B7 The discount on broken Bank relief notes in Philadelphia ranges at from 7 to 71 per cent. On other good but suspended Banks, at from 5 to reviewing Mr. Miller's theory, insists and proves 6 per cent.

The Northampton Bank, at Allentown, Pa. has closed its doors.

The Miller Doctrine !

Our fown has at last had a visit from two of Miller's chronology of the world ! the followers of "Father Miller," as he is familiarly called. We have heard of the preaching of these doctrines for some time in various parts of the county, but none of the promulgators of "the Midnight cry" have before visited our borough. Indeed we learn that the converts to the Miller Saturday the 25th. A resolution was passed, dedoctrine are exceedingly numerous in several towns inothis county.

. The individuals who lectured here labored as. siduously, lecturing three times a day for three successive days, but we do not hear of their labours being crowned with much success. A very few converts have been made, we learn, and they PETT, is Presiding Elder. are neither the most gifted or the most learned of our citizens! The lecturers themselves were extremely illiterate persons, forming apt illustra tions of the line that "Fools rush in where angels fear to tread !"

One of them informed his audience that he had been all his life a working man, had received no education, and could not consequently be expected to lecture upon this subject with much eloquence or elegance! He did not reflect, it seems, that his want of-education-was-the-very-reason why he should let such a subject alone ! The Miller ites go upon very safe ground, however, and very modestly shelter themselves under the scriptural text, "that God has chosen the foolish of this world to confound the wise." If they can prove that this expression of the Scriptures was intended expressly for them, they will have no difficulty in proving their point !

It seems to us that no person with Christian feelings can listen to these individuals thus boldly. predicting the time of so great an event as the destruction of the world, without having his mayal sense shocked at their high and daring presumption. The man who lectured in the Court House on Saturday is a fair example. He has not learned the rudiments of education scarcely, yet he knows the decrees of the Almighty ! He cannot, we judge, elucidate the simplest mathematical problem, yet he has the complicate chronology of the world, "familiar as his garter!" He has not learned to pronounce common words correctly (as his audience well know) yet

The Rev. gentleman clear. ly exhibited from the writings of the most eminent Northumberland and learned commentators upon the Scriptures, that Cumberland the latter prophecies related not to the end of the Delaware Franklin Fayette Cambria Lebanon that they have been fulfiled to the very letter !--The lecture was a most satisfactory one, and was

Green Huntingdon istened to with deep interest by the audience. We understand that lectures upon the prophecies have lately been delivered by the Pastors of several of the churches in our borough.

The Miller Chronology,

12 The Rev. Dr. Jarvis, of Middletown, Conn. s preparing for the press a work on the chronology of the Bible, in which he designs, among other things, to show that were Mr. Miller's views of Kickapoo candidate for State Printer, was to se the meaning of the prophetic writers correct, the cure to the Governor his present Board of Canal world would have been burnt up some years ago as he has placed the death of Christ exactly five. removal, when the veto should be sent in; al vears too lute.

Mr. Heekman made some remarks in favor of the resolution, which called up Mr. Hill of Armstrong, who stated that he had been called upon by Mr. McCulloch, of Centre, and assured that he (Mr. Hill) could get an office from the Canal Commissioners, if he desired it, but that it would be expected of him to sustain the veto of the bill for the election of Canal Commissioners, and vote for Mr. Dimock for State Printer, intimating that he had the same from the Commissioners, and desiring lim (Mr. II.,) to call on them...
