Hon. A. V. Parsons.

The Superintendent of the Common Schools present during the examination of our High Schools on Friday afternoon and evening last, and in a very neat and highly appropriate address expressed his management, the manner in which the Scholars acquitted themselves, the care bestowed by the Teachers and the zeal displayed by the Directors. So well pleased were we with his remarks in the evening, that we most heartily give place to the following justly merited tribute to Mr. Parsons by the Board of Directors:

Mr. Clay's Speech. To the exclusion of almost every thing clse, we give to day the speech of HENRY CLAY at the Lexington Barbecue in June last. We would have published it some weeks back, but absence from off. home and other matters intervening, precluded us from doing so until the present time. No apology however, is needed, as it has not spoiled by keeping. The speech is a faithful narrative of a faith-

Ingin Talk. It is rumoured that Gov. Porter left Carlisle the evening of the Commencement highly incensed at the faculty of Dickinson College, The circumstances of the case, as reported, are as follows:— The salutary address for the occasion being witten in the latin language, which tongue his Excelency not comprehending, he imagined that the joing man was poking fun at him relative to "That Lumber business!" This, as a matter of course, highly offended the "Kicapoo Chief," and consequently he left our borough swearing eternal vengeance sgains QUIZ.

Messrs. Barr and Culver. We perceive that your remarks, exponing the cratic and inconsistent course of the above gentlemen, have been taken in high dudgeon by your pugnacious neighbour. This wa expected, as we were aware that George would exert himself manfully to have Mr. Barr renominated from New-ville and Mr. Culver from N. Middleton, so that there would be some chance for a certain disinterested Democrat to cling to the loaves and fishes of the Prothonotary's Office. That is "pervided" som more resolutions can be made ala-Southampton, for athampton, for the purpose of cutting Mr. Beetem's throat. VOTERS.

Mr. Barr. The whole Legislative career of this gentleman has been diametrically opposed to the openly expressed wishes of his constituents! Indeed,nearly every vote given by him, at the late session, aimed a blow at the Farming interests of Cumberland County! In the very face of public sentiment he voted in favor of Gamble's Million and a half Tax Bill: and lately he has capped the climax of foolhardiness, by aiding in carrying the Domestic Gardner Franklin Creditor Bill!!! Information Desired. What has become of the Anti-Tax-Spirit of Cumperland County? Where are Messrs. Hamil, Ege, Moore, Stewart, Longnecker, Cain and Weakley! Have they been frightened by the abusive speech of the Governor's loathsome tool, Col. Jno. J. Mc-Cahan' or has the cry of "disorganization" and "barefaced reprediation," raised by your Neighbour Sanderson, in his cherished yet secret desire to retain the Public Improvements, driven them into the traces! Shame! Shame! But as this is one of the particular ways of the Locotoco Party, we need not be surprized. A few disinterested

Democrats, such as your neighbour and his fellowdrones about the County buildings, rule the roost; whilst all the members of the great Democratic Party who don't walk the chalk line assigned them by their leaders, must either receive the black mark of excommunication; or like the Anti-Tax Democrats mentioned above, step into the party harness, where the lash of the Executive minions may thrash them into silence and submission!
