cause than neglected colds. Yet we find hundreds, may thousands who treat such complaints with the greatest indifference, and let them run on for weeks and even months without thinking of the danger. At first you have what you may consider a slight cough or cold; you allow business, pleasure or carefeesness to prevent you from giving it any afternion; it they settles mon your ness, pleasure or carelessness to prevent you from giving it any attention; it then settles upon your breast, you become hoarse, have pains in the side or chest, expectorate large quentities of matter, perhaps mixed with blood, a difficulty of breathing chaues, and then you find your own follish neglect has brought on this distessing complaint. If then you value life or health, be warned in time, and don't trifle with your Color or trust to any quack neathing to cure you, but immediately precure a bottle or two of that famous remedy, the "Balsam of Wild Cherry," which is well known to be the most speedy cure ever known, as thousands will testify whose lives have been saved by it.

DR. GUETTICH. HAAS & CO'S. CRLEBRATED DEDICINES

HE OLIVE BRANCH PILLS for the cure

of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Liver Complaints, Asthma, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Dyspepsia, Shortness of Breath, Pains in the Side, Breast, Back and Shoulders, Ague and Fever, an intallable cure, and all Scarlet and Bilious Fevers, intallable cure, and all Scarlet and Bilious Fevers, and all diseases arising from exposure and debility, no matter how long standing—in fact all diseases to which the human family are subject to. These pills are unsurpassed by any medical compound ever offered to the public as a general renovator and family medicine. They are very gentle in their operation, causing neither pain, sickness nor debility by the use of them; but on the contrary they strengthen the stomach and the contrary they strengthen the stomach and bowels in a wonderful manner, and soon restore nature to its former course and vigor. The per-son using the Olive Branch Pills soon forgets that he was sick—which is very easily accounted for there is not that prostration of strength in these pills as in many other remedies of the day because the materials used in manufacturing them are in harmony with the powers of life and act in concert with the opinions of Dr. B. Bushi, Bushi, Armstrong, Montgomery, Hersey, Kendrick, Shepper and the celebrated Dr. Waterhouse, formerly Lecturer on the theory and practice of Physic in Cambridge University, Massachusetts. Purchase of them, and give them a fair and impartial trial, and you will find that permanent re lief, upon which the proprietors depend to mak them the most universal family medicine used, and which will stand unrivaled by any other in the known world. Price-25 cents per hox.

RHEUMATIC MEDICINE Is one of the most certain and affectual cures for all rheumatic, chronic and infiammatory Rheumatisms that has ever yet been discovered, and in numerous cases has eradicated that dreadful disease from persons afflicted entirely. All sour drinks and victuals are strictly forbidden, and spiritous liquors must not be taken inwardly by any means, whatever, or it, will be of no use to any means, whatever, or it, will be of no use to take this medicine, as it will destroy the good effects of the medicine entirely. Price $1,50 per package.

TEE GABLAND.

To thee, Almighty God, we raise, With heartful thanks, our songs of praise; Large are the bounties which thy hand Hath spread profusely o'er our land. Blessings in number like the dews Of early morn thy Goodness strews Around our path, and shall not we, Devout and grateful, bend the knee? When Winter's bleak and icy breath Flings o'er the fields the lines of death; Thy garments clothe and keep us warm, And thine our shelter from the storm. Thy providence in safety leads, Our life prolongs, supplies our needs; And earth and floods and skies conspire

To satisfy each right desire. Thine is the beauty of the spring, Its flowers and birds of various wing; And thine the soft and silvery streams, That sparkle in the sun's bright beams.

Of bending grain that waves like seas; As lakes of liquid gold they shine, And dally with each passing breeze. Autumn's rich garnered fruits we owe To thy kind ear; for well we know, Unaided by the latter rain,

Spread the proud Ægis of thy wing; No pestilence nor noisome blast Hath been allow'd our hearts to wring Peace uninterrupted has been ours, Through the past year, with foreign powers; And peace eternal-no fell strife Hath puttin peril home and life. For all these mercies, Lord, we raise, Within thy house, our songs of praise;

Our sins with sorrow we deplore, Confess thy goodness and adore. Wilt thou vouch-safe, thro' coming time, Thy hand to lead, thy light to shine

A CROICE ANECDOTE. Old Governor Saltonstall, of Connecticut, who flourished some forty years since, was a man of some humor as well as perseverance, in affecting rescued man, and the energies of mind, as the ends he desired. Among other anecdotes told of him by the New London people, the place where he resided, is the following:

Of the various sects which have flourished for their day, and then ceased to exist, was one known as the Rogerites; so called from their founder, a John, or Tom, or some other Rogers, who settled not far from the goodly town aforesaid.

The distinguishing tenet of the sect was their and exclaimed: "Gracious heavens, what denial of the propriety and scripturality of the form of marriage. "It is not good for man to be His former associates and admirers, alone." This they believed, and also that one wife crowded around him, to shake his hand, only should 'cleave to her husband,' but then this and in five minutes the street drunkard was should be a matter of agreement merely, and the reinstated. The reformed man's eyes couple should come together as man and wife, dispensing with all forms of the marriage covenant. The old Governor used frequently to call upon "But come, George," said his partner, Rogers, and talk the matter over with him; and enwith all the familiarity of former days, deaver to convince him of the impropriety of living with Sarah as he did. But neither John nor Sarah would give up the argument.

It was a matter of conscience with them-thev were very happy together as they were-of what ate seemed stunned with astonishment, as use then could a mere form be? Suppose they prosperity thus poured upon him, but in a would thereby escape scandal; were they not few minutes, with his former vigor and bound "to take up the cross," and live according acumen, he was eliciting the evidence in the to the religion they professed? The Governor's logic was powerless. He was in the neighborhood of John one day.
