All invalids who may have been under a sileal treatified, who are debilitated from the quantity of medicine they may have taken, or are under a mercurial influence, will find that by using a few bottles of Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla, their usual vigor and elasticity of their frame and system will be restored, and be again permitted to enjoy the sweets of life.

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA. This article appears to be doing wonders at the South, and from the high character of the recommendations, we are fully persuaded it is a most capital medicine for all impurities of the blood. We know many Physicians who have given their testinions on this subject, and we know they would not give a character to any medicine that did not really deserve it."—Charleston Enquirer.

NO DECEPTION, NO QUACKERY!!! NO DECEPTION,
In setting forth the virtues of this fully greatmeticine, we have no desire to deceive those who are laboring under affliction, nor do we wish to enegise it more than it justly deserves. Yet when we look around and see the vast amount of buffering this distress occasioned by many of the discusses in which this medicine has proved so highly successful, we feel that we cannot urge its, claims too sitrongly; or say too much in its avor.

Various remedies it is true have been offered and puffed into notice for the cure of discusses of the Lungs, and some have no doubt been found very useful, but of all that have yet been discovered, it is admitted by physicians and all who have witnessed its effects, that none has proved as successful as this.

Such, indeed, are the

A complaint with which thousands are lingering, it has also proved highly successful, and not only possessors the power of checking the progress of this alarming complaint, but also strengthens and invigorates the system more effectually than any medicine we have ever possessed.

Besides its surprising efficacy in Consumption, it is equally efficacious in Thirt Complaints, Asthma, Membritis, and all affections of the Lungs, and has everel many of the most obstinate cases, after every of the remedy had failed. 13-For particulars see Dr. Wistar's Treise on Consumption, to be had of the Agents.

A SUPPRISING CURE,—Among the many singular cures which this medicine has effected, there is perhaps none in which its powers are, so fully shown as in the case of Mrs. Austin.

This lad, had been consumptive for several years, and during the greater, part of this time had received the best medical attention, and tried all the most valuable remedical attention, and tried all the most valuable remedical strength and tried all the most valuable remedical strength and tried all the most valuable remedical strength and tried all the most valuable remedical strength and tried all the most valuable remedical strength and tried all the most valuable remedical wind with blood, and step by step this fearful disease continued its course, until all hope of a recovery was entirely despaired of,—While in this distressing situation, lingering upon the very verge of the grave, she commenced the use of this Balsalm, which, to use here own expression, operated almost like a charm. In a few days she expectorated freely, the cough was gradually suppressed, and every day appeared to add fresh unjer to her looks, and now, in the place of that emachated form withering to decay, she is seen uningling in society, in better health than she has enjoyed for years.

Disinterested Testimony.—Having witnessed the surprising efficacy of Dr. Wistar's Balsalm of Wild Cherry, in the case of Mrs. Austin, I cheer fully acknowledge the above statement to be true and correct.

Dear Sir—Although your invaluable medicine has already found hundreds of powerful advocates, it may still be gratifying to you to receive a communication from any one that has been relieved by it. cation from any one that has been relieved by it. Such, Sir, is truly my case. I have been a victim to that terrible disease Consumption, for many months, and have suffered so, much, that I had become falmost weary of my life. Hearing your Balsalm so highly praised, I began taking it active weeks back, and can assure you it has refleved me more than any thing I have even used before, and I confidently believe it will cure me effectually. Please give the bearer the worth of the enclosed, and oblige.
