THE subscribers have determined to THE subscribers have determined to conduct their business upon the CASH System, and will sell their Goods as low, if not at a lower grade of profit, than has heretofore been done in Philadelphia;—not one article reduced very low, in the expectation of making it up on other Goods,— but their prices shall be all corresponding low. Their prices will be governed by the Auction rates—self-ing at the same prices, nett Cash, as the Auctions do on time—contenting themselves with the Interest for the time as their Profit. This cannot but present a strong inducement for hyperin, estuarding from the

for the time as their Pront. And cannot but present a strong inducement for buyers, especially from the Country, to call on them in preference to purchasing at Auction, where persons do not get the time dis-count, unless their bills reach a certain amount, to which amount it is not always convenient for Coun-try Buyers to purchase; and it will also avoid the disadvantage of large lots, and afford more time to select.

J. C. WALTERS, M. D. Woodstown, Sept. 4, 1841. Dear Sir-Athough your invaluable medicine has already found hundrods of powerful advocates, it may still be attifying to you to receive a communi-cation from ny one that has been relievad by it. Such, Sir, heruly my case. I have been a victim to that terrble disease Consumption, for many months, andnave suffered so much, that I had be-come almat weary of my-life. Hearing your Balsalm schighly praised, I began taking it a few weeks bue, and can assure you It has relieved me more thismay thing I have over used before, and I confident believe it will cure me effectually. Please give the harer the worth of the euclosed, and oblige Yous Respectfully, Johns Pransox. Woodstown, Sept. 4, 1841. THE CAUSE OF CONSUMPTION .- Sim L ple as these complaints are usually considered no one can deny helt being the most common cause of this fatal and distressing disease. It i no one can deny their being the most common cause of this futal and distressing disease. It is indeed a melancholy trath, that thousands fall victims to Consumption every year from no other cause than neglected colds. Yet we find hun-dreds, may thousands who weat such complaints with the greatest indifference, and let them run on for weeks and even monthe without thinking of the danger. At first you have what you miy consider a slight cough or cold; you allow busi-ness, pleasure or carelessness to prevent you from giving it any attention; it then settles upon your breast, you hecome hoarse, have pains in the side or chest, expectorate large quantities of mat-ter, perhaps mixed with bload, a difficulty of Chester County, Sept. 6, 1841.
