GROUP IN GHILDREN. OTHERS, BE ON YOUR GUARDI-This is the season when this destructive complaint attacks your interesting little children, often robs you of those you foundly don't on, and carries hundreds to the grave. Every mother should therefore, know its symptoms, watch them closely, and always be prepared with a remedy as many are daily sacrificed by such neglect. At first the little patient is seized with a shivering, it grows restless, has flushes of heat, the eyes become red and swollen, it breathes with difficulty, and then comes that fearful Coven that will surely terimmediately given to check it. In this complaint quickly restore it to safety and health. Families residing in the country and indeed every mother who loves her children, should always keep this medicine in the house and give it to them early, by doing so you may often save the life of one you fondly love. Remember this is the famous remedy of this distinguished physician, Dr. Wisrar, which has cured thousands of CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, ASTHMA, CONSUMP. TION, &c., after every other medicine has tailed. Be particular when you purchase to ask for "Dr. Wistan's Balsam of Wild Cherry," as there is a synur of this name advertised that is entirely a different medicine.

But I cannot describe to you my feelings on entering the ancient cathedral at Rouen. A flood of delicious light poured into the church through more than a hundred windows, whose glass was stained with every shade of color, from the fiery red to the soft tints fading into white, until nave, and choir and aisles, seemed magically illuminated. I gazed upon this unearthly vision until the guide called our attention to the tombs and monuments around us; We walked among the ashes of the mighty dead. There lay the form of Rollo, streched out upon his magnificent tomb; there was Louis de Breze, his features not yet relaxed from the death-struggle, while his own Diana of Poicters, etands at his head in widow's weeds, with her hands crossed upon her breast, looking down upon his ghastly countenance with the most inthense anguish, and at his feet stands the Virgin, with the infant Saviour in her arms. There, within an iron railing, lies Richard-Cour de Lion, his heart enclosed in a silver urn. But I must pause. I am endeavoring to keep a faithful record of what I see, learn, and feel, as I pass among the monuments and men of past and present generations. I must hasten away from the flourishing city of Rouen, with its extensive trade and manufactures, and its 100,000 inhabitants, and start on the Seine again for Paris. It was a pleasant day and the trip was delightful. Under any circumstances it would have been interesting, to pass through Wormandy, whence came William the Conqueror, and on whose plains and hills, and the banks of whose beautiful --Seine, England and France so long disputed, and so often won and lost the common empire. I'm surprised that so few Americans ener Europe by the Seine, and that so few travellers visit Normandy. I have seen Ill our noble American rivers, but the sail up the Seine from Havre to Paris, a distance (by water) of about two hundred and twenty miles, is certainly the most beauti--and in this verdiet-all-my-companions concurred. The banks are in the highest ever out of sight of a flourishing town,

CRUSH THEM IN THE EGG. -If you look ver your fruit trees carefully, you will occasionally find a patch of greenish sub-
