Our Public Schools.

The exhibit of the Directors of the public schools in this borough, will be found in to-day's paper, to which we ask attention. The exhibit of the Directors furnishes satisfactory evidence of the faithful performance of their trust, we think, and their representation of the flourishing condition of the school system of the borough, cannot but prove gratifying to parents and all others interested. It will be seen that the amount of by the citizens during the ensuing year is $1500, being $300 less than last year, which it is hoped will be cheerfully submitted to. Poctry. Br The thirteenth lecture before the Alert Fire company, was delivered on Tuesday evening of last week, by Mr. EDWARD STILES EGE. Subject-Po-ETRY. The weather was extremely inclement on the evening of the lecture, but the large number of the audience proved how strong are the wooings of gentle Poesy to the hearts of many of the "fair women and brave men," of our community, besides conveying no small compliment to the talents of the young Fencing &c., at Old College, Expenses of attendance at

The lecture on Pootry deserves a more extended notice than we are able to give. It is not too high praise of it to say that it was elegant in style and brailiant in effect evincing in its high conceptions and vivid images of the lofty character, the ethereal nature, and the spiritualizing influence of Poetryembodied, as they were, in chaste and benutiful expression-a mind deeply imbued with the spirit of the subject. Pactry was eloquently described as "the sister of music-whose sweetness never dies. It plays upon man's passions as upon a lyre, causing him to feel as a wanderer in the spirit-land. It exists in every thing that is beautiful or magnificent in Nature-mingles with every feeling, gentle or intense—and blends with every thing intrinsically lovely or noble in the mind. It is the pure religion of the heart, which casts a halo bright; peaceful, Dower on Old College amounting to $283,33, and and glorious around the fierce impulses of our na- a Judgement on Education Hall of $500. ture, calming them down to love and gentleness. It is emphatically the harn of the soul-attuned by the Creator's hand-whose spirit-chords are never in consequence of vacancies for a time in several shattered until mind becomes coffined in the loathof the schools. some charnel-liouse of sensuality."

The character, qualities, and objects of Pochry -and the duty of the Poet pointed out.
