A PSALM OF LIFE.

BY H. W. LONGFELLOW.

Tell me not in mournful numbers Life is but an empty dream ! For the soul is dead that slumbers,... And things are not what they seem

Life is real ! life is carnest ; And the grave is not its goal; Dust thou art, to dust returnest, Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment and not sorrow. Is our destined end or way ; But to act that each to morrow Finds us farther U:an to-day.

Lives of great men all remind us We can make our lives sublime And departing, leave behind us, Footsteps on the sands of time.

Footsteps, that perhaps another, Sailing o'er tife's solemn main, A forlorn and shipwrecked brother, Secing, shall take heart again.

Let us then be up and doing, With a heart for any fate--Still achieving---still pursuing, Learn to labour and to wait.
