

On the amendment offered by Mr. Lewry to the Reform bill, made in the House of Representatives, February 18, 1843.

Mr. WRIGHT (Speaker) rose and said: Sir, I am sorry there should be any difference of opinion among the real friends of reform in reference to this amendment...

For myself, sir, I will have a reform bill or no reform at all, and if the office-holding gentlemen make war on the reformers...

Sir, I hold in my hand the report of the Auditor General. I find that the revenue of the government from all sources during the last fiscal year, including the balance in the treasury...

Sir, I dare not mention repudiation in these bills. The word should be suppressed; but let me ask the House if they suppose the people are to be visited with taxation...

Who would believe it, sir, that the credit of Pennsylvania, which ten years ago would have borrowed $1,000,000 at an interest of 6 per cent...

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The New York papers of Tuesday the 21st contain full particulars of one of the most atrocious murders committed at 7 o'clock on Monday evening, that was perpetrated in that city...

In making the call we trust we shall not be considered as calling too much. Our necessities and the obligations we have to meet render it imperative...

More Burn Burning. We are sorry to be again compelled to record the destruction of a large amount of property by fire in the County.

Indignant Explanation. The meeting of the "Anti-Slavery Society" has been most advantageously attended...

RECORD & EXPOSITOR. E. BEATTY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. CARLISLE, PA. Wednesday, March 29, 1843.

FOR PRESIDENT HENRY CLAY. Subject to the decision of a National Convention. DEMOCRATIC WHIG PRINCIPLES. SPECIALLY - FOR THE PUBLIC EYE.

OUR CREDIT. 1. A sound National Finance, regulated by the will and authority of the Nation. 2. An adequate Revenue, with fair Protection to the American Industry.

The Cause. Our paper appears one day behind the usual publication time this week, in consequence of a vexatious disappointment in receiving a supply of paper which had been ordered.

First of April - Removals. Such of our subscribers in town as remove their residences on the 1st of April, will please give us notice...

Speech of Mr. Wright. None of our readers, we presume, will require any prompting from us to induce them to read the speech of Mr. Speaker Wright, published in today's paper.

State Printer. Much interest was manifested in the Legislature on Monday, relative to the election of State Printer. The principal candidates were, John H. Dimock and John B. Bratton.

Gen. Scott on Slavery. A letter from Gen. Winfield Scott, to the subject of Domestic Slavery in connection with the Presidency, is published in a number of papers.

MURDER IN THE STREET.

A Man Shot by a Woman! The New York papers of Tuesday the 21st contain full particulars of one of the most atrocious murders committed at 7 o'clock on Monday evening...

The Tribune of Thursday says: The excitement consequent on the murder in the public street of this man, continues undiminished, and appears rather to increase in intensity...

The Comet. This celestial visitor is still to be seen in the sky on clear evenings, but its brilliancy is decreasing. We find the following notice of it furnished by Lieut. Maury...

WOMEN. Women are the Corinthian pillars that adorn and support society; the institutions that protect women and children are proud children; and where women and children are provided for, man must be secure in his rights.

Stambout Explosion. Just as the steamboat Cutter, commanded by Captain Collins, was leaving the wharf at Pittsburg on the 15th inst, the rush of passengers to the wharf side caused her to list to that side...

The Parrotter Whore. Benj. D. White, recently convicted at Le Roy, Geneseo county, of the murder of his father, has been sentenced to be hung on the 29th day of April next.

Another Revereud Speech. The Rev. Mr. Griebeler, and pastor of a Lutheran church in the upper part of Berks county, Pennsylvania, recently issued a young girl, employed as a servant in his family...

MICHIGAN. A writer from Michigan, of the Legislature of that State, says that McLeod, and another member from Michigan were obliged to foot it through the woods...

Legislative.

The Congressional Appointment Bill has become a law; the Governor having given it his signature. We present it to our readers that they may see the infamous gerrymandering of their privilege...

The City of Philadelphia, and Spring Cedar Wood and Upper Delaware Ward, in the county of Philadelphia, and the county of Chester, Delaware, offer the following important resolution...

The bill for the election of the Canal Commissioners by the people has been finally passed and is in the hands of the Governor. It will undoubtedly be vetoed by him...

After January 1845 the Governor to receive a salary of $3,000 per annum. Chief Justice of the Supreme Court (hereafter to be appointed) $1,800...

All the planets, except Venus, Juno, Pallas, and Ceres, are at this time to the west of the sun; and the comet, though possibly it may yet cross the orbit of one or more of them...

It is said that the Chinese lost in their late difficulty with England, about fifteen thousand men, many hundred pieces of cannon, and nearly their entire navy.

Monday next being the day next following the "third day," which occurs on Sunday, the election will then take place, the two Houses going into Convention for that purpose.

A motion indicating the disposition of the House to allow the Banks the privilege of issuing small notes, was passed on Friday by a vote of 48 to 29!

Both branches of the Legislature have fixed upon the 18th day of April, for adjournment sine die.

The Veto Power. With the vividness of lightning does the following passage in Mr. Clay's speech at Memphis flash conviction upon the mind: that the VETO POWER is to be traced the long train of disasters, which have cursed the Country, and brought it to its present prostrate condition.