SABBATH MORNING.

How beautiful the morning dawns ! How calmly wanes the night !-And sloping hills and grassy lawns Are tinged with rays of light: And dew drops glitter soft, like pearls, 'Mid a fair maiden's floating our ls.

Hushed is the reveller's rade song, And shepherd's round elay ; And flocks and herds more slow along, And 'mit the boughs the soft wind stirs, Warble the woodland choristers.

And every brooklet gliding by, And torrent bounding free, Chaunts to the Power Supreme on high, And ere the lark unfolds his wings, A morning hymn he sweetly sings

Who would not rest on such a morn, . Must be indeed a child forlow, Unus ed to praise and prayer. Blessedday! Most holy of the seven. Thy sacred prototype is Heaven!

SUNDAY IN SCOTLAND.

The ushering in of a Scottish Sunday morning is far different from what every one must have had occasion to observegland. There are no shops half opened to the very hour that summons the population the very hour that summons the population the summons the population that summons the p to its worship,—no servant's work to be Fine and Common do Royal teeble twilled Venetian, done at the doors and windows, though ever so early,-nothing that can remind one of the toils of the week, and the anxiety of the heart after worldly affairs. No artizans idling, unwashed, and in their working dress, about the streets; or any of those degraded characters who may often be seen with half a dozen dogs making their way to the outskirts of the town for the purpose to the outskirts of the town for the purpose fully invited to call and examine for themselves a the goods shall be sold at the lowest prices is the Grity. along the ditches. They labor six days, and Saturday night effectually closes the scene. From sunrise to broad day, the whole time steals on as quiet as though toil and the common anxietics of life were never known. Every care save that all important one, seems laid aside. The calmness of the atmosphere, the repose of the senses from every sound, and the slow chiming of the distant bells seems to speak it to be truly a day of rest, when the parent and the child, the rich man and the needy, alike in the presence of the Creator, observe his appointed time's and remember

The cottages on the mountain side, which during the week present the very picture of peaceful industry, are usually on Sunday morning shut up and silent; as though with the cessation of all human labor, the inhabitants had in spirit retired to that peaceful world of which a quiet Sabbath is so beautiful an emblem. But about the honr when the village bell begins to toll for the devont assembly, then may be seen issuing from the humble cottages which, hitherto, appeared from their quietness almost uninhabited, each little family, from first to last, all clad in their best, clean, plain and homely; but to the devout and seems to convert the temple of the Most High into a house of earthly vanity. The elderly clad in sober colors, becoming their season of life; the young in simple white. one following another in a long train alon the mountain side, form, together with the place to which their steps are bending, subject on which the mind long dwells with internal satisfaction.

the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

In the evening, while perhaps the agec -they who are nigh upon the brink of the dark ocean of eternity upon which they must soon embark-are engaged in the perusal of that volume which points out their way to the distant land; the young to whom it is given to rejoice while their day is before them, often walk out on the hills together or alone, though always with that peaceful demeanor, that total absence of all tendency to unhallowed mirth, which bespeaks a heart humble in its strength, and conscious of the service it owes to Him in whom all is glory and honor.

Thus peacefully and silently, the night again steals down-closing upon a day on which ten thousand hearts have been better taught their duty to all living.

Dropsical collec-tions immediately took place over the entire surface of my body, causing such an enlargement that it was of my body, causing such an enlargement that it was necessary to add a half yard to the size of my dressesuround the waste. Next followed, upon my limbs, ulcers, painful beyond description. For years, both in summer and winter, the only mitigation of my suffering was found in pouring upon those parts cold water. Upon lying down these pains would shoot through my system, and compel me-to arise, and, for hours together, walk the house, so that I was almost entirely deprived of sleep. During this time the Erysipelas continued active, and the ulcers enlarged, and so deeply have these eaten, that for two and a half years they have been subject to bleeding. During these almost twenty years I have consulted many physicians. These have called my disease—asit wasnitended with an obstinate cough and a steady and active pain in my side—a dropsical emisumption; and though they have been skillist practitioners, they were only able to afford my case a partial and temporary relief. Dear Sir-At your recommendation. I some time since made trial of WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEG-ETABLE PILLS of the North American College of Health; and can conscientiously assert, that for Purifying the Blood, and renovating the system, have received more benefit from their use, than from any other medicine, it has heretofore been my good fortune to meet with. IL am, dear sir, with many thanks, your obliged friend, C. M. TATE, No. 60 Hamersly st. New York.

Mr. Richard Dennis, agent for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.

Dear Sir—I have been afflicted for several years with inward weakness and general debility, necompanied times with pain in the side and other distressing complaints. After having tried various medicines without effect, I was persuaded by a friend to make trial of Dr. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, which I am happy to state have relieved me in a most wonderful manner. I have used the medicine, as yet but a short time, and have no doubt, by a perseverance in the use of the medicine according to severance in the use of the medicine according to directions, that I shall in a short time be perfectly restored.

I most willingly recommend said Pills to all persons similarly afflicted; and in the full belief that the same beneficial results will follow their use.

I remain yours sincerely,
HENRY A. FOOTE,
Wawarsing, Ulster Co. New York. New York, Sept. 29, 1841. This is to certify that I have used Wright's Indian

DR. LEIDY'S SARSAPARILLA.

Deliver the effects of this preparation becoming more apparent. Numerous persons assert they have derived more benefit from using one bottle of it, than three of any other. This is easily accounted for, as in. Leidy's Sarsinghrill is a much stronger, preparation diameny other, and near twice as much is contained in one bottle as of any other (and sold at the same price.) Let the public rement this—it is no vain boast but the real fact.

PREPARED only by. Dr. D. JAYNE, Inventor, and sole proprietors, No. 20 South Third st. and none are genuined and none are genuined without he signature upon the outside wrapper. All others are counterfeits.

These medidines are recommended and extensive axed by the most intelligent persons in the United States, yn numerous Professors and Presidents of Colleges, Physicians of the Army and Navy, aid of thought as an an an an analysis of the Army and Navy, aid of thought as abound, there are few so useful as Sarsaparilla, and when properly combined and precise as arising out of an impure state of the blood. From a knowledge of very many cases (and some of them considered incurable) where many different preparations of Sarsapari la had been used, none seemed to possess virtues or 'remedial' powers equal to Dr. Leidy's Medicated or Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla."
