tried again to shove the animal towards the of having his body covered with wounds, shirt, the lining of the right hand cont principles that have been inculcated in child-to-crush the monster in their neighborhood. Karns found it necessary to call help, but ton, who will give a daily synopsis of the business mouth of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found tweet in the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found the national legislature; and an action of the log, but I found the nation of the log, but I found the nation of the log come in so much that I felt pretty sure it pent; he was lost in conjecture, and be found in a very miry and wet place, to gray hairs of those who have loved and temperance societies; their prejudices are and fell to the floor, a bloody and mangled was a monstrous great bear that I had kill-lieved himself to be in a dream. when it was most clearly transported by cherished you will be brought in sorrow to however honestly entertained, and it is to be corpse. What a horrid commentary upon ed. But I begun to feel as if I was buried No doubt remained: the serpent lay the murderers, after life was extinct. It is worthy of remark, alive; for I was afraid our folks would not without motion, being dead. The bird It may not be amiss to remark that the of those who address you is too strong—formation shall have been dissominated also, that this man used no intoxicating find me; and was sure I never could get also was cast down; his wings hung down, district in the neighborhood of which the † rise, all at once I thought I heerd some an effort, flew towards the shrub, ext some table and quiet of the town; and that there powerful, when such a gem as the immor-yield a hearty support to the principles of thought I listened and heard it of the leaves with singular voracity, shook are other reasons to induce the belief that tal mind is at stake. Were you trembling the society. again, and I knew twas father's voice. I his wings and returned to the field of battle; the fields of hell, if more than one was on the verge of a crumbling precipice, you very queer they could'nt tell where it come wards the south." from, nor what to make of it. At last by voice seemed to be somewhere round the Aholler tree, and hime-by father come along the people hurried with much confusion to ward put his head into the holler-tree, and the public square. This was arranged in

"Jack ale you here?"

i myself. When they got us out'I was about as much dead as alive; but they got me on the pretty good leg yet."

"Here, while Mr Robison was taking another sip from his tumbler, Major Grant, a portmanteau. He saluted the people, glenced at his watch and looking up to Dorton Snow, said with a grave and quiet

"Doctor, I give up; the bet is yours."

Translated from the Spanish fo. the Cincinnati Re-THE YELLOW SERPENT—DISCOVERY OF THE GUACO PLANT.

* Que hundred and fifty years since, a mulatto slave followed the current of the Orincoco, in the vicinity of Guyana, and not lar! into the Atlantic ocean, those hot regions, the slave travelled with were not disappointed. the uneasiness and caution of a man who, Gir the midst of savannahs abounding in poi- to it the head of the screent, which immesonous reptiles, believes he might rest his diately caused blood to flow. much care every tree; each thicket of eat-some of the leaves, and set himself at brambles appeared to him as so many bour continuing his exposition. shelters for wild beasts, where enemies, with the folinge, lay in ambush.

-motion, relying on an Indian dig-tree as the arm, and showed to the spectators two from his lips precepts of virtue and lessons only defence, he awaited the result of what deep wounds. he saw. Without the convulsive trembling which agitated his body, any one proof. He made a sign to the people, and would have believed that he was dead.

'He had just seen the most terrible of all the serpents, whose race is yet found in at the height of his exultation. The humthose regions. It was not certainly a mon- ble and despised slave had just elevated strous animal—one of those colossel rep- himself by the force of energy and boldtiles which, when sleeping on the banks of ness, to a point to which no man had dartree, thrown to the ground by a tempest. | plated his looks with religious silence.

Neither did it possess the gigantic prokings of Ohio."

It was the Yellow Serpent.

amined its thin body, could not believe that nature. He exposed his breast, first swal- with the gentleness of his life, he sunk into so weak a reptile could kill a partridge, al- lowing some of the leaves of the portman- the grave quietly and calm, as a child going though its bite will kill a man in such a teau; he irritated the reptile, which became to sleep. anumer, that the wound being made, death furious, and bit him immediately over his ensues in less than three minutes. The slave knew it and trembled.

His immobility was complete. For the through the whole square. whole American empire he would not have dared to raise his eyes. He would have his hand, and tranquilly went to seat himgiven ten years of his life to have found self upon a stone. himself far from such a frightful enemy.-Neither did the serpent move. Raised up in his coil, he overlooked the grass of the slave lived. savannah, with his head dotted with spots of the color of ocre, of yellow and orange: pointed to the portmanteau; they wished forenoon. his eyes, like velvet, and blue as the clouds to know in what manner he made the disof that region, sparkled and appeared to covery, and then he opened the cask by emit sparkles of fire like a brilliant stone, the same side, and drew out the black ser-He breathed the air with voluptuousness, pent, and from the other side a bird whose and offered, little by little, every part of wings were shortened.

grace of its movements. The serpent did portmanteau. not delay long in beginning to leap, drawing in the air rapid circles, producing a less in its vast plains and interminable who had been to attend a muster, and was out myself. But about two hours after sun- and his respiration was painful; he made body was found, is one of the most respect An Angel's eloquence could not be too organizations, that all will come in and his character, desiroyed his happiness, and answered as loud as I could holler. They he rested a short time on the dead body of concerned in the deed, transported the corps might well say, that strong exertions in man's another society is organized which is ner.

*kept hollering and I kept hollering: Some the serpent, cleaning his bloody beak on from a considerable distance.—New Or- your behalf were vain and futile. It is also increasing, though not rapidly. An at-"times they would go further off and some- his plumes, and, causing the air to resound leans Bulletin. times come nearer. My voice sounded so with a shout of joy, directed his flight to-Some months afterwards a strange no-going round considerable, they found my tice put the city of Caracas in commotion. It was a beautiful morning in autumn, "Yes, I be," says I, "and I wish you steps and seats, and a military band exe- where he had gone to discharge-a service increasing splender when the universe is place called McGuire's schoolhouse, anothwould pull this bear out, so I can get out cuted popular music before what might be called the stage of the Governor.

The Governor did not cause them to wait long. A profound silence reigned .horse, and led me home and nursed me up, A man approached the line, the centre of had a doctor to set my leg again, and its, a the square, pushing with his hands a cask, which he rolled to the same place. man likewise carried on his left shoulder pened the sack, and took out a Coluber. the birds, and frequently met with in the fliets them, imparts sorrow throughout the walks and yards. The people began to community; for every body regarded the that order was re-established. The slave of reneration and att chment. For more made a gesture that he would explain the a minister in the Episcopal Church, and circumstance.

nere without my knowledge." alle turned to open his portmanteau, and from the place where that river emplies drew out a black scrient, whose bite oc- gende manuer, his kind heartedness and pasioned cruel pains, without causing death. no the Atlantic occar, the many days in The public expected something more; they cannonded the respect and love of all. -

The slave bared-his left arm, and drew

The slave placed the portmanteau which

He yet lacked the principal, the last they restrained their applause.

In that moment the mulatto had arrived

But the admiration was complete when portions which the European people so that man exposed to the sight of his spec- his fond family circle, news of his illness much admire when they contemplate the tators the terrible yellow serpent of the came in sufficient time to enable some of the coast of Orinoco. He held the reptile by its members, and among them a devoted it could not wound him, until he was con- ments, to soften with their tender ministra-Whoever has seen its littleness, and ex- vinced that the people had recognized its tions, the pangs of death. In keeping heart.

A general shout of horror resounded

The exhibition was concluded. One hour passed-two hours-and the

They then asked him his secret, and he and offered, little by little, every part of this body to the burning rays of the sun.

For a manignorant of the danger to stop in the proximity of this reptile, it would be a real pleasure to contemplate its delicateness, the expression of its eyes, and the ness, the expression of its eyes, and the consuming the leaves of the consuming the leaves of the cook the old ladys money, and eloped. In each time with renewed rage.

Duly now and then the bird granted the palm of the hand, all evidently inflicted by brest and abdomen, and one through the far enough to reach, and felt the fur and hair and ears of some terrible animal."

That was an awful long hight. And when the morning did come, the critter fill—when the morning did come, the critter fill—when the morning did come, the critter fill—at the holder up so much, there was but the serpent was that the serpent was but of the paper, and same tree, and selded of immorality and fill on the side of immorality and with holds its meetings at chin. Mr. Karns immediately leaped for with holds its meetings at chin. Mr. Karns immediately leaped for with holds its meetings at chin. Mr. Karns immediately leaped for with holds its meetings at chin. Mr. Karns immediately leaped for with holds its meetings at chin. Mr. Karns immediately leaped for with holds its meetings at chin. Mr. Karns immediately leaped for with his confidently ming to fall on the side of immorality and selded its meetings at chin. Mr. Karns immediately leaped for with his confidently ming to fall on the side of immorality and with hasto some pieces of the bark of the school-house named above, is not large, ward and seized his hand, but it was so but is gradually gaining accessions to its slippery with blood, that he school-house named above, is not large, ward and seized his heretofore had considerable experience in conducting a democratic journal, in another the gradually gaining accessions to its slippery with blood, that he school-house named above, is not large, ward and seized his hand, but it was so but is gradually gaining accessions to its slippery with blood, that he school-house named above, is not large, ward and seized his hand, but it was so but is gradually gaining accessions to its slippery with blood, that he school house named above, is not large, ward and seized his hand, but it was so but it was some of the law will have compared to the school have considerable experience in conducting and seized his hand, but it was so but it was some of the very little light come in where I was I almost dead, and the bird full of life in spite ing except a fine flannel under shirt and chances to one that you are undone. The active friends, are doing all that can be done the man who would preserve his. Mr.

"Yaould'nt move it. At last the light venomous enough to kill the yellow ser- were both clean and dry although it was year, will-be forsaken, and the minds of many against the organization of succeeded in severing the carotid artery,

From the Richmond Compiler, Nov. 15. .

DEATH OF BISHOP MOORE. For a week past has this community, and been kept in a state of anxiety in conse- nished as immaculate and bright as when who has himself lately signed the pledge the manner that we see ours to-day at the Rev. RICHARD CHANNING MOORE, (Bishop, bursts away from its frail casket it may gress of the cause. bull-baitings; 'the multitude occupied all the of this Episcopal Diocese,) in Lynchburg, wing its way to holier worlds to shine with where he had gone to discharge a service connected with his ministerial station.—
This anxiety was inerged into deep distress on Saturday evening, by the informations of this death which took place on pation? Turn away with disgust from the

It was an innocent reptile, a friend of bers; but the dispensation which so afhiss, and it was only after much trouble aged man of God with no ordinory feelings threw away the Coluber with disdain, and than fifty years has he filled the station of no prelate ever engrossed a greater share "This, is an intrusive reptile, and was of the love of those whose spiritual welfare he had in charge, In his intercourse with our citizens, his simplicity, his bland and the quarected dignity of his deportment, No one could see the aged Bishop moving along our streets with his old fashioned and becoming dress, his silvery locks streaming o'er his shoulders, and his counfoot, when least expected, on the sealy body of a screent. He examined with was full of leaves, upon the ground. He that dwelt in his heart, without doing him involuntary homage. There was a harmony in his character, a beauty in his life Very soon they saw raised above his which gave him great influence and made the color of which might be confounded head a viper, the sight of which astounded him beloved. What citizen is not pained with the folioge, lay in ambush.

Suddenly he paused: he east himself causes a slow death, but inevitable. The this good man in our streets, that he will upon the ground, and pressed the earth slave excited its rage by pressing its neck not again see him adorning with meek and even to the joints of his limbs. Without with his finger; he applied it to his right unaffected grace the sacred desk, or hear of truth and wisdom? -With peculiar propriety may we say o him, that he died " full of years and full of honors." At a ripe old age, after a long term of service, which was faithfully-discharged, has he been taken away from his flock and the community that loved him to rest in the bosom of his God. When reflecting upon his death how appropriately arriver, or in the dense woods, present to cd: and by that act gained the ascendency may we exclaim; "Oh! that I may die the traveller the aspect of the trunk of a over that numerous people, who contem- the death of the righteous and may my last end be like his."

Though at a distance from the bosom of

The funeral took place yesterday from to their last earthly tenement, (in the new city cemetary,) showed the deep attachment and veneration entertained for the deceased.

In token of respect for the venerated dead, the capitol bell was tolled yesterday

THE DEVIL KILLED.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Rasp, gives the ollowing account of a fellow being shot in Georgia lately in the disguise of a devil:

The leaf of the Guaco figures to this day presented his gun and ordered him not to literatim:

not your body alone that is in jeopardy.— tempt was made here, to introduce the It is in the unseen principle within, the pledge into the Sunday-school which met spark lit up by the Deity himself which with warm opposition and finally resulted the Atlantic cannot quench; nor the Alps in the division of the school.

conceal. They consider no exertions too

The meetings of this society are held in particularly, that of the Episcopal Church, great on their part to save the gem untar- an old stillhouse, the property of Mr. Heck, quence of the dangerous illness of the Rt. it came from its Creator; that when it and expresses a warm interest in the protion of his death, which, took place on Friday morning last, in Lynchburg.

Friday morning last, in Lynchburg.

His remains were brought in the boat that conveyed intelligence of its demise.

This event has sorely afflicted his church;

This event has sorely afflicted his church;

Turn away with disgust from the ed to the pledge. There is, however, considerable opposition, but notwithstanding, siderable opposition, but notwithstanding, the cause still progresses. Mr. Stayman is president.

This event has sorely afflicted his church;

The marks are, a slit in the left car and a bit out of the right—one of them has a bit on. The owner is morray of Pennsylvania to rally around us, and the right—one of them has a bit on. The owner is sustain us in our undertaking. To enable us to give full reports of the proceedings of the legislature, of according to law.

At Shiremanstown there is a flourishing were base made arrangements for placing in each to have made arrangements for placing in each to the pledge. There is, however, construction of publishing and upper at the scal of some subject ourselves to heavy expenditures, and will consequently expenditures, and will of course subject ourselves to heavy expenditures, and will consequently expe

From the N. Y. Sunday Mercury. - LOVES VICTIM. Oh list to me Lizzy,
You sweet lump of candy,
Love makes me kell dizzy,
Like sugar and brandy.
My vision is recling—
My brains are all burning— And the sweet dream of feeling Is curdled by churning; For my heart menth my jacket Is an and down numbers:

| Sam and down numbers:
| And keeps up a racket |
| With its thinging and bumping ;
| O show me one smile—its my last supplication |
| I crave nothing further—twill be inv. salvation Oh Lizzy I'm worsted-

I feel it all over: in done up and bursted... A broken down lover, The jovs of my bosom, Have cut stick and vanish'd; Have cut strep and wants of the world has grown dreary.

When my true love you banish'd;
The world has grown dreary,
In its sackcloth of sorrow;
Of life lam wrary,
And wish that the morrow Would dawn on my ggave, in that peace giving valley Where 1'd care not for you, nor for Susan, nor Sally

I know 'tis a sin to--But I'm bent on the notion; I'll throw myself into The deep bring even,
Where the mud-cels and cat-fish Where the mud-cels and cat-ush
On my body shall riot,
And flounders and flat fish
Select me for diet;
There coundly 121 stumber
Hencath the rough billow,
And crabs without number
Will grawl over my pillow:
But my spirit shall wander through the gay coral bowers,

And frisk with a mermaid—it shall by the powers

[Sroons.

Temperance Department

PLEDGE OF THE CUMBERLAND COUNTY WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, DO AGREE, THAT WE WILL lars, to be offered as a capital to the fallen coast of Orinoco. He held the reptile by its members, and among them a devoted the back of its head, in such a manner that daughter, to be present in his dying more than a sufficient time to enable some of Not use and information to the fallent specific and on condition that he would reform.

Them as an arricle of entertainment, on your few or the same of the same

NOTICE.

hold their monthly meeting, at the brick pledge, and abjured intoxicating drinks forthe Monumental Church, the same in which Church near Churchtown, on the evening ever. With the fifty dollars he bought a the deceased had so long officiated. The of Saturday next, Nov. 27th. Mr. G. R. stall and re-commenced his business, which hrough the whole square. crowded assemblage present and the long Crooks of the Cumberland county. Tember the follows with his former energy. Proserance Society, will address the inceting.
M. CALDWELL, Chm. Ex. Com.

From the Harrisburg Chronicle. FOR THE TEMPERANCE COLUMN. man who restored the young butcher and will confer a favor by giving the foregoing On Saturday evening last I attended a meeting of the Walnut Grove Temperance Society. This Society holds its meetings at a school house on the property of Mr. Samuel Bowman, in Cumberland county, Saturday, the 16th ult., Mr. Edward Poul-

At Milton about two miles south of Bow-

About eight miles from Harrisburg, at a State Capitol Gazette, Daily, tion of his death, which, took place on pation? Turn away with disgust from the ed to the pledge. There is, however, con-the loss of so good, so venerable a minis- purified by adherance to the advice of those society, and at Wormleysburg a number ter, may well bear heavily upon its mem- in whom you should put implicit confidence. Have signed the pledge, but either for want of interest in the cause, or some other reason they have never organized themselves to this, we have engaged, at a considerable expense, into a society; upon the whole the feeling the valuable services of our late Washington corresin this section of Cumberland county is quadent, whose style of writing, the forcible, energood, and the cause is on the increase. good, and the cause is on the increase. J. A.

> THE YOUNG BUTCHER. In one of the markets in this city was a young butcher who by his industry and the day, and have urged us again to procure his aid energy had established for hintself an exenergy had established for himself an ex-dellent reputation, and acquired some property. He liad also a lovety wife; and deem it unnecessary to say more than that it will two small children. His business went always be found, as heretofore, awarm supporter of two small children. His business went well; he was respected and esteemed in the market, and at home he was beloved and happy. He had arrived at such a point in his affairs that he began to feel that he might relax himself occasionally from so severe an application to business. He therefore indulged himself more in sociation billy with his acquaintance, drank with them, and smoked cigars. Before he was aware of being in danger, the prosperous and happy young butcher had become a drunkard. The happiness of his family was soon turned to sorrow, and in his business one disaster followed another, until he was out of business; out of money, out of the very heavy responsibility that will rest upon credit, and of every thing which an honor- us, as its editors and conductors. We are firmly able man could desire. In a few months convinced, however, that a democratic paper at the he was a filthy worthless loafer. The remonstrances of his friends had been of no avail—down he would go to the bottom of sonable encouragement is given to warrant it. The tom, another butcher who had witnessed with great regret the ruin of his young friend thought there was hope, even from the desperateness of the case. With a feeling of brotherly kindness which dis-PERSONS IN OUR EMPLOYMENT; AND THAT, IN ALL survival encouragement roused him a little from his panied by twelve dollars, shall receive a copy for survival survival their trouble, gratis.
>
> Description of the had become sober, and then invited him to his own house until their trouble, gratis.
>
> Persons subscribing for either of the above papers. to the Washington Temperance meeting, to the Washington Temperance meeting, 25th of December.
>
> TERMS: The Munroe Temperance Society will the young man signed the temperance perity is with him, and all is well again.-His family are lifted from poverty to plenty, and his happy wife does not cease to pray that the blessing of Heaven may rest on the Journal of Commerce.

Intemperance, Despair, Suicide .- On about two miles from Harrisburg. ton, who was at one time a circuit preacher in the reason why I have troubled you by in the Methodist connection, killed himreferring to this subject, is simply to lay self at the house of Mr. William Karns, in before the community the pledge of an Anti-Temperance society, which has been ear and to the very bone, with his pocket Anti-Temperance society, which has been ear and to the very bone, with his pocket formed in the neighborhood referred to, for the cause of this dreadful act was the purpose of opposing the efforts which the purpose of opposing the efforts which the friends of Temperance are making in acquainted with Mr. Karns, he came to legislature, in compliance with the request the act of retreating, he was met a mile or that region to crash the monster; and for his house on the day he committed the fatal of a number of their democratic friends, pro-America, from that time, had one scourge two from the house by a man with a gun, the satisfaction of those who might be disweak sound like silk coming in contact woods.

The Governor approached the slave; and a little too much of the "critter." The unblushingly, to affix their names to a declarity to this usefulness as a minister and a man.

The great object to be attached to the slave and the wreck of the loss of posed to doubt whether men could indeed day. He seemed deeply dejected, spoke the approaching session, on a royal sheet at be found, who were willing, publicly and much of his past excesses, of the loss of the low price of two dollars for the session, more, when he heard a strange noise which he believed came from the grass, which shook with force. His imagination presented an entire family of serpents, ready to cast shemselves upon him. Fear obliged him to enflarge his sight. What was his him to enflar him tree, in the hindrance of the bind who comes there? In the hindrance of the title of citizen, and as a minister and a man.

The great object to be attained by the first of the consented a faily paper at Harrisburg during the session of the temperance of the onward progress of the temperance of the onwar ration whose avowed object is the hindrance of his usefulness as a minister and a man. The great object to be attained by the being disposed to let his devilship pass, of composition. I give it verbatim et thousand dollars in cash and notes, was and to get those reports out before the publication in Eng. move. Satan commenced swelling, emiting smoke at the same time, and burning suphur, fired, and laid the Satanic Majesty wished to be present at the zend of the public which infect wished to be present at the zend of the propositions of the form of the public with same time and public same time, and burning suphur, fired, and laid the Satanic Majesty wished to be present at the zend of the public wished to be present at the zend of the public wished to be present at the zend of the trained his strange combat.

The combat continued with ferceity—The bird kept in constant motion has sharp stalons, and wounded the serpent deeply with his pointed bask.

The screen and wounded the serpent deeply with his pointed bask.

The screen the word is the read of the purchaser, the various shapes and wounded the serpent deeply took over the constant motion has sharp stalons, and wounded the serpent deeply with his pointed bask.

The screen the proposition was a laid to get those reports out before the public with some case of a sent-weekly paper. There is an adity of state land, and is stating of which country Mr. Poulton was a native. Soon after, Mr. Karns, having anxiety in the minds of the reading public obtained with support in the way to the undersigned doselennly pledge with this marvellous antidote, as the same time, and bourning suphur, fired, and laid the Satanic Majesty with this marvellous antidote, as the same time, and bourning such that same time, and bourned is suphur, fired, and laid the Satanic Majesty with the minds of the reading public obtained with support in the words to fire the same time, and bourned to his single of the tends the same time, and bourned to his subject to his brothers, residing in England, of which country Mr. Poulton was a native. Soon after, Mr. Karns, having anxiety in the minds of the reading public obtained with support in the same time, and bourned to his subject to his brothers, residing in England, of which country Mr. Poulton was a native. Soon after, Mr. Karns, having antive. S warmly upon this triumph over appetite, gave him a cordial shake of the hand, and spoke encouragingly of the future. Soon after tea was announced, but Pouton declined going to the table, and was left alone in the room. A few moments after, a letter, inviting Mr. Karns to attend a temded the air in all directions, appealing to its whole force and cunting throwing timself towards the river to avoid the blows of his air without stopping between the grass, to the brink of the river, and attacked him of the customer and attacked him of the river, and attacked him of the river to work at the river to avoid the brink of the river, and attacked him of the river, and attacked him of the river. The december of the high constable to the constitution, after the constitution, the club foot, recovered the money of the pledge; while contained at the convention to amend the constitution, after the discovered the short to a dier teached to after te of doing injustice to tothers have thought room for his spectacles, he discovered the public at large. He will be assisted by comsimilarly circumstanced, I unfortunate Poulton in the very act of com- petent reporters, and will at all times attend drove him from wretchedness to despuir, and from despair to suicide. Let the beer tippler take warning !-Washington Ban-

PROSPECTUS OF THE

State Capitol Gazette THE editors of the State Capitol Gazette, at the urgent solicitation of numerous democtatic friends in almost every county of the com- in their papers. monwealth, have come to the conclusion, to publish, during the sittings of the approaching session of the

we have made arrangements for placing in each House a competent stenographer, the ability and professional experience of whom at least, is univer sally admitted both here and elsewhere. In addition doings of Federalism, and the faithful predictions until the hired coalitions and combinations of bankers, speculators, and stock-jobbers, shall be made to feel that the will of the People is supreme. Having been the ardent and zealous supporters of the re-election-of our present, worthy Executive, David R. Porter, it shall be our pride and pleasure to give to his administration, a firm, decided, and honest support.

In publishing a daily paper, we are well aware of the proper to the proper to the proper to the court flouse in the location of the proper to the prop aware of being in danger, the prosperous ving been the ardent and zealous supporters of the support.

In publishing a daily paper, we are well aware of tinguishes many of that occupation, he col-compel us to adopt the cash system, which rule lected together a subscription of fifty dol-will be strictly adhered to. The semi-weekly State Capitol Gazette, (double royal size) will be published as heretofore, during the sittings of the legislature.

Any person sending us four subscribers, accom-panied by twelve dollars, shall receive a copy for by twelve dollars, shall receive a copy for are requested to send in their orders on or before the DAILY GAZETTE (Royal sheet) for the session, - - - - - $3 00 wise called Cart's Orchard.

SEMI-WEEKLY GAZETTE, (double Royal) do. - 2 00 HENLOCK & BRATTON, Editors & proprietors.

Harrisburg, Nov. 5, 1841. Editors with whom we exchange, made him a husband and father again. a few insertions, which, at any time, will be cheerfully reciprocated.

PROSPECTUS OF THE DAILY KEYSTONE.

TERMS TWO DOLLARS FOR THE SESSION. THE undersigned being fully aware of the pose to publish the Keystone DAILY, during | part of the real estate of Elizabeth Cornman, dec'd

Only now and then the bird granted the serpent a kind of truce. It left the place of common-difk. We forbear to make any of combat covered with blood, and flew lemarks, but from the steps taken by his syith rapidity to a shrub near by. He honor the Recorder and that invaluable of the hand, all evidently inflicted by mitting self-murder, grasping firmly in one in one house himself to ensure faithful and look into it with a penetrating eye, and if say a few words in referencion.

Similarly circumstanced, I proper to publish no names. might merely mitting self-murder, grasping firmly in one house himself to ensure faithful and look into it with a penetrating eye, and if say a few words in referencion.

Synth rapidity to a shrub near by. He honor the Recorder and that invaluable you see the equilibrium of his mind begingers of the cause in this requirement.

SELLIOTT.

We shall also have a correspondent at Washingtransacted in the national legislature; and an account of the political movements which may be made at the scat of the general government. As we shall incur a very heavy expenditure, which it was most clearly transported by cherished you will be brought in sorrow to however honestly entertained, and it is to be corpse. What a horrid commentary upon over and above our own labors, in getting up our daily, and in employing reporters, correspondents, exert themselves to give our paper as wide a circulation as possible.

ery low rate at which we have placed our daily, will make it necessary for us to adopt the CASH system, so far at least as it is concerned, and require payments to be made to it during the first month The semi-weekly Keystone, (double royal size) will be published as usual during the session at two dollars.

(Post masters and others sending us five subscribers accompanied by ten dollars, will be entitled to a copy for their trouble. Editors with whom we exchange will confer a favor upon us by giving the above a few insertions

ISAAC G. McKINLEY, J. M. G. LESCURE.

November 17, 1841.-3t.* NOTECE.

Estate of Abraham Keckler, dec'd. ETTERS, of Administration on the estate of Abraham Keckler, late of Dickinson township, dec'd, have been issued in due form of doings of Federalism, and the faithful predictions which he gave, during the extraordinary session of congress, is familiar to our numerous readers, many of whom have cheerfully admitted to us, in-person, that "Cleon" is one of the best political writers of the day, and have urged us again to procure his aid as our correspondent at the seat of the general go-NOTICE

ETTERS TESTAMENTARY on the Estate of Joseph Huys, dec'd:

A-Tract of Land situate in South Middleton township, Cumberland county, containing 25 acres more or less, adjoining lands of George Cart, jr., James Noble's devisces and others. Also, a Lot of Ground situated said borough, containing 5 acres more or less, ad-joining the Walmit Bottom road on the south, West street on the west, other property of Jacob Cart on the north, and Pitt street on the east.

Also, a Lot of Ground situated within the said borough, containing 2 acres and 80 perches, more or less, adjoining the above mentioned property on the south. West street on the west, R. Angney on the north, and other property of Jacob Cart on the east, having thereon creeted a cider house and press, and a variety of apple trees, called Cart's Orchard.

Also, a Lot of Ground situated within the said borough, containing 2 acres and 80 perches, more or less, adjoining land of Isac Shaefter on the north, the above mentioned property on the west and south, and Pitt street on the cast, likewise subject Contact

Also, a Lot of Ground situated in said borough, containing 60 feet in breadth and 240 feet in depth, more or less, adjoining a lot of David Shrom on the north, the Letart spring on the east, an alley on the south, and cast street on the west, having thereon erected a one story Log house ~ Also, a Lot of Ground situated in said borough, containing 60 feet in breadth, and 240 feet in depth, more or less, having thereon erec-ted a large two story Brick House, a two story Log House, a log barn and other out houses, adjoining a lot of H. Reed on the west Pomfret street on the north. Fit street on the east, and south.

All of the above property seized at cention as the property of Jacob Cart.
PAUL MARTI.

Sugriff's Office, Carlisle, Nov. 15, 1841.—St.

Orphans' Court Salet

TRACT OF LAND, situate and lying in the township of North Middleton, county aforesaid, bounded by lands of Henry Crall, George Keihl, David Brocht and the Conodeguinet penses. I hereby forwarn all persons from harboring her, as I am determined to prosecute according to law.

william MAXWELL.
November 17, 1841.—3t.