MERALD & EXPOSITOR

CARLESEE, PA. Wednesday Morning, October 4, 1843.

. OPOnr paper is again almost exclusively taker up with political matter. But this is our last fire. Next week and thereafter our paper will contain the usual variety, and our best exertions shall be used to give it increased interest.

CTA communication received from Bhippen burg is declined. The subject is not of sufficient importance, and the author evidently prepared it too hastily, 37 The whigs of the York and Adams Congressional District are supporting Dr. Nes, a loco foco tariff man, for Congress. Why should not the whigs of Cumberland, Franklin and Perry do cxhibit this houest, disinterested and patriotic the same? Robert M. Bard, Esq., of Chambersburg, we inderstand, was some time since nominated for Congress, by a small portion of the whigs of Chambersburg. He has since declined.

Allen Township Meeting. L. Our friends in Allen township have con nobly to the rescue. Their proceedings will be found in to day's paper. The Whigs of Allen are too wide awake to be caught by the tricks of the enemy, and too firm and consistent in their support of Whig principles and the Whig party, to make a factious opposition to the decision of the County Convention, which could result in nothing but disunion and defeat. All praise to the Whigs of old Allen !

The Oyster's Point Meeting. anty has concurred in the decision of the county Convention, which deemed it inexpedient to nominate a Ticket this fall. But in so doing. many of our best Whigs, we are aware, have acquiesced under a deep sense of the obligations of duty. It was the course recommended by the county Convention, and their attachment to the Whig party was too strong to suffer them to act the Whigs in its own immediate neighborhood, a in nny manner which should destroy the union or distract the harmony of the party. We honor such Whigs. They did not approve of the course of the Convention, but they value too highly the great objects which the whig party is contending for, to let personal considerations interfare with the higher duty they owe to whig principles. o. But a portion of our friends in the lower end of the county, have, we regret to say, thought propor to pursue a different course. We have notosat down to write denounciations against them - we intelid to use no harsh language towards them - we mean only to express our regret that they have pursued a course which is calcula ted to mar the harmony of the party. We allude to the meeting at Oyster's Point, the proceedings of which will be found in another column. This meeting has thought proper to denounce the majority of the county Convention, as men "who were either to individe to know their duty that said recommendation was made in ignorance or to corrupt to act." The meeting then passed of the circumstances, and that we are now oppo-"who were either to imbreile to know their duty a resolution applauding the minority of the .con- sed to such a course. GEORGE ENETTLE. vention, who, "though overpowered by numbers" "knew their duty and were willing to do it." This was a meeting in favour of "principles not men," and those principles of the pure democra lic order, too ! Now will any of these gentlemen explain to us by what principle of democracy the right is given to a minority to rule the majority ? Did they over hear of a Convention in which th majority did not rule ? Then why, if these delegates who were opposed to a ticket overpowered in numbers, why had they not, according to all mitted. The writer in the Volunteer states how democratic rules the right to decide against a Ticket ? The members of this niceting must see the absurdity of such reasoning.

The New Whis Ticket. The meeting at Ovater's Point lies been as infortunate in its nominations, as was the "Cumberland Valley." the week before. Mr. Hender. son's declination of the nomination will be found below. Mr. Poellethwalle, who was nominated for Treasurer, has requested us to state that he unnot consent to be a candidate, and although

Mr. Altor, (who lives some distance from here,) loves his country-as he loves good old Pennsyl. as not given any information with regard to his intention, we have good reason to believe that the grasp of the profligates who are wasting her he will as promptly decline the nomination as the others. Sir-Being informed, through the "Cumber-land Valley" newspaper, published at Shippens, burg, that I have been chosen as a candidate, by burg, that I have been chosen as a candidate, by a portion of the Democratic Whigs and Antima-sons of this county, at a meeting held by them at Oyster's Point, on the 25th inst.—I take this op-portunity of informing my friends that I unhesi-tatingly decline being a candidate for said office, although thankthi for the, honer thus conferred upon me by them. Respectfully, &... WM. M. HENDERSON.

Mifflin Township Meeting. ST We have a word to, say with , reference, t which we find in the last "Cumberland Valley." Mr. George Knettle, the chairman of that meet ing, was in town on Wednesday last, and stated o us, that on the Saturday before the "Cumber land Valley" was received in his neighborhood, and caused much sensation among the Whigs there, ... Deceived by the very confident tone in which it pretended to speak the voice of the Whigs of Cumberland county, and not knowing that the ourse it pursued had hat the countenance of even few Whigs of Mifflin township hastily got together and passed the proceedings which appear n the "Valley" in favor of a ticket. Upon learning mare of the real nature of the movement lowever, and seeing for himself the "moccasin racks" which were plainly , visible in, the interference of S. R. Hamill, he signed, in advance of their publication in the "Valley," the following retraction of his part of the proceedings, which he requested us to publish in case the Miflin township proceedings were published. This certilicate of Mr. Knettle's may be seen at our office if there be any who doubts its genuineness:

Carfisle, September 28, 1843. Fo the Editor of the Carlisle Herald : Si .- The Comberland Valley will probably publish a recommendation signed by myself and Andrew McElwaine in favor of a Whig Convec-tion to form a ticket. I now beg leave to say, (and

We scarcely think it pecessary to attempt vindication of the majority of the delegates from the charges of imbecility and corruption-indeed it would almost amount to an insult on our part to attempt any such thing. Suffice it to say that the whole Convention was a most respectable and intelligent body, and the majority, we believe, was quite equal in every respect to the minority. What there was to corrupt them, we cannot im agine. Many of them came into the Convention with direct instructions to oppose the nomination of a ticket-others came to the same conclusion after the most mature reflection they were able to give the subject. And we know that several of the minority coincided in opinion as to the policy of not norminating, though they voted in favor of it.

We have published the proceedings of this meeting, though certainly the manner in which the meeting has thought proper to honor us in its resolutions, gave it no claim upon our columns. That has not disturbed our equanimity much, - however, and we shall not quarrel with these gentlemen, on that account. Our personal feel ings in this contest have been merged in the good of the party. We should certainly battle more carnesily and heartily in favor of a full Whig ticket, than a mixed one. But this the Convention did not give us, and we therefore go for the pest that is to be hall. We are quite well aware too, that some members of that meeting have viewed with more "indignation" our course in advocating the claims of HENRY CLAY, than they have the alleged "insult? of the resolution! Let us say one word in conclusion to the gen tlemen who composed this meeting. You will Let it he so no longer-let us do our fluty faith-observe, by the declinations which they volunita. fully to him, as he has done for his country. Let rily and without any solicitation, have requested to-be published, that the candidates you have nominated refuse to be considered as such. They flag-plant it on out loftjest eminence,-give its you, but because they will not be the means of dithey have shown a preise-worthy example. To - have put a Whig ticket in the field at this late day, would inevitably have produced a division of the party. This we are sure you do not desire. No whig should forget that we are on the eve of a Presidential and Gubernatorial election. In view of this you will admit that it is of the very high est importance to keep our party firmly united .--This can be done in no other way than by a gen; erous acquiescence to the decision of the County Convention: Are you, who are Whigs of inany years: standing, willing, now: to sucrifice: the union of the party, on account of a temporary disappointment? We know you are not. Let us earnestly request you, then, to re-consider the resolutions of your meeting-to weigh the consequences which must follow such a course-and finally to follow the example of your nominees, by concurring in the decision of the Convention !

AT In an "extra" issued from this office last week, we stated that the Whig meeting in Shipensburg adenounced in the strongest language the Cumberland Valley and its Editor," and in the haste of preparing the paragraph stated the Editor's name as W. A. Kinsloe. In this it appears we were incorrect, as by referring to the "Valley" we find the only person announced as Editor and publisher, to be J. B. G. Kinske. We knew the paper was once published by both the brothers, and had not observed that latterly but one name has appeared. We make this statement from a common sense of justice-and not as an pology, for the language of the communication n the last Volunteer, signed W. A. Kinsloe, for-

The Bankrupt Law.

Br The last Volunteer takes a good deal o pleasure in giving the repealed Bankrupt Law a good hearty kicking. This was probably gratify its spite against some; "democrats" who found the law a very timely benefit to them ; for we believe quite as many of, them partook of its blessings as there was of Whigs. There was no doubt a considerable amount of rascality practised under that law by dishonest and designing nersons but it was a law coutomplated by the United States Constitution, and we think the resealing of it after it had lost its retrospective action, done the greatest injustice of all.

We'do not understand our friend of the Chambersburg Whig, in his remarks, relative to the Whig pariy of Cumberland county.
