THE SEARCH AFTER REST.

When first the dave, afar and wide, -Skimmed the dark waters o'er-To seek beyond the heaving tide, A green and peaceful shore.

No leafy bough, nor life-like thing, Rose 'mid the swelling main The lone bird sought, with fattering wing, The ballowed ark again.

And ever thus man's heart hath traced A lone and weary round; But never yet, 'mid carth's dark waste, A resting place has found.

The peace for which his spirit yearns, Is ever sought in vain, Till like the dove it homes And finds its God again.

TERRIBLENDS OF BURGIERT.

The day in which Christ shall judge the quick and the dead, is by pre-eminence, styled the great day of God's wrath. The circumstances of it will be appalling. The blast of the archangel's trumpet, the congregation of countless millions, the presence of angels, heavenly and infernal, the dread appearance of the King of kings, the dread appearance of the King of kings, the great throne, the destinies to be determined, will combine to impart to that scene a grandeur at once solemn and terrific. There is, however, one thing which above every other will make the day glorious or terrific, It is not any thing which s'rikes on the eye, imposing as all these objects will then be, it is not the sounds which shall then the fallon the ear imusical or mouroful as they may be; but the living conscionsness which shall be in every heart, and which shall couler to differ our mouriful as they had ample opportunities of acquiring a practical knowledge of diseases, and of the remet ics hest calculated to remove them. These preparations conmake every one for himself feel that he is sist of there, not lost in the mass of living beings, but singled out by the eye of Omniscience, and made proving the control of the Langs or Throat, Difficulty of and made prominent as if the whole preparation were made solely for his personal judgment. It will be a consciousness that every thing respecting his character and life is known fully, and without a veil of shadow of a doubt as to his own character. It will not be necessary that the voice of the Judge should be first heard adjudging this one to be a sinner, and that one to be a saint, for consciousness has already determined that; unspeakably exulting in the one instance, and Learfully foreboding in the other. The saint from the conscioushess of his love to Christ, shall, in anticipation, declare his own deliverance, "I am saved!" while the sinner, conscious of a heart unreconciled to God, and stirred up with malignant feelings against Him, will pronounce his own doon-"I am damned!" Terrible will be that day when millions with the consciousness of the latter, shallbe assembled in one place, each anticipating his own doom and persuaded in a manner which admits no doubt, that for ever and for ever he is shut out of the kingdom of heaven. What despair will seize his heart, what inexpressible terror will be depicted in his face, how plainly and legibly will every one be able to read deeply imprinted on his burning brow, "a doomed man !" Death is terrible, and judgment is terrible; but they derive their fearfulness from a personal consciousness of an unrenewed, of atonement. In every unbeliever there is a worm that never is of atonement. In every unbeliever there is a worm that never dies; for a season it may gemain torpid and inactive, but it will eventually strike deep its fangs and pour its fatal venom through the whole soul.—
Wo to him that becomes the subject of its inflictions! while blessed is he whose conscience is purged from idead works, whose soul is pervaded by the love of Jesus, who knows in whom he has believed? To him the judgment day is the great day of his

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA.

DAILY are; the effects of this preparation becoming more apparent. Numerous persons assert they have derived more benefit from using one bottle of it, than three of any other. This is easily accounted for, as Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla's a much stronger preparation than any other, and near twice as much is contained in one bottle-as of any other (and sold at the same price.) Let the public remembranchis—it is no vain boast but the real fact.

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA

From the Medical Review.

(f"Among the vegetable afteratives with which our dispensaries abound, there are few so useful as Sarsaparilla, and when properly combined and prepared, is invaluable; not only in restoring debilitated constitutions to their wouted energy but in every case arising out of an impure state of the bloud." From a knowledge of very many cases (and some of them considered incurable) where many different preparations of a raspari la had been used, none scemed to possess virtues or remedial powers equal to Dr. Leinty's Medicated or Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla." arsaparilla." It is a preparation it is believed far superior to any other, and would recommend it to the particum title of Physicians.—Ed. U. S. Guzette. DE LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA. Extract of a letter from J. B. Whitmore, of Easton, Extract of a letter from J. B. Whitmore, of raston, in relation to Dr. Leidy's Strasparilla.

"My fittle hoy and girl, the former now three years and the latter now seven years old, have been afflicted with a scrollous tomor from the time they were three months old. Three months and Three months old. Three months and afflicted to make trial of your Extract of Saysaparilla, and leave given it to both to the present time. They induced to make trial of your Extract of Sarsaparitia, and have given it to both to the present time. They are now entirely free from any appearance of Scrofula and never were in better health."

Dr. Leidy's Saasapacilla is efficacious in all discases arising from impurities of the blood one other fluids of the system. All invalids who may have been under incident treatment, who are debilitated from the quantity of medicine they may have taken. from the quantity of medicine they may have taken, or are under a nereurial influence, will find that by using a few bottles of Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla, their usual vigor and chaticity of their frame and system will be restored, and be again permitted to enjoy the sweets of life.

(J'This preparation may be depended upon as being the strongest (consequently-more efficacious) of any in existence; all fluid preparations must possess similar virtuer, in proportion to their strength, being prepared from the same article. Dr. Leidy's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, however, possesses properties not prisessed by others, from its manner of preparation, and combination with other vegetable extracts recommended by the medical faculty—and hence the reason why it is so generally recommended by the Physicians of Philadelphia and elsewhere.

recommended by the Physicians of Philadelphia and elsewhere.

From the extraordinary virtues of this preparation and a knowledge of its composition by Physicians (the reason why the so generally use it, as they would not use or recommend any preparation they did not know the composition or,) it has been introduced in many of the Hospitals throughout the U.S. and is highly recommended by Physicians and Surgeons of those Institutions.

From the New Orleans Advertiser. DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA DR. I.EIDY'S SARSAPARIBLEA.

The high and convice celebrity which this precaminent medicine has acquired for its invariable eficacy in all discusses which it professes to corre, bas rendered the usual piractice of pulling unnecessary.
It is known by its fruits and its good work's testify for it. Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla will be found particularly efficacious in all discusses of the treer, stomach, skin, kidneys, spine and bones, ulceration of the nose, throat and other parts, abscesses, fistulars, serofulas, crysipelas, jaundico, rheumatism and incipion gout, mercurial and syphilitic affections, female derangements and in restoring the sieldy and debilitated to their natural health and energy.

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARTELA. Dr. Leidy's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla has stood the test fiv five years past, and 'tis no hoast to say that there is no other preparation of equal strength now in use.' Throughout the Southern States where Sarsaparilla is as much in general use as tea and coffee, Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla is generally preferred and is highly recommended by Physicians, [whose certificates have becufrequently published.] Throughout the northeand west it is also much used, more perhapsthan any other.

One bothe of it thalf a pint j is warranted equal to two of any other in strength, and is equal to one half gailon of the strengest Syrup that can be made.

Dear Sir-Please send me two bottles of your genuine Balsalm of Wild Cherry. I have Leen af flieted with Constitution for the last two years, and suffered very much with a severe cough, pains in my breast, difficulty of breathing, night sweats, &o., and having tried numerous remedies, and also been under several doctors, yet I could not find any thing to relieve me until I used some of your Balsalm. I got one bottle from a neighbor of mine who is using it, and have found such wonderful relief from it that I have no doubt it will cure me effectually.

Yery respectfully yours, &o.

Robert Hotman.

Dear Sir-Your Balsalm of Wild Cherry has af Dear Sir—Your Balsalm of Wild Cherry has affected some astonishing cures here. One of which is an old lady, Mrs. Russell, who had been suffering for a long time with shortness of breathing, and general weakness; until she was finally obliged to keep her bed. After various other remedies had been resopted to in vain, she commenced using your Balsalm and after taking two bottles, was so far recovered as to be able to attend to all the duties of her house, and on, taking two bottles more was entirely aured.

Respectfully, &co. Poltsville, Pa.
