Carlisle.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1842.

Our own scribblings are this week crowded out by the letters of our Washington correspondent. To them we most cheerfully give way, and commend them to our readers.

We last week "through mistake of the printer," defrauded our correspondent of his lawful signature. Having this week fence, promising to "sin no more."

The small Relief notes were last week no sale in Philadelphia, except at the brokers' offices, where they were sold by poor laboring men at from 30 to 50 per cent discount. We learn that they are again current. Their temporary deprecia- bly recollect that early in December, an oction was occasioned by the brokers for casional correspondent of this paper informtheir own benefit.

"THE NEW YORK MIRROR of last week contains one of the prettiest engravings we (not fears) which they justly excited in the have ever seen. Subscribe for the Micror mind even of the Secretary of State .and you will never regret the expenditure.

LEGISLATURE.—The Resumption Bill with an attempt to gainsay the letter writer's which passed the House of Representatives, had a first reading in the Senate and tweether tweether tweether to a select committee was then referred to a select committee.

WATICE is hereby given, that I intend to apply at the next term of the court of Quarter Sessions of Caraberland county, for a License to keep a tavernor public house; in the house which I now occurrent to a select committee.

Was then referred to a select committee. was then referred to a select committee, quite contradicted our correspondent. who reported a new bill essentially different from the bill of the House. The signs of the times, as well as private information, induced us to suppose that this was mere gossip. Such we regret to say it was. There is every reason to believe that the remarks annexed, copied from the New York American, are true.

"You have probably noticed some new batches of appointments and removals, and may perhaps have suspected them to be a partial realization of the dubious anticipations of a gradual re-whigification of John Tyler. Not so. He said yesterday, he should appoint no more Whige and no more Locofocos; that duty bound him to sustain those who supported him. 'I have hoisted the 'Tyler flag,' was his declaration, " and I mean to sustain it.".

The free States tell them-every man who knows a line of the Constitution tells them-that slavery in the States cannot be touched. It is theirs to do with it as they will. It is theirs by law, and the country, almost to a man, says the law as it is shall be maintained. What more can be said? What more do they want?

Fetter liberty of speech, as we may, and the unbought power of the human mind will map those fetters assunder as if they ade of glass. No 21st rule, nor any other rule, can subdue it. What folly, what cowardice, then, to skulk, behind a parliamentary manual! The chivalry which vannte its itself should meet any question openly, and in the face of day, and bid God preed to him who has the right.

Nor will this question be blinked. Who o poor as not to be privileged to offer up a prayer? Who so mighty as to affirm that it shall not be heard? It is a right natural to man. But it is, also, a right guarantied to all by the Constitution, and the very feeling which bids use leave slavery where To be drawn at Alexandria, D. C. on Saturday, the it is, forces us to claim that right now and always, as sacred-inviolable.

And does the South think that the free States will yield it up, because forsooth 1 certain petitions jar upon its ear? Be it that they are foolish. Be it that they are fanatic. The denial of them, the refusal to receive them, the effort to smoother them "repudiated" the "P" and established the up by parliamentary rule, will make men rightful "L," we hope to be forgiven our of- who are neither foolish nor fanatic join with | 5 those who are so. Liver Complaint

Of ten years standing, cured by the use of Dr. Harlichs Compound Strengthening and German Aperient Pills. Mrs. Sarah Boyer, wife of William Boyer, North Pourth street above Callowhill, Philadelphia, entirely cured of the above distressing disease. Her symptoms were habitual costiveness of the bowels, total loss of appetite, excrudiating pain in the side, stomach and back, depression of spirits, extreme debility, could not lie on her left side without an aggravation of pain, with other symptoms indicating great derangement in the functions of the liver. Mrs. Boyer was attended by several of the first physicians, but received but little relief from their medicine—at last, a friend of hers procured a package of Dr. Harlach's Strengthening and German Apericut Pills, which, by the use of one package, induce her to continue with the medicine, which resulted in effecting a permanent cure, beyond the expectations of her friends. expectations of her friends.
