The Somers Mutiny.

We published in our last, the statement of Com mander Mackenzic, pleading his justification for the painful duty which devolved upon him in exccuting the mutineers on board the U.S. Brig Somers. The report of the Court of Inquiry may be expected in a few days, and the decision of the Secretary of the Navy. Meanwhile the matter is still the subject of violent discussion by the public prints; the majority of which, however, take ground in favor of Mackenzie. As every thing connected with this matter is of absorbing interest to the public, we take the following extracts froin a letter written by R. H. Dana, jr. of Boston, a gentleman of talents and intimatery conversant with Naval life. Mr. Dana, who had been paying a visit to the Court of Inquiry, says in his letter : 🤟 "Indeed, I'would go further, and say that one different Post Offices in the counties where-soust either have been at sea, or be willing to re-in they are published, he would have done ceive something on faith for those who have, to judge fairly of this case. The difficulty in the public mind is to be satisfied that there was such eral diffusion of knowledge, which all admit a state of things on board, after the arrest, as would render it all but certain to men of reasonable firmness and discretion, that the arrested per-sons could not be taken into port in irons. For sons could how be taken into port in froms. For this must be made out, or the execution was un-justifiable. I do not yet mean to give you an opinion upon which I am willing to be held, for the facts are not yet all in; but I should not be at all surprised if the facts and demonstrations which satisfied. Mackenzie and his officers, should have less effect upon the general abserve and reader less effect upon the general observer and reade on shore. The crew were under some feur after the arrest, and would be careful not to do any overt act or commit themselves at all, until they were ready to attempt the rescue. They would conceal every sign until the moment of the out-break. If the officers had waited for that evidence, they would have waited just too long for their own safety, and for the prevention of dread ful crimes on the whole ocean. They were obliged to judge from a variety of small circumstances of which some are significant only to naval men and others can hardly be made on paper as they did on the deck. For instance, the refusal of thre men to muster. If this. was, as the officers be lieved, a deliberate combination to disobey a law ful order, and carried out, it was of itself a mu-tiny, and would forfeit the lives of the parties by martial law : for I know no other definition of mutiny than would cover that act. It is an open defiance of authority, and, connected with the event of others, would alone go far to make out the required case. TO THE PUBLIC.

A 5 the business of MOSES MYERS, who is en-A gaged as a Millwright, in Lebanon township Adams county, has been injured to some extend by the evidence in a late law suit between myself and David Cockley of Lancaster, in which it was repre-ceeded that the metabilizer in my roll bed extended

David Cockley of Lancaster, in which if was repre-sented that the matchinery in my mill had not opera-ted properly on account of defects in the wheels constructed by Mr. Myers. I deem it an act of jus-tice to Mr. Myers to state to the public that I did not and do not believe such to be the case. And I would hereby recommerfil him as a first rate work-man, the evidence of which cas be found by examin-ing the machinery of the mill now owned by me. MICHAEL G. BELTZHOUVER.
