to furnish any quanti-ty of lumber for buildings and machinery, on the shortest notice.

The following is the price for stuff of ordinary ength:

At the mill, per thousand feet
The lumber will be delivered, is requested, at the canal and rail road depots, so that it can be transport-canal and rail road depote, so that convenience, ed in any direction with great convenience.

WM. H. KEPNER.

Harrisburg Steam Mill, September 22, 1841.

EDGE TOOL

MANURACTORY.

Carlisle, Sept. 29, 1841.-17. SPICES, &c; with a great variety of other goods, all of which he will sell at a small profit to; suit the innes, Don't forget to eath on. I. M. HARRIS.

Carlisle. Sent. 29, 1841.—Iv.

queensware and Groceries, 'OSTV Leather & Morocco Shoes & Boots.

Also - Mens, Womens' and Childrens' Fall and Winter Goods,

The Subscriber has just opened a new and has WOKE HEAL COODS!

LIST OF LETTERS

ber 1. 1841.

Barlet Sarah

Bracht David

Clarke Daniel

Elliott James.

Iunter Sami Harmer Justice

Karr Alexander

ning in the Post Office at Carlisle, Octo-

Enquirers will please say advertised. Anderson Benjaman S Lyne J P Col Lockhard Jane Lechier Peter Low Catharine Lauck Rachael
McMillen Michael 2 Breneman Melchoir Marias Jane McKean Samuel jr 2 MoManus Terre Martin John M or Nicholas Ulrich Mackall Bazel Mordorff Conrod Moore John (Dickinson) Morrow Hannah Miller John McCabe Sarah Mycrs Abraham McManus Margeret V Miller William Cross Samuel W Neidig Jonathan Netro Margaret nings Alexande Nevel Jacol Noel Cecilia Negley Peter Crever Augustus Crabb Plunket A. Pechart Daniel Dale Rev James W Dixon or Dickinson John Deitz John Paull William Esq Putson A Park William Russel Mason W. Reed George Randolph Susanna Ralston James M Ebersole Barbara Fohl Red John Fry Martin 2 Granger Thomas Griffith R Coodman Jacob 2 Gerhart Benjamin

Robinson E & Co. Rankin James Smith Eli Stotler Elizabeth or Barl ra Ann Slusher Henry Sterrett R C Shetron Peter Slyder Jacob

Hoover David Hartzler Abraham sen. nmitz John Steinmiz John Shirk Henry
Stoner Christian Sord David
Thomas John
Vandergrift Archibald Waterbury Ann Welcome Catharine

Welin John Wallace Mr Woodard Leonard Welsh John W Zearing John H CARLISLE BARRACKS. Ackerman Otto P. W. Townsend John F. Sergt.

Thompson Charles C.
Turnbull Thomas
Gage Edward
Green William W. M. PORTER, P. M.

JUST received a few pieces of new stiled goods, expressly for the ladies—Black and figured Retorines, blue black Crape, dress French Morneno; also black Silk Warp, for sale by CHAS. BARNITZ.

Carlisle, October 6, 1841.

PROCLAMATION.

HEREAS, the Hon. SAMUE HERBURN, Prewisident Judge of the Court of Common Pleis in the 9th District, composed of the counties of Cumberland, Perry and Juniata; and the Hon. John Stuart and John Lefevre, Judges of the said Court of Common Pleas of the county of Cumberland; have common reas of the county of Common rand; have a sisted their precept, bearing date the 14th day of August, 1841, and to me directed, for holding a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Diservy, and General Quarter Sessions of the Percent Carlisle, on the Second Monday of November, 1841, their the 9th day at ten o'clock in the Grencon:

(being the 9th day) at ten o'clock in the ferencen: Norice is hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace, and Constables of the said county of Cunberland, that they be then and there in their preper persons, with their records, inquisitions, examinapersons, with their records, inquisitions, examinations and other-remembrances, to do those thirgs which to their offices respectfully appearain. And those who are bound by recognizance to prosecute against the prisoners that are, or then may be, in the Jail of Cumberland county, to be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Dated at Carlisle, the 29th day of September, 1841, and the sixty-sixth year of Américan Independence.

PAUL WARTIN, Shériff.

SPECIAL COURT.

PARSONS, President Judge of the 12th Judicial District of Penusylvania, bearing date at Harrisburg, the 17th day of July A. D. 1841:

The subscriber hereby informs the citizens of Carlisle, and the public generally, that he has taken the shop nearly opposite the Jail, where he will be prepared to manufacture to order, on the most reasonable terms, any article in his line of business, such as Axes, NFII Picks, &c.

He will also attend to Steeling and Grinding Axes He solicits a share of public patronage.

Carlisle, Nov. 5, 1840.

Liver Complaint.—This disease often terminates in another of a more serious nature, if proper remedies are net resorted to in time. In all forms of this disease, Dr. Harlich's Compound Strengthening and German Aperient Pills, will perform a perfect cure; first, by cleansing the stomach and bowels, thus removing all diseases from the Liver, by the use of the German Aperient Pills, after which the Compound Strengthening Pills are taken, to give strength and tone to those tenderorgans which require such treatment only to effect a permanent cure. These pills are neally put up in small packages, with full directions.

Principal office, 19 North Eighth street Philadel-

LIFE SAVED:

For sale by John J. Myers & Co., Carlisle; and Wm. Peal, Shippensburg, Pa. oct. 13--3t oct

