Consumption and Death Will most assuredly be the early fate of those who neglect themselves when afflicted with the promoniory symptoms of consumption, such as cold, cough, pronchitis, or sourness of the throat, hourseness, dif-ionly expectoration, asthma, spitting of blood, &c. ficult expectoration, assume, species, and present pre-Dr. Daneau's expectorant remedy is expressly prepared for the removal and cure of those dangerous andtroublesome discases. Therefore, you who are your life. Alwaysask for Dr. Duncan's Expettrate Remedy, and see that you get it, and not be persuaded by some who sell different medicines to take some of their model e in preference. These persons obtain some cheap thing, and palm it on the public at full price. It is therefore important for purchasers to be on their guerd.

Dr. Duncan's Expectors in Remedy is put up in large sized buttes, and enveloped in blue paper.—The outer form contains a fine steel plate engravity representing the Hope in a Storm.
