WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1841.

Carlisle.

MR. John Early, our agent, is now travelling the county making collections We want money, and hope our friends will not withhold their dues.

Under the present administration of the "Herald" suits shall be brought against no to ask and we shall receive.

Newspaper Law.

The law is, and so the courts decide, that the person to whom a paper is sent is responsible for the payment, if he receive the paper or make use of it, even though he never subscribed for it. His duty in even though he never subscribed for it. His duty in such case is not to take the paper from the office or place where it is left, but to notify the publisher that the does not wish it. If papers are sent to a post office, store, tavern, or other place, and are not taken by the person to whom they are sent, the postmaster, store or tavern keeper, &c., is responsible for the payment, unless he immediately gives notice to the publisher that they are not taken from the office or place where they are sent.

"In every instance in which papers that come to your office are not taken out by the person to whom they are sent, you will give immediate notice of it to the publisher, adding the reasons, if known, why the papers are not taken out."
