LT Last week the Agent for the old proprietors enclosed bills in the Herald to subscribers at a distance. He wishes us to direct the attention of those interested to the fact, and hopes that the earliest attention will be paid to the same.

To those Concerned.

In some parts of the Borough our streets have become perfect nuisances. The attention of the Borough authorities and the Trustees of the Methodist Church is particularly called to the situation of the street in the vicinity of the buildings attached to the Methodist Church. If they are friends to humanity, they will have the nuisance removed before the families near by are prostrated by sickness.

The State Apportionment Bill. THE CORRECT DOCTRINE.

EFAt a countageographion of delegates, repreenting every township in Indiana county, for the purpose of forming a county ticket to be supported by the Harrison Dimocrats in October next, the following, among many other resolutions was inanimously adopted: "Resolved, That in our opinion, the act of the Legislature upon the Apportionment Bill, dis-tricting the State for the election of members of Congress, is of ITSELF FULL AND COM-PLETE, and that the signing or vetoing of the bill by the Governor, is of NO IMPORTANCE

MINIMANIAN John Quincy Adams .- Sixty four years ago John Quincy Adams entered the service of his country at the darkest period of our revolutionary history, and from that day to this, he has been at the post of public duty, faithfully laboring in behalf of the principles out of which the Revolution sprang; the principles of self government and civil liberty, And now we find him with intellectual powers unimpaired and with a heart as true to the cause to which his boyish hours were devoted as when he stood by his father's side on the counter.

Lancaster, Aug. 31, 1842. their Armory, on Thursday evening the 25th inst. his boyish hours were devoted as when he stood by his father's side on the quarter deck of the Boston, more than half a centuy ago. The American people—the Whige f this country-should-be grateful that in a crisis like the present such a man should be spared to them, and that the living tes mony of one thus blucated should be heard n defence of their rights against tyranny

OBITUARY RECORD.

At Dillsburg, Pa., on Wednesday morning, Aug24th, aged 49 years, 9 months and 17 days, Mrs.
LYDIA BAILEY, wife of Daniel Bailey, Esq.—
The deceased had been for many years, in good and regular standing, a member of the Monaghan Presbyterion church; and-was greatly esteemed by all who knew her, especially for her uniform and consistent piety. Her protracted indisposition was borne with exemplary fortitude and submission; and while her numerous friends are called upon to infinire
the removal of one much beloved, they have the gensolation of believing that she has entered in genfruition of that inheritance which is incorruptible, and undefiled, and fadeth not away, reserved in Henven for those, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation:
