"GOING INTO A DECLINE,"

THE EXTRAORDINARY SUCCESS Attending the use of this medicine in disenses of the Lungs, and the many singular cures it has effected, having naturally attracted the attention of many physicians, (as well as the whole fraternity of quacks) various conjectures and surmises have arisen-respecting its composition; some filly sicians have supposed it to contain Iodine, other ignorant pretenders say it must contain Alercary, and to some such substance they each attribute its singular efficacy.—As such opinions are altogether erroneous, and calculated to preindice many nersons against it we PLEDGE OUR HONOR

Phila. Nov. 23, 1842.

That it contains nothing of the kind, or any thing the least injurious; on the contrary, it is composed of the most simple substances, the principle of which are the extracts of TAR and Hild Cherry Hark, and the whole secret of its efficiency consists in the GEORGE HOLLINGER, (of the firm of Hollinger and Davis,) late Contractor, Camborland co. and FRIDAY the 27th day of JANUARY next, at 11 o'clock, A. WHILE LIFE REMAINS

WE HAVE STILL SOME HOPE. A SURPRISING CURE.—Among the many ingular cures which this medicine has effected, here is perhaps none in which its powers are so ally shown as in the case of Mrs. Austin. the matter occasionally tinged with blood, and step by step this fearful disease continued its course, untial hope of a recovery was entirely despaired of—While in this distressing situation, lingering upon the very verge of the grave, she commenced the use of this linkalm, which, to use he'r own expression, to reverse the distressing stread almost like a charm. In a few days she expectorated freely, the cough was gradually suppressed, and every day appeared to add fresh vigor to her looks, and now, in the place of that emaciated form withering to decay, she is seen mingling in society, in better health than she has enjoyed for years.

Friends of Temperance, Ahoy!

Franklin Evans, or The Inchrinte—A Tale of the Times—by a popular American author. This novel, which is dedicated to the Temperance Societies and the friends of the Temperance Cause throughout the Union, will create a sensation, both for the ability with which it is written, as well as the interest of the subject, and will be miversally read and admired. It was written expressly for the New World, by one of the best novelists in this country, with a view to aid the great work of Reform, and resear Young Men from the demon of Intemperance. The incidents of the plot are wrought out with great effect, and the excellence of its moral, and the beneficial influence it will have, should interest the friends of the Temperance Reformation in giving this Tale the widest possible circulation.
