

CARRISTE PA

Wednesday Morning, March 29, 1843.

Philadelphia Saturday Courier The last number of this well-established sterling newspaper, published weekly by McMakin and Holden, being the commencement of a new volume, is really a splendid specimen of improved taste in literary publications. The sheet is immens ly enlarged; and what with the fine white paper, the new and large type, and the tasteful embellishr its appearance is truly beautiful. Its contents are in keeping with its appearance, and would do credit to any of the boasted periodicals of the day. This truly mammoth paper can be had for one year for $2!

D'Aubigne's History of the Reformation. We have received five numbers of this valua ble work, being the monthly numbers from January to May, inclusive, of the Select Library of Religious Literature, published by James M. Campbell, of Philadelphia. Price fifteen cents a number, or $1,- 80 cents a year.

The History of the Reformation, which is completed in these numbers, is one of the most deeply interesting works we have ever read. . The ever-varying scenes of that eventful period pass before the eye in the most vivid manner, and the characters of Lu ther and the other leading Reformers, as well as the champions of the church of Rome, are depicted with a force that imparts to them the reality and beauty of the most masterly paintings. A book so good and cheap ought to be in the hands of every family.

It may be had at Kneedler & Hunter's in Main. street; where also may be had Allison's History of Europe, and other cheap works.

Mr. Durbin's Letters.

( Another, and we think the most interesting "letter that has yet appeared from Professor DURBIN, will be found on the first page of to-day's paper. It is addressed to Dr. SEWALL, of Washington City, a the whole volume of human nature, by the hand son of whom is making the tour of the Continent of the Divinity itself, and can never be crased by and the East in company with Mr. Dunnin We copy the letter from the National Intelligencer. It treats particularly of the Religious condition of Europe, with a brief examination of the frame-work and policy of the English and French governments and the condition and prospects of their people, to -which is added an interesting notice of Ireland and her people. The comments of Mr. Dunbin upon the people and policy of the countries he has visited, though necessarily brief to come within the narrow limits of a letter, demonstrate the closeness of his observations upon the character of the gevernments of the old world, and the keenness of his scrutiny into the moving causes of their policy. It will be seen that he gives it as his opinion that Papal power is rapidly regaining what was wrested from it by the Reformation, and that certain steps toward an alliance made by Louis Phillipe, indicate that the day is not far distant when even England and France may be added to the number of Kingdom-subjects to the power of Rome! The letter will be found replete with information and instruction, and is commen to attentive perusal.

Battle of Waterloo.

337 J. Ellis Bonham, Esq. delivered the eleventh evening last. Subject-the Battle of Waterloo .-It was listened to with great satisfaction by a large and fashionable audience, and reflected, in its finished style, vivid picturing and effective declaration, ate remarks and which were unanimously adopt the highest credit upon the promising talents of the ed: lecturer. As we take no notes of any of the fectures. we can give of this, as the preceding ones, no more than a brief outline. Opening with the French Revolution, occurred took a rapid review of the progressive causes which led to that bloody period, and gave a brief personal delineation of some of its prominent characters-Roflourished in 'a little hour'-and at last became, most fitly, the miscrable victims of, the Reign of Terror. Passing on from this, the lecturer adverted to the occasion which brought Napoleon Buonaparte upon the theatre of action, and related the britliant successes of his arms which followed, and which addling conquest to conquest, were making his name a terror to Europe; until at last, alarmed at the threatening aspect of affairs, an alliance of some of the greatest powers was found necessary and formed, to crush the usurper with one powerful and decisive blow. That great encounter, upon which hung the fate of nations, made Waterloo immortal in history, and restored the peace of Europe. That day ended the triumphant career of Napoleon; the march of the Conqueror was stopped-his ambition paralyzed in its highest effort, and the 'child of destiny' fell from his high pinnacle of power, to rise no more! He -fell, "like a meteor from the bosom of splendor into the grave of thick night; like an eagle smitten down in a too near approach to the sun!" He upon whom the morning dawned "a King, and armed with Kings to strive," was at evening

"The Desolater desolate-The Victor overthrown!
The Arbiter of others' fate, A Suppliant for his own!

The character of Napoleon in exile was glowingly expatiated upon, and the lecturer closed with a beautitul poetical apostrophe to Freedom.

The next lecture of the course will be delivered by Rev. John N. Hoffman. Subject-Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden and the thirty years War, .

Mr. Forney's Lecture.

Other engagements prevented our hearing Mr. Forney's Lecture. We hear it spoken of with high approval by many who were of the audience and a friend who heard it gives his good opinion of the matter and his objections to the manner, of the lecturer, in the following communication.

For the Herald and Expositor.

For the Herald and Expositor.

The 1st lecture of the course before the Washington Artillery was delivered on Saturday evening last, by John W. Forney, Esq. of Lancaster.—Subject, "Our Country's Future."

This Lecture was characterized by broad and rational views, extensive research, rich illustrations, original thought, close and sound reasoning and vigorous style. But, whilst meting simple justice to "Our Country's Future" as a composition, we cannot refrain from entering our humble caveat against the style of elocution which its author has adopted. There is too much mannerism, and too little nature—too much theatrical spling and mouthing of words, and too little attention paid to a correct and agreeable pronunciation.

words, and too little attention paid to a correct and agreeable pronunciation.

We are aware that this style of speaking is at present all the vogue in our large and fashionable cities; but this is no argument in its favor. An Orator should never slaughter nature to paint art with her life blood; and whenever this mode of speaking becomes general, we shall bid a long farewell to feeling and good taste.

The Whig Party.

The Spring local Elections in New York and the Eastern States, give most gratifying evidence that the Whigspirit of 1840 is not dead yet; and that it is to the Whig party the people will finally look to sustain the institutions and support the credit and prosperity of the Country. In New York the Whigs have regained the ascendancy in many counties which Corn is in demand at 4 low, round, and 43 they lost last fall, and gained victories in a number of towns in which the Locos have always heretofore held sway. THE Petition of hristian Randolls, of No. 771 Market st .- North Side .- above Second and will sell their Goods as low, if not at a lower grade of profit, than has heretofore been done in Philadelphia;—not one article reduced very low, in the expectation of making it up on other Goods;—but their prices shall be all corresponding low. Their prices will be governed by the Auction rates—selling at the same prices, nett Cash, as the Auctions do on time—contenting themselves with the Interest for the time as their Profit. This cannot but present a strong inducement for buyers, especially from the Country, to call on them in preference to purchasing at Auction, where persons do not get the time discount, unless their bills reach a certain amount, to which amount it is not always convenient for Country Buyers to purchase; and it will also avoid the disadvantage of large lots, and afford more time to select.

They design to avail themselves of every facility n both the New York as well as the Philadelphia Auctions, in procuring their goods at the lowest po sible rates. we now respectfully invite our friends and the public to the Test of Experience in this matter, heing the best way to convince them of the truth of our promise. Dear Sir—I have been afflicted for several years with inward weakness and general debility, accompanied at times with pain in the side and other distressing complaints. After having tried various medicines without effect, I was persuaded by a friend to make trial of Dr. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, which I am happy to state have relieved me in a most wonderful manner. I have used the medicine, as yet but a short time, and have no doubt, by a perseverance in the use of the medicine according to directions, that I shall in a short time be perfectly restored.
