Carlisle Gerald and Expositor.

A FAMILY NEWSPAPER-DEVOTED TO GENERAL INTELLIGENCE, ADVERTISING, POLITICS, LITERATURE, MORALITY, AGRICULTURE, ARTS AND SCIENCES, AMUSEMENT. &c. &c.

DUBINGSTORD TYDDINGS DE IN INCHASTE.

WOLUMB ELL.

CARLISIE PA JAYUARY 0. 1808.

HERALD & EXPOSITOR.

Office, Centre Square, S. W.

Corner, at the Old Stand. TERMS OF PUBLICATION: The HERALD & EXPOSITOR is published weekly, on a double royal sheet, at TWO DOLLARS, per annum, payable within three months from the time of subscribing; or two pollars AND FIFTY CENTS, at the end of the year. No subscription will be taken for less than six months, and no paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher, and a failure to notify a discontinuance will be considered a new engagement. Advertising will be done on the usual terms. Letters to insure attention must be post paid.

BANK NOTE LIST And Counterfeit Detector.

PENNSYLVANIA. CITY BANKS.

Bank of North America, 5's, spurious; vignette, figures of Justice and Liber ty, reading, we promise to pay, &c., on demand in specie, or paper of the Bank of North America."
5's and 10's, old plate; none genuine remaining out.
40's and 20's, altered from 5's; vignette of 5's and of altered notes, a figure of Commerce sitting, an "eigle before her, and ships in the back ground. 20's, letts. D i; Jan. 19, 1815; pay D. Cutboard and D. Vaill; lett. H, April 20, 1817, pay R. Chesney.

Bank of the Northern Liberties, par. 10's lett. C; Oct. 18, 1837; pay J. Taylor; signatures poorly imitated; vignette heavily shaded.
10's, lett. A; July, 4, 1838; pay J. Starr; printing ink pale and yellowish.
20's, altered from counterfeit 10's; badly done.
20's, lett. G; Jan. 1, 1815; pay J. Jenks.

Bank of Pennsylvania. 12 a 13

5's, lett. M. 8; April 2, 1836: pay G. W. Warder; a plain white circle around the 5 at top, not in genuine; lett. C; April 7, 1829, pay E. Evans. 5's lett. P. 8; Nov. 6, 1838; pay N. Nolen—coarso. 60's, of various filling up; the E in President considerably larger than the other letters.

10's, lett. F; Sept. 10, 1836; pay J. Hicks, signed E. G. Lewis, Pres.; no such officer; Aug. 6, 1836; pay S. Bray; April 4 1829; pay O. Say; motto on Pa. coat of arms roughly done; others, Sept. 10, 1837, pay G. Clay.

1837, pay C. Clay.
103, letts. C and E., April 16, 1833; pay H. Clay.
10's, lett. B; April, 1823, and July 10, 1833; engraver's firm & Eo. for Co.: others, Aug. 27, 1838, pay H. Clay; E. Chaunney, Cash., instead of Chauncev.

Chauncey. 50's, lett; B; Jan. 1, 1817. 50's, lett. C; March 22, 1821; pay J. Boone. Bank of Penn Township. 10's. Washington on the LEFT instead of RIGHT end

20's, various dates, well done, except the Franklin on right margin, which is coarse. 50's, aftered from 5's, Vignette of 50's, commerce sitting on a bale of goods; right-end piece, Frank-lin, left, Penn. Bank of the United States, 10's and 20's, letts. A & B, heads and each end coarse.

50's, left, D; Dec. 2, 1839; end pieces coarse.
50's and 100's, letts A a and G; Oct. 1, 1838; pay
Jun. Somerville, Cash., at 10 days; paper thin and reddtsh. 100's, lett. H; Sept. 1, 1838; pay J. Ross at 10 days. 1000's, altered from 100's; Oct. 11, 1838; pay to and endorsed by R. Buchanau, at 5 months. Commercial Bank of Pennsylvania, par. 5's left. Dr March 4, 1819; pay T. Asilev.
5's, alter from the Commercial Bank of Millington, broken, by substituting Pennsylvania for Milling-Treaty with the Inc 10's, spurious; vignette of genuine, Washington and Franklin. Franklin.

103, lett. A, Nov. 17, 1830, pay R. R. Leer March and June 2, 1828, 29 and 30, pay Geo. W. Ash; Sept. 15, 1830, pay S. Girard.

103, letts. A a, Nov. 17, 1822, pay E. Lyman; Nov. 3, 1829; pay M. Careys letter C, pay H. Clay 30's, signed Beuj. P. Smith, dated before he was Cashier.

100's, altered from Commercial Bank of Millington Md. Reilbrack cars on one end. denomination of Md. Railroad cars on one end, denomination of unto on the other. Entirely different from genuine 50%, 50%, 20% and 10% altered from 5% which only has Penn's treaty with the Indians for vignette. De Gennine 500's are printed in any ink.

103, tetter 12, r.c., 5, r.g.5; pay F. Saley; tetter 12; F.b. 5, and 10, 1820, 25; pay A. Moses, C. Dulf, J. Rom; letter G, Yp il 2, 1826; pay II. Clay. 203, well done; paper redder and signature lighter than genuine; some letter A, Nov. 20, 1804, pay G. Harl.

Ct. Hurl. 20's, letter E; Nov. 29, 1834; engraving very bad. 50's, letter C; Dec. 25, 1819; juny G. Hirst. Girard Bank, 46 a 48

10's, 20's and 50's, altered from 5's, whose vignette is the Philadelphia Exchange. Hold up to light. Kensington Bank. Manuf. & Mech. Bank, 10's, altered from 5's; vignette of genuine 10; a female and spinning where, which last is not on

Mechanics' Bank,

3's, old emission; long since withdrawn. 20's, altered from counterfeits on Mechanics's Bank New Haven; miniature of Wushington on the right, and Clay on the left.
O's, altered from 5's, April 1, 1833; Fiff is placed too close to Dollars; small lettering of rivzs around the edge rubbed clear.

Moyamensing Bank,

Philadelphia Bank. 5's old plate, withdrawn. The plate in use has for vignette a female; and end pieces, Washington on the right, and Robert Morris on the left.

the right, and Robert Morris on the left.

10's, lett. C., lan. 1, 1819; Sept. 7, 1819; Dec. 8, 1820.

10's, letter D, Feb. and May. 8, 1832; pay J. Kam and D. Evans. Vignette, three female figures with a ship in the distance, and a view of the banking-house on the left, very imperfect. Franklin on the right, and Washington on the left end.

10's and 20's, altered from 5's: vignette of 5's, two females sitting; between them, a shield, on which is a ship and plough; of 10's, a female reclining, her right hand resting on a shield, on which is Pa. exact of arms of 20's, Penn's Treaty with the Indians. dians. 20's, old plate, letter E, May 9, 1814, 1824, 1825, and 1827; pay D. Edwip.

Southwark Bank, 500's, altered from 10's, old issue, of large size; "or demand" extracted, and "Five Hundred" sub-

Schuylkill Bank,

5°s, old plate, of various filling up. The heads of Washington and Franklin imperfect and coarse. Western Bank,

Bank of Middletown

COUNTRY BANKS.

Bank-of Chambersburg. Bank of Chester Co., Westchester, Bank of Delaware Co., Chester. 20's, altered from 5's, well executed.

20's, altered from 5's, letter A. Jan. 1, 1836; pay

T. Clyde, Chat. S. Folwell, Cash. The word zurr

after bearer is blotted; the circle dark.

Bank of Germantown, 20's, altered from 5's, hold the note up to light. Bank of Gettysburg, 5's, Nov. 14, 1828-9, pay R. Smith; without the circular water-mark seen in gendine, 5", old plate, which reads Gettyahurg Hank. Bank of Lewistown

Bank of Montgomery Co., Nors'wn. par. 's, letter A, Oct. 3, 1800, pay E. Litez; Nov. 1, 1823, pay J. Wells, others in 1825-6, sque, 2d May.
's, letters B and F, July 2, 1825, variously filled 5's, old plate, lett, , , Aug. 1, 1827 and 1830; pay C. Rice; some May 6, 1829; May 1, 1831; pay J. Duntz; engraving much lighter than gentine. 10's, letter C, Feb. 1, 1824; pay J. Post.

Erie Bank, Erie. Exchange Bank, Pittsburg & Branch, 1 a 2 Certificates,

's, the vignette is a sailor leaning against an anchor, while the genuine 5's have Justice and another female figure.
's, letter B, pay R. Nash, R. Lansing, and Wm. B. Wallis; June 1, 1836; paper rather heavy and 10's, altered from fraudulent Exchange Bank and Savinas Institution of Philadelphia; vignette, Perry's victory. The genuine 10's have for a vignette 1 female figure seated between two chests. All notes signed Thomas M. Howe, Cash., since July, 1839.

O's, letter A, dated Sept. 7, 1839. The names of the Cashier and President are lithographed. Farmers' Bank of Bucks Co., Bristol, par Farmers Bank of Ducks Co., Dristol, par 5's, dated Bristol, March 1, and April 12, 1828.
Lus letter A, Peb. 6, 1815; pay F. Pincor; Mrach 25, 1815, and 3, 1817, at-Hulme Ville: pay H. Ely, Sept. 4'and 40, 1819; others, letter B. 50s, altered from 5's the vignette of 20's is a husbandman, horses and harrows.

Farmers' and Drovers' Bank, Waynes-Farmers' Bank of Lancaster, 5s, letter A; March 7, 1832; pay J. Wind; no genuine notes of this description in circulation; others, March 17, 1831, and other dates; pay Geo. H. Krug, filling up and signature in same hand. Krug, filling up and signature in same hand. 10s, letter A; March 9, 1833; pay J. Wind; vignette, a mill.

10s and 50's, altered from 5's of the above counterfeit. Farmers' Bank of Reading, Reading, 7 5s, letter A. Jan. 1. 1835; pay G. Ludwig. Paper has silk mark; fair appearance. 5s, letter D. Jan. 1, 1833 pay G. Smith; May 20, 1836; pay A. Strong. Course. 100s, lett. A.; pay John Harrold; none such genuine.

Franklin Bank, Washington,

58 and 10's, alfered from the broken "Bank of. Washington," by prefixing "Franklin." This Bank opened in 1836. Observe the date.
5's, leary A; Nov. 1, 1836; pay R. Wylie; John Mankfall, Cash, these names engraved. Impression somewhat faint, particularly the lines un signatures which are distinct in the genuine. Harrisburg Bank, s, letter D. pay H. Alward, dated May 14, 1819.

55, letter D. pay H. Alward, dated Nov. 3, 1820.
55, letter C. pay H. King, added Nov. 3, 1820.
55, letter C. pay H. King, added Jan. 1, 1823.
105, May 4, 1829; letter A. pay J. E. Whiteside.
105, viguette, a steamboat, railroad cars, &c. The gennine 10's have the goddess of Li ierty, and the genuine 10's have the goddess of Li a Capitol in the back ground. Co, alreved from counterfeit 10's; vigno the State Buildings. Honesdale Bank, Honesdale Lancaster Bank. 5's, altered from 5's, letter A. October 3, 1826, No.

Farmer's and Mechanic's Bank, par.

5's, 10's and 25's, altered from Farmer's and Mechanic's Bank, par.

5's, 10's and 25's, altered from Farmer's and Mezonale holding a cup in righthand, left arm resting on an eagle; of 10's a female reaper; of 20's, a female spinning. None genuine captated by Burton & Gurley.

10's, letter E; Feb. 5, 1825; pay P. Saley; letter C; Feb. 5, and 10, 1820, '25; pay A. Moses, C. Dull, White, Aug. 1, 1849. The letter under the K in Schwikhlic in the geomie, it is below the L and Schuyklil; in the genuine, it is below the L and K; the cross of the Trs in Pottsville inclines upwards, instead of horizontal. Monongahela Bank, Brownsville, 20's, altered from 5's, easily detected.

New Hope Delaware Bridge Co. -20 a 25 (Removed to Lambertville, New Jersey.) Northampton Bank, Allentown, 20 a 22 5's, letter B, Aug. 29, 1839; pay S. Lippincott; signatures and filling up engraved; vignette, coat of arms, while the genuine 5's issued since 1837 have a view of Mauch Chunk.

Towanda Bank, Towanda. West Branch b'k, Williamsport, 50a 55 10's of various filling up; some to I. Kellum; T. Coryell, Cash; J. H. Cowden, Pres, vignette, a flying eagle, railroad cars in the distance. President's signature too light and stiff; general appearance light; the first I in Williamsport resembles more a liguree 1.

50's, altered from 5's, vignette, which is that of the 5's, is view of the town on the left and of note.

's, is a view of the town on the left end of note. Wyoming Bank, Wilkes Barre, 13 a 17 York Dank,

7 a 8
5's, letters A and B; Feb. 2, 1830; old plate; pay W.

Wagner, which name is spelt Wagnör. In the word Five, on the left hand margin, the I is not dotted. The F of Five, in the body of the note, does not exactly line with the other letters. Vignette imperfect in many places.

10's, alteree from count-ricit 5's. See preceding.

Taylorsville Delaware Bridge Co. 10 a 15 COMPRCULOMANT. P. Alsins, Figs, Dates, Praues, fresh currant Grapes, Lemons, Almonds, Cocoa nuts, Fil-berts, fresh Picklea, in Jars, Tomato Catchup, Pep-per Sauce, a prime article of table oil, Sugar, Butte and water crackers, Candies of all kinds for sale by

November 2, 1842.4 WM. M. MATEER. Broad Cloths, &o. FURTHER supply of Low priced BROAD CLOTHS, suitable for overcoate also CASSIMERES & SATTINETS, just receive

GEO. W. HITNER. November 2, 1842. HATS & CAPS. NEW supply of fine Russia HATS, just received. A large lot of Fur, Cloth, Celette and ir Scal CAPS; now opening and for sale, very, at the store of the CHAS. OGILBY.

low, at the store of Carlisle, Sept. 28, 1849. Boots and Shoes. THE subscriber will soll a sheaper and bette Source BOOT than can be found in Carlisle,

ALSO—Lady's double soled Morocco and Kic Shoes; Ties and Buskins, a superior article, together with Hoys' kip Brogans, womans' low priced Shoes children's, &c. 8. M. HARRIS. Oct. 19, 1848. Ladies Cap Strings. without the UST opening a maply of Steel Cap Springs, for ank.

Indies Caps, Sasps for Clock Fastenings, Shawl Plas, Hair Plas, Metal Tylethythe gross or dozen to a 20.

Eylet Panches, Pure Telemings, &c.

GEO. W. HITNER.

16-54

NOTICE To Constables. Retailers of Merchandize, &c. May.

5's, letter B and F, July 2, 1825, variously filled out. Vignette light and coarse.

Bank of Northumberland,

7 a 8
Bank of Pittsburgh,

5's, letter C, old plate, withdrawn from circulations vignette, a blacksmith, tools, &c.

5's, letter C, Deo. 4, 1831; pay Wm. Wilkins; others, May 4, 1825; pay H. Baldwin.

10's and 20's, altered from counterfeit 5's; badly done.

20's, vignette, a female leaning on a vase of flowers; of genuine, a blacksmith with his tools.

Bank of Susqueltanna Co. Montrose, 8 a 10
Berks County Bank, Reading, 55 a 60
2's, relief notes, letter B; vignette, State Arms, rather coarsely executed.

Carlisle Bank,

3's letter B, April 1, 1829; pay J. Cressier. The heads of Washington light and coarse.

Columbia Bk & Bridge Co. Columbia, Ia1 o's, altered from 5's; more female figure, one arm resting on, a sheld with a ploogia and ship, on right end, a figure of Commerce.

Doylestown Bank,

Easton Bank,

5's, old plate, lette 1, Aug. 1, 1827 and 1830; pay C. Commissioners Office, Carlisle, 2

Merchandize, & Co.

N and by the several Supplements thereto, it is made the duty of the Constables of the respective Townships and Boroughs within the county of Chicse seven Mey and constants, par.

In and by the several Supplements thereto, it is made the duty of the Constables of the respective Townships and Boroughs within the county of Chicse seven Mey and the several Supplements thereto, it is made the duty of the Constables of the respective Townships and Boroughs within the county of Commissioners, in the county of Commissioners of the constable of the constables of the respective Townships and Boroughs within the county of Cumbers of the Clerk of the Court of affirmation, and deliver to the Clerk of the Court of affirmation, and deliver to the Clerk of the Court of affirmation, and deliver to the Clerk of the Court of affirmation, and deliver to the Clerk of the Court of affirmation, and deliver to the Clerk of the Court of affirmation, and deliver to the Clerk of the Court of affirmation, and t N and by the several acts of the General Asset Commissioners Office, Carlisle, 7 December 21, 1842. Application for Tavern License. To the Höndrable the Judges of the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of Cum-berland county, at January Sessions, A. D. 1843.

THE Petition of WILLIAM MOUDY Respectfully represents, that your Petitioner is provided with the necessary requisites for keeping a House of public entertainment, in the house by present occurring the house of the present occurring the house by the house House of public entertainment, in the house he be present occupies. Your petitioner therefore, prayour Honors to grant him a License for the same Wallis; June 1, 1836; paper rather heavy and the ensuing year commencing on the 1st January coarse, and the whole appearance clumsy and indistinct.

William MOUDY.

Carliale, Dec. 21, 1842. We the undersigned, citizens of Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, do certify that we are well acquainted with the above named Wm. Moody, and that he is of good report for honesty and temperance; and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the lodging and accommodation of Straugers and Travellers, and so therefore recomend him to your Honors as well deserving of a License; and further say, that a Tavern at the stand is an accommodation to the public.

Edward Armor, W. Foulk

W. Foulk Edward Armor, John M. Good R. McCartney George Walt John Gillen Jacob Zug William Alexander Patrict Davidson G. L. Murry

Application for Tavern License. NOTICE is hereby given, that I intende to apply at the next Court of Quarter Sessions of Cumberland county, for a license to keep atavern or public house in the township of East Pennsborough, now kept as such by the sub THOMAS WHARTON.

December 21, 1842. We the undersigned citizens of East Pennsborough township, do certify that we are well acquainted with the above named Thomas Wharton, and that he is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well provided with house room and conveniences for lodging and accommodation of Strangers and Travellers, and that a public house there is necessary.

A. Erb,

John P. Quigley

Samuel Bover

Andrew Freitzer

John Hottz Application for Tavern License. To the President and Associate Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Pcace for the County of Cumberland: YOUR petitioner intends occupying that commodious House, recently creeted, situate at the deput at the Camberland Valley Rail road in the borough of Mechanicsburg, which will be well calculated for a public house of enter tanonent, and from its proximity to said Deput and Rail road, is suitable for the accommodation of travellers and for persons wishing to take passage on said Roll read, (which place at present affirds next to no accommodations.) That he ratends to provide himself with all the neessary accommodations for the enterta trangers and travellers. SAMUEL MEILY.

Meahanicaburg, Dec. 21, 1842. te

We the undersimed citizens of the borough of Mechanicshing aforesaid, being personally and well acquainted with Samuel Meily, and also having knowledge of the house for which the license is prayed for, do hereby certify that he is a person of good repute for honesty and temperance, and that he will e well provided with house room, succomm ers and travellers. Samuel Coover, John Coover, John Duey, Lewis Learing, Adam Riegel, Michael Gar John-Palmer, Samuel Worst, John Zimmerma Lewis Schott Michael Hoover, Jr. A. H. Vanhoff, Michael Hoover.

Application for Tavern License. OTICE is hereby given, that I intend to apply at the next term of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the peace in and for the county of Comber-land, for a license to keep a Tavern or Public House in the house I now occupy as such, in the boroug of Newville. WM. H. WOODBURN. of Newville. WM. H. Newville, December 13, 1842.

We, the undersigned, citizens of the borough of Newville, in the county of Cumberland, do certify that we are well acquainted with the above named William H. Woodburn, and that he is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well pro-vided with house room and conveniences for the lodging and accommodation of travellers and strangers, and that a tavern at the stand is an accom rs, and that a tavern at the ion to the public.

James Kennedy,
John S. Morrow,
Thomas A. McKinnoy,
Joseph McDermond,
Jacob Zeigler,
John Waggoner,

James Gilmor, William Barr, James Hoover, John Dunfee, Daniel J. Dunfap, Jacob Swoyer.

Orphan's Court Sale. Pyvirtue of an order of the Orphan's Court of Cumberland County, the subscriber will sell at public vendue on the premises, on SATURDAY the public vendué on the premises, on SATURDAY th 28th day of JANUARY next, at 12 o'clock, at noo of said day, the following real estate, late the proper ty of Jacob Harnish, of South Middleton township

3 Lots of Mountain Land, adjoining each other, situate in Dickinson towaship, in said County, about two miles and a half from Holly Forge, on the Whitestown road, bounded by lands of Jacob Myers, David Glem, Michael Myers, William Moore and others; the first of said lots marked No. 1. A. in the diagram filed in said Orphan's Court, containing 9 Acres and 74 Perches, strict measure. The second No. 2. B. containing 10 Acres and 59 Perches, strict measure, and the third No. 3. B. containing 10 Acres and 59 Perches, strict measure. These lots are well timbered with chestnut and other Timber, and are of convenient size for farmers owning property in the neighborhood.

The terms and conditions of sale will be made known on the day thereof by

JOHN PETERS,

Executor of last will of Jasob Harnish, dec'd.
December 31, 1842.

Notice

POBTAT.

FROM THE PORCET-ME-NOT FOR 1849,

THE PRESS. BY JAMES MONTGOMERY, ESQ. The Press! what is the Press? I oried: When thus a wondrous voice replied:-In me all human knowledge dwells; The oracle of oracles. Past, present, future, I reveal, Or in oblivion's silence seal: What I preserve can perish never

What I forego is lost forever. I speak all languages—by me The deaf may hear, the blind may see, The dum converse, the dead of old Communion with the living hold. All lands are one beneath my rule, All nations learners in my school : Men of all ages, everywhere,

Become cotemporaries there. What is the Press ? Tis what the tonguo Was to the world when Time was young, When, by tradition, sire to son Convey'd what'er was known or done: But fact and fiction so were mix'd,

That boundaries never could be fix'd. What is the Press? Tis that which taught. By hieroglyphic forms of thought, Lore, from the vulgar proudly hid, Like treasures in a pyramid; For knowledge then was mystery, A captive under lock and key, By Priests and Princes held in thrail, Of little use, or none at all; Till the redoubted Alphabet Free their own great deliverer set, At whose command, by simplest spells,

They work their mental miracles. What is the Press? Tis what the pen Was thrice ten centuries to men, When sybil leaves lent wings to words, Or, caged in books, they sang like birds, But slow the pen and frail the page-To write twelve folios asked an age; And a pet babe, in sport, might spoil

The fruits of twenty authors' toil. A power was wanting to insure Life to works worthy to endure-A power the race to multiply Of intellectual polypi: And Truth and Virtue hail'd the Press! What am I then? I am a power Year's cannot waste, nor flames devour, Nor waters drown, nor tyrants bind; I am the mirror of man's mind, In whose serene, impassive face, What cannot die on carth you trace-Not phantom shapes that come and fly, But like the concave of the aky. In which the stars, by night and day.

Myself withdrawn from mortal sight, I am invisible as light-Light which, revealing all beside, Itself within itself can hide The things of darkness I make bare, All that philosophy has sought, Science discover'd, genius wrought; All that reflective memory stores, Or rich imagination pours : All that the wit of man conceives; All that he wishes, hopes, believes; All that he loves, or fears, or hates; All that to earth or heaven relates: These are the lessons that I teach By speaking silence-silent speech. Ah! who like me can bless or curse?

What can be better, what be worse, Than language framed for Paradise, Or sold to infamy, and vice? Blest be the man by whom I bless Accursed he who wrongs the Press: The reprobate, in prose or song. Who yields the power of right for wrong Wrong, to out-last his laurell'd tomb, And havnt the earth till crack of doom !

taoteogradat.

THE CLOSING YEAR.

BY MIST C. M. SEDGWICK.

It was on the last night of December, 18-, that the family of my friend ELLEN CLAY were lingering over the drawing-room fire, between the hours of eleven and twelve.

er, her head resting on her mother's lap ; with the monotonous varieties of hemming ed over its pages.

There sat on the sofa a person wno was

He was a man about sixty, of small as you looked in his heavenly face, you nothing in such a life as this to satisfy a wondered how that frail body had served creature endowed with a conscience! so long to detain its celestial guest. Never "I am to go first to the confessional," was the record of a character and life write Ellen said, following her tears with ten more plainly than on that beaming smile-"well, I must produce my concountenance, where peace was stamped, demnation book, as I regard it." She and love and charity seemed every year of left the room, and returned with a little no time for any thing but business, None take a look down my throat life to have been accumulating their trea- book bound with green morocco, and let- for domestic enjoyment-none for friendlife to have been accumulating their trea-book bound with green morocco, and let-street in gilt letters— Hook of Resolutions ship—none for social life—none for the You don't, said he, way that a very ETTERS of Administration on the Estate of Seeing, penetrating, spiritually discerning for 18—."

I JACOB CART, deard of the Borough of Carbiale, Cumberland county, have been granted to the A JACOB CART, dee'd of the Borough of Aar slee, Cumberland county, have been granted to the slee, Cumberland county, have been granted to the sleet of the same place. All persons debted to the same place. All persons to include to the same requested to make respect to make the countenance, manner, and voice, would in it, as you see, several pages of very should be countenance, manner, and voice, would in it, as you see, several pages of very should be countenance, manner, and voice, would in it, as you see, several pages of very should be countenance, manner, and voice, would in it, as you see, several pages of very should be countenance, manner, and voice, would in it, as you see, several pages of very should be countenance to make the countenance of the pages of very should be countenance. The pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be countenanced by action of the pages of very should be pages of very should be paged by action of the pages of very should be pa serene brow, and the gentle tenderness of the last day of the last year, and I wrote the close of last year he had resolved it second look, "I don't see any thing,"

The countenance, manner, and voice, would in it, as you see, several pages of very should be otherwise, but instead of extri Days encouraged you to confide to him good variables. bave encouraged you to confide to him good resolutions. Not one of them have cating himself, he had gone on multiplying shousand dollars, and twenty negroes down is "perfection that bears with imperfect relation to health." tion." One might have told him the sorthe same feeling with which it is poured ness and enjoyment? out in the confession of secret prayer. heavily, we are incited by its gailing to them, but indeed I wrote them with an throw it off. We perceive some glimmer- estruest desire to shun the faults I specified. ing of our immortal destiny-we feel that and to do the good I proposed." with every thing enduring in the universe, I rejoice to see in this multitude of things cometh shall find watching." and that when the sun, moon, and stars, to be done and to be avoided, the evidence whose revolutions now mark to us the pe- of your high aspirations. But there are with purposes on which this gracious benriods of our lives, shall be blotted out-the too many of them. Ellen. You have set ediction may rest when it closes. fire of their urns all spent-we shall still fence behind fence, till you can scarcely live in our spiritual relations to the Divine yourself see the marked and fixed bounda-Being-still be going on with a progress ry between good and evil. You have prosive and unfolding being. Does not this posed to yourself such a multitude of torian, in a letter to Dr. Paley, draws the thought," he continued, taken Ellen's good deeds to do, that you have made a following beautiful and affecting picture of hand, and addressing himself to her, "give pressure on yourself from every side, so his wife, soon after her decease:

Ellen looked in his face for a moment, and then said, "it may to you—it should; its capacities—your relations to your Heav. have formed a connection in which a short-again silent. "My dear child," he said, "I fear there is something wrong here. Clouds should not hang over the closing year. You father and mother look so sad too. There is sometime much good in the confessions of the Catholic church—a tangible form is given to the vague and phantom floatings of the mind. An honest priest," he added with a smile, "may help you to separate the true charges of conscience from false self-accusations; and perhaps he may suggest to you some availing pilgrimage or penance. Come, my dear Ellen, make me

Ellen looked to her father and mother. "Do, Ellen," said her mother:" "I will vour mind."

your confessor; tell me what trouble is on

"And I mine," said her father, "and we will all be upon honor to tell the true story."

We must premise that there is in the technical sense of the word no story to tell. There is nothing striking in the history or if I had brought something to pass." condition of the Clays. They are wealthy other human beings they have their individualities.

Ellen Clay has a pleasing countenance There were Ellen Clay and her father people that constitute the gay society of silence, seeming to lieve retired into the because it would seem odd if she did not; might judge from the shadows that were was expected to give them. She had the gathering over their faces, there was nothe customary round of home occupations. The last hour of the year is one of those morning with devising changes in her marked points of time when Conscience, dress, or reading the morning paper-or with a torch glowing with heavenly fire, running through a new poem; or a new throws a light over the whole track of the novel. If the day were fine she made visits outrun year, showing every wilful depart or received them, or shopped, or took a ture and every careless deviation from the short stroll in the sunshine. After dinner she took a nap, and if the evening were Ellen sat on an ottoman beside her moth- passed without society, she occupied it both were abstracted. Mr. Clay had been and stitching that fill a young woman's reading at the table. The book was still work-box, or she migh be so fortunate as forgotten, till the recurrence of this solemn open before him, but his hands were clasp- to have on hand that most exciting of the needle-arts-a bit of worsted work. Occasionally she played and sung agreeably a a remarkable contrast to the other members few tunes, or she sketched a head, or painted a flower, but she had no passion for ble, exacting temper. She concluded as music, nor a talent for drawing that could stature, and of so delicate a structure, that call forth her energy. Certainly there was gone, and nothing accomplished."

and therefore less kind fellow-beings. It I You see I began with sundry resolves, in was utterly dissatisfied with himself, and "Which you justly considered, I sup-rowful tale of self-condemnation with much pose, my dear Ellen, essential to useful-"Certainly, sir, and accordingly you shall merely designate him as the Clay's see what fine plans I laid to keep in the friend-a friend he truly was, and is to the fresh air a certain portion of every day whole human race. He was the first to to prepare my feet for bad walking, and break the silence of the party by saying in then to defy it; to eat and drink in such a low thrilling voice-"My friends, I have modes as I found to contribute to the highever thought this hour between eleven and est health, &c. &c. After the first month twelve of the closing year, one of the gra- of the year, I never opened my book, and cious periods of life. Our Heavenly father thought only of these resolutions when I seems interposing for us-stretching out we remined of them by a headache or His arm to us, to help us over the dreary cold incurred by my own! folly." She distance that some of us have interposed paused for a moment, and then as she saw between Him and ourselves. It is one of and then as she saw her friend turn over those high points of life whence we see leaf after leaf, without dwelling long ebefore as well as behind, and if the burden nough on any one to peruse it, she said. of sins, voluntarily borne thus far, weighs "You do not think worth while to read a dignity to your present life? does it not that you could not feel the force of any . "Allow me, in justice to her memory, make existence appear to you an infinite one of them. Throw away the book, my to tell you what she was, and what I owed dear child, and look into the depths of her. I was guided in my choice only by your own heart-consider your nature and the blind affection of my youth, and might but to me"-she burst into tears and was enly Father, and to his universe; the dig- lived passion would have been followed by nity of the existence which is but begin- repentance and desguet; but I found an inning to unfold before you, and I think you telligent companion, a tender friend, a pruwill soon feel a principle at work that will dent monitress, the most faithful wife, and bring you with the love of Mary to the as dear a mother as ever children had the feet of Jesus. When the fountain is fill- misfortune to lose. Had I married a woed and purified, the streams will burst forth man who was easy or giddy enough to be on every side," ments. She then said in a low voice, as should in either case, have been irretrievaif breathing aloud her thoughts, "But the bly rained; a fortune in either would have year is gone, and here I am, with my broken resolutions and forfeited hopes. Who met a woman who by the tender managecan give back this lost year? "Could I by a spell restore it, Ellen, me from the doom of a degrading and ru-would your purposes be firmer, your hopes

Ellen was discouraged, and she hesitatnot know---I want something to ro -something to do."

"Do always the duty nearest to your" "But I want something more than little

"Well, my dear Ellen, I think I can and respectable inhabitants of one of our point out such an employment to you. It large cities. Neither are their characters was suggested to me yesterday, by your very strikingly marked, though like all mother telling me what a skilful nurse you were to Anne when she had the bilious find good to be accomplished. Our Heawithout distinguishing beauty. She is venly Father has given us a mission of love well educated, in the common acceptation and mercy, about our very doors. My of that phrase, having passed through the profession. Ellen, has carried me often thoroughfare of English and French schools among the sick poor; and I have often -but as she has reached unmarried the ad- wished that young women, gifted and invanced age in American city life of four-structed as you are in the modes of alleand-twenty, and as, having several joint viating the sufferings of illness, would make heirs of her father's property, her share is it their husiness to go among them to teach not enough to attract those worthies who them importance of ventilation; of airing make marriage a money contract, she be- their bedelothes, which may be done even gan to feel the chill atmosphere that sur- if they have but a single change; to show rounds a reserved, modest young woman them how best to give their medicines, and among the budding or freshly blown young to prepare and regulate their food; how much relief might be obtained by rubbing and mother. They had lapsed into deep our drawing-rooms. Ellen went to parties and bathing-means as much within the reach of the poor as the rich. These offirecesses of their own hearts; and, if one and she gave them in her turn, because she cas are often performed by the Sisters of Charity, in countries where poverty is most abject and revolting. It would be ing there particularly light or cheering.— She rose late and dawdled through the better if we Protestants derided the Catholits less, and imitated their good deeds

> The clouds began to clear away from Ellen's face, and her friend continued,-"I leave you to ponder on this, my child; your mother is waiting to come to the confessional, and it is almost twelve o'clock."

Mrs. Clay made her lamentation over resolutions formed at the beginning of the year now expiring-resolutions broken and period brought them before her conscience with the light of the Judgment hour. The loudest reproach seemed to be that she had done nothing towards subjugating an irritaher daughter had done :- "The year is again in silenes and despondence. Mr. Clay's story was a common one.-"He was the slave of husiness. He had MUMBER ST.

desperate for amendment." A thoughtful silence followed. which was broken by their venerable friend quoting those two lines of thrilling philanthro-

"Man's grief is grandent in disguise, And discontent is immortality." " My friends, your souls are uttering in these complaints your wrongs against them -they are all proclaiming their immortal birth and destiny. I augur much good from your general discontent, from your unqualified and honest confession." "Alas!" said Mr. Clay, "it is too late the year is lost !" "To be found," said his friend. The clock struck twelve. "Almighty power and goodness does give you back the year. A new period of time like that lost and lamented is begun. Try now the reality and force of your repentance, and when the last sand of the year now opening is run out, may you, my dear friends, be among those of whom it may be said, "Blessed the chords of our true life are interwoven "I do not doubt it, my dear child, and are those servants whom the Lord when he May our readers begin the year 1843.

A WIFE.

SIR JAMES MACINTOSH, the English hisinfected by my imprudence, or who had Ellen was silent and sad for a few mo- rudely and harshly attempted to correct, I been a shorter cut to destruction. But I ment of my weaknesses, gradually corrected

"She became prudent from affection; ed before she ventured even to say, "I do and though of the most generous nature] she was taught economy and frugality by her love for me.

the most pernicious of them, and rescued inous vice.

"During the most critical period of my life, she preserved order in my affairs, from every day duties to stimulate me, an ac. the cares of which she relieved me; she tion that when done shall make me feel as gently reclaimed me from dissipation; she propped my weak and irresolute nature; she urged my indolence to all the exertions which have been useful and creditable to me; and she was perpetually at hand to admonish my heedlessness and improvidence. To her I owe that I am not a rufever. You need not go on a mission to ined outcast; to her, whatever I shall be. In her solicitude, for my interest she never for a moment forgot my, feelings and my character. Even in her occasional resentment-for which I but too often gave just cause (would to God that I could recall those moments!)—she had no sullenness or acrimony. Her feelings were warm and impersous; but she was placable, tender and constant. She united the most tender prudence with the most generous and guileless nature, with a spirit that dis dained the shadow of meanness, and with the kindest and most honest heart.

> "Such was she whom I have lost; and I have lost her when her excellent natural sense was rapidly improving, after eight years of struggle and distress had bound us fast together, and moulded our tempers to each other; when a knowledge of her worth had refined my youthful love into friendship, before age had deprived it of much of its original ardor. I lost her, alas! (the choice of my youth, and the partner of my misfortunes,) at a moment when I had the prospect of her charing my better days. To expect that any thing on this side of the grave can make it up, would be a vain and delusive expectation, If I had lost the giddy and thoughtless companion of prosperny, the world could easily repair the loss; but I have lost the faithful. and tender partner of my misfortunes; and my only consolation is in that Being under whose severe and parental chastisement I am cut down to the ground.

A LARGE THROAT.—The Morning Star. published at Cincinnatti, relates the fol lowing anecdote of a young gentleman of the South who had expended a large for gone, and nothing accomplished."

What if I give it back to you?" said her friend. She raised her head, startled by his thrilling tone, and then sank down street very leisurely when seeing a physician on the opposite side, he called out to him saying he wanted him to come over.
'Doctor,' said he, 'I wish you'd just

'I don't discover any thing, sir, said