To Dr. WISTAR—Dear sir, it gives me great pleasure to say, I have found much relief from your Balsam that I have to send to you for more. I have only used three bottles out of the half dozen I pure chased, yet it has done me more good than all the medicine I have ever taken before. A neighbour of mine whose wife was very low with Consumption, p-suaded-me-to-lechim have some of it, and hought three bottles, which she has taken also. I saw her a few day ago and she told-me she believed-it was rewell bottles, which she has taken also. I saw her a few day ago and she told me she believed it was the only thing that had saved her life. She had tried every thing before, but nothing did her any good, and when she commenced taking it was sick in bed, but is now up and locks better than I ever saw her before. As for myself I am sure it will cure me entirely, for I feel better every day. Send me six bottles more by the bearer, as my neighbor wants three more.

And if you have a friend, a relation, or know any one the is afflicted with that distressing disease, "CONSUMPTION," persuade them without delay to try that famous and unriveled medicine, the "BALSAM OP WILD CHERRY," which has cured thousands of this complaint after every thing else had failed. Read the following undoubted proofs of its efficacy.

ROXBOROUGH. Sept. 10 1841.

DEAR SIR:—Please send me two bottles more of your Balsam of Wild Cherry, like that you sent me before. I have taken nearly all of the first two, and confidently believed this medicine will cure me. I have used a great many remedies within the last year, but have neverfound any thing that has relieved me so much. It has stopped my cough entirely, checked my night sweats, and I sleep better at night, and feel better in every way than I have for many months. Yours, respectfully. months. Yours, respectfully,

The Blind Piles, said to be incurable by external applications.—Solomon Hays warrants the contrary. His Liniment will cure Blind Piles. Facts are more stubborn than theories. He solicits all respectable physicians to try it upon their patients. It will be them no harm, and it is known that every physician who has had the honesty to make the trial, has candidly admitted that it has succeeded in every cases they have known. Then why not use it? It is the recipe of one of theirmostrespectable members, now deceased. Why refuse to use it? Because it is sold as a proprietary medicine? Is this a sufficient excusse for suffering their honest patients to linger in distress? We think not. Physicians shall be convinced that there is no humbug or quackery about this article.—Why then not alleviate human suffice ing? If they won't try it beford, let them after all to the prescriptions fail. Physicians are respectfully requested to do themselves and patients the justice to use this article. It shall be taken from the bottles and done up as their prescription if they desire.

Tetter! Itch ??

R. LEIDY'S CELEBRATED TETTER AND ITCH OINTMENT is daily becoming more popular. Daily do numerous individuals stop and inform the proprietor of its great success in removing and curing the Tetter and Itch.

Numerous testimonials might be published of its efficacy, but for the delicacy felt by individuals having their names published in connection with so loathsome and disagreeable affections.

It may be used with perfect safety by young and old, even upon infants, containing no mercury or other mineral substances. Dr. N. B. Leidy prepares it himself and knowing its composition, most confi-

it himself and knowing its composition, most confidentially recommends it as superior to any other remedy for the Tetter and Itch. Prepared and sold at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, (sign of the Golden Eagle and Serpents,) No. 191 North Second street;
