

Our warmest thanks are due to the Herald & Expositor, "Union," and several other brethren of the press, for slips containing election returns.

The "Plinian" or Journal of Social Science devoted to the cause of Association or Social Reform and the elevation of the human race, is a new paper, the first number of which has just been issued at New York. It will be edited by an association of talented gentlemen, among whom we observe Greely, Brisbane and others. We have heretofore given our readers some idea of the doctrines of Association or Fourierism, but if any of them desire to examine the subject further we would recommend them to procure the first number of the Association of Social Science.

The Sheriffalty.
Adam Longsdorf, of Silver Spring township, was elected Sheriff of this county, on Tuesday last, by a majority over his highest competitor. We understand Mr. Longsdorf has appointed Mr. William M. Bستم of this borough, a clever young fellow, to be Deputy Sheriff. It is no small compliment to the ability of Mr. B. to be preferred as the claimant of several other applicants, all of whom were men of experience and veterans in the party.

We "Rise to Explain"
There is a little unassuming paragraph in one corner of the outside page of our last paper, which requires some explanation. It is headed, "How to get into trouble," a subject on which any advice would be as little welcomed or followed, as upon any other we know of. We have no recollection of having selected this paragraph, and can only account for its appearance in our paper by the supposition that one of our correspondents hastily took it out of an exchange paper as the first paragraph he could find which would fill a column, and not because of any application to him to do so. It was with regret, therefore, that we heard that members of a respectable family in town erroneously intended that the paragraph was directly disavowed this week, so far from being the case, that when we referred our last publication, our attention was directed to the paragraph, and we had no recollection even of the article being in our paper. Our attention is now strictly paid to the inside of our paper, and thus it happens that small articles of an objectionable character have found their way into the paper without our knowledge. The article in question, however, does contain some excellent general advice, but we do not believe it applicable to the enterprising family to which it gave umbrage, and as for intending it for them we distinctly and emphatically disavow and decline any such thing. The business members of the family who allude to, have never to our knowledge given any cause for public censure; and the successful candidate on the county ticket, who is thought to be personally named in the article, is known to be a most worthy and irreproachable citizen, and a man whom we have never made any public objection to, even on the hillside grounds. The article is supposed to have been forwarded because of the phrase "non-Bob," which occurs in it, although any reader of the paragraph, who is sure, would say decidedly that it deals only in generalities, and that "Bob" is merely a fictitious character.

The following are the official returns from the several counties of this district, for member of Congress.

	Millers.	Blacks.
Cumberland	2,334	2,912
Franklin	2,163	2,655
Perry	686	1,369

Majority for Black, 426.

Manchester County Election.
The following are the number of votes polled for each of the three tickets run in Lancaster county, at the late election. The Clay whigs led a triumphant majority. We take the vote for Assembly:

	Clay Whig Ticket.	5,079
	Anti-Masonic Ticket.	1,403
	Loco Foco Ticket.	3,891

The majority for the Whig Call Commissioners is 1,851. There were 293 votes polled for a separate ticket with the names of Hugh Melan, J. H. King and J. M. Morehead; a ticket which seems also to have been voted in Allegany and other places.

Sudden Death.
Mr. A. H. Dehn, of Delmar, Ohio, died, suddenly, at DuBois Hotel, in Harrisburg, on Thursday last. He had been in bad health for a long time in Baltimore, and arrived at Harrisburg on Tuesday evening, in the stage, with his wife; took a hearty breakfast on Wednesday morning and soon after fainting—prompt medical assistance at once rendered, but all the usual resources availed nothing—he died in two hours. Truly, "in the midst of life we are in death."

Mr. James Rice, a volunteer candidate for County Treasurer, was elected in Perry on Tuesday last, making a small triumph for the persevering wings of that benighted county.

A capital story is told of Judge Tappan, one of the Senators in Congress, who is unfortunately crossed-eyed. A number of years ago he was Judge of a newly organized county court, in the eastern part of Ohio.

MARRIED.
On Thursday the 6th of October, by the Rev. J. Knapp, Mr. John Nickert to Miss Elizabeth Horst, of this county.
On Thursday, the 6th inst. by Rev. J. A. Murray, Mr. David Deveroy to Miss Eliza A. Yotzo, of Cumberland county, Pa.

Dr. Richard Harlan, formerly of Philadelphia, died lately at New Orleans. Dr. Harlan was an eminent naturalist.

The Official Returns.
The official returns of Cumberland County which will be found in to-day's paper, show that the result is not so bad as we anticipated when our last paper was issued. Instead of Gen. Miller being defeated, he has a clear majority of 13211. The Whig Call Commissioners only fall behind their less successful opponents about 62 votes, and the Whig County Commissioner comes within 42 votes of a majority! Owing to the dissatisfaction of a large portion of our friends, the majorities on the remainder of the ticket are considerably larger.

It is a matter of deep regret that so large a body of our friends permitted themselves to be kept from the polls, because of dissatisfaction with the action of the County Convention, or from other causes. Whether the majority of the Convention acted right or wrong, there is one thing certain, they acted as they honestly thought the best interests of the party required. They were "imbecile" nor "corrupt," and men who were incapable of acting treacherously or doing willful injury to the welfare and prosperity of the Whig party. Their conduct ought, therefore, to have been looked upon more generously, and their measures, at least, held above suspicion. And it should always be recollected, that if the County Convention makes "a mistake," the error cannot be remedied by staying away from the polls. The only proper course in such circumstances, is to bring out the whole vote, and correct the error the next fall. The only hope of a party, is in evenly polling its whole vote every year.

Every one who reads the returns may now see that by the course pursued this fall, we gained for the only really important part of the ticket—the Canal Commissioners and the County Commissioners—at least three hundred Anti-Porter votes; which, with a Whig vote of at least that amount which was not polled, would have given these Candidates a triumphant majority! The vote of Dickinson and other townships proves this. This result sustains the view taken by the majority of the Convention; a view which was however based upon the confident hope that the whole Whig vote would be polled, and which has only been disappointed by the failure of our friends to do so.

In our opinion the returns of the election in this county are full of encouragement to the Whigs. Instead of the hundreds of a majority which have been always heretofore polled against us, we have cut down the strength of our opponents to the insignificant majority of about fifty! We have broken down their compact and perfect organization, beyond the hope of repairing it—their well-drilled ranks have been deserted by scores of good men, who will never return to them. Let the Whigs take heart then, and rally to the contest with renewed hope, and fresh zeal and energy. Democratic Whig principles must and will yet triumph in Cumberland county! Let the flag of HENRY CLAY be hoisted high, and every good Whig redouble his exertions to crown it with victory! Let us bury our regrets for the past, and act earnestly for the future. Let us commence our organization early—put our ticket in the field early—and cease our exertions until they shall result in complete and triumphant success. The cause of Henry Clay and Whig principles expects every man to do his duty, and "stand on him who falls now!"

October.
Solemnly beautiful is view,
Mould of my heart! Thou dwellest here,
With sad and faded leaves to streak
The summer's noisome wreath,
The moaning of thy winds I hear,
As if the rustle of thy hair,
Annals of purple clouds appear,
Obscuring every western glare.
