ISAAC TODD, J. H. DEVOR, J. V. E. THORNE, CHARLES BELL,

The friend in Southampton township who gave us early intelligence of the plot which has since developed (and been quashed too,) has our thanks for his well written communication. He will agree with us, we think, that subsequent events have rendered its publication unnecessary

Our paper is almost entirely taken up this week with matter relevant to the approaching election. One number more will nut an end to that, and we shall then give our accustomed va-

President Durbin.

Rev. J. P. Dunnin, President of Dickinson College, returned to Carlisle on Thursday last, after a short tour to Cincinnati. His arrival in down was marked by the most signal manifestations of rejoicing on the part of the students .--Upon the approach of the cars to town, a proces sion of the students was formed, preceded by the Faculty of the College, who received him at the rail road depot und escorted him to the College. We learn that an address was there made to him by one of the students deputed for the purpose, to which Mr. Durbin replied.

In the evening additional festivities took place in honor of the return of the President. Both College buildings, with the Grammar School, were splendidly illuminated, and a variety of fire-works exhibited from the campus. The brilliant spoctacle attracted crowds of ladies and gentlemen, who seemed to enter fully into the exhileration and excitement of the occasion;

We are requested to state that Snyder Ru pley, of Mechanicsburg, has withdrawn from the list of Sheriff Candidates

We inadvertuntly omitted to state at the proper time, that Mr. W. M. Mateer was elected to the office of Colonel of the 197th Regiment, P. M. at the election held on Saturday, the 19th

The Shippensburg Meeting. The proceedings of a Whig meeting held is Shippensburg on Saturday evening last, will be found in to-day's paper. We invite the particular attention of the Whigs of the County to its proreedings. The resolutions are more than ordinarily well written and broathe the true spirit. It is very well known that our Whig friends in Shippensburg were no little chagrined at the action of the Whig County Convention, and it was much feared that we should lose the hearty offi cient co-operation in this fall's campaign, which the Wiligs of Shippensburg are so well able to give and which when the interests of the Whig cause require it they never withhold. Our opponents wern inculging in secret rejoinings over the supposes disaffection of the Whigs of Shippensburg, and misfaking the spirit that was chilled but not stinguished, they selected that ancient town as he place for unfolding a grand scheme to explode the Whig party, and its citizens as the most available to give successite as shallow an imposture as s ever attempted to be imposed upon an intelligent community. But never did any schen e meet with somiscrable a failure, and never vere the actors an any vile plot so completely di tected exposed and dicomfitted, as in this. The conspi acy was no sooner unfolded than its base charactor was perceived, and the whige there stung by the keenness of the insult, rose up as one man and with the promptness of a noble spirit, denounced the vile scheme and the unprincipled county. This conspiracy on the part of our oppeacents and its speedy explosion, have aroused In reply to your first query, I answer—I am in the spirit of the Whigs and animated them to lively and united action. Although the battle is and uncertive answer; but I take the occasion not fairly their nwn, they now adopt it, and will to add, that the value of a tarill consists in its enthusiastic meeting on Monday evening; the proesedings of which will be found in another calumn. The proceedings of the meeting of the Whige of Shippensburg were called for by the meeting, and received with the warquest applease, meeting, and received with the warquest applease.

TO GEN. THOMAS C. MILLER. TO GEN. THOMAS C. MILLER.

DEAR Sin:—The Whig party is placed in the peculiar position of having no ticket of their own for the approaching election. Their delegates to came to the conclusion that the political interests of the party would be bost promoted by permitting the tickets already presented by the respective portions of the democratic party to carry on the contest. Perhaps they concluded wisely, by whether or not, they were the delegates of the party, and as good. Whigs we are bound to acquive or in their decision. ## SHIPPENSBURG MEETING.

At a very large meeting of the Whigs of the Borough of Shippensburg, held at the Council, House, on Saturday evening the 23d inst., for the purpose of expressing the utter contempt with which they have viewed the attempt which has been made through the columns of the "Cumfall parties and the front rank in that of berland Valley" hitherto a neutral paper, by few designing Loco Focos, to hood wink and be tray the Whig party into the spare which had been secretly laid for its destruction, JAMES STURGIS, Esqr. was chosen Chairman, and JUHN ALTIC, sen. Whereas our political opponents maddened by the prospects of defeat, have put in requisition of the incommendation of the property and taking advantage of the peculiar position of

But the trick can serve no other purpose than to expose the true character of the men employed in it and to show to the world the depthsof depravity to which a mercenary party will descend to accomplish its purposes.

Rosolved, That whatever may fiave been the intended line of conduct of the Whig party in reference to the contest in this caunty, we now in view of the infamous machinations of the Loco.
