Trial for Libel.

A trial of considerable interest commenced yesterday, before a Special Court of Quarter Sespresiding. The parties are, the Commonwealth "Sintesman," and George Matthews, of this borough, for an alleged Libel upon Judge Hepburn of this district, which appeared in an editoria article in that paper in August last.

The case was opened yesterday morning ecuting Attorney, appearing for the prosecution, and Messys. Reed, Ege and Bonham for the defendants. The whole of the morning session of. the Court was occupied in empanneling a jury, friends of the York "Republican" and Poyles. owing to delay from the various exceptions taken

The examination of witnesses consumed nearly all of the afternoon, and the pleading was commonced by Mr. Bonham, for the defence, just before the adjournment of the Court. The case will probably be submitted to the jury and a Verdict rendered by this evening.

The trial seems to have excited very great in tterest, and a large crowd of spectators througed the (Court House yestendy.

Daniel Webster.

We give to day extracts of the most impor-

Trouble in the Cabinet.

The city papers have rumors of a "flare up" in the Cabinet, at Washington. The dissension it is said arose upon the question of introduc ing prominently into the forthcoming President's Message, a recommendation to admit Texas into the Union : and that the President and Mr. Uo shur were decidedly in favor of the recommenda fion, but were as decidedly opposed by the other members of the Cabinet 80 Col. Johnson reached Philadelphia on Fri day last, and was received by committees of citizens and the Repeal Association, but with no great display or ceremony. Col. Johnson seems to be considered the champion of Repeal, and has attended several of their meetings during his Eastern trip.

We are glad to see the "Volunteer" taking the side indicated by the extract from the Philadelphia Inquirer in the last paper, on the subject of the annexation of Texas to the Union. On that question it is to be hoped the entire North, including all parties, will present an undivided front of immovcable and uncompromising oppo-

Hon. T. M. T. McKennan. The Washington (Pa.) Reporter, expresses the opinion that Mr. McKennan will not suffer his name to be used as the Whig candidate for Governor. As the "Reporter" is published near Mr. McKennan's residence, it may be supposed to speak "by authority." We shall be sorry to learn that Mr. McK. is fixed in this determination, as we believe him to be not only eminently qualified for the office, but a most available candidate The Gubernatorial question is beginning to excite considerable discussion through the State.

The venerable Col. Jony Thungues, one of the links between the past and present, who was the last survivor of Washington's military family, died in New York on Friday, full of honors, at the advanced age of 87. He was Aid de camp to the Father of bis country, and has become celebrated for his historical paintings-particularly that of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence. He will be interred at N, Haven, by the side of the wife of his youth. ' The graves of John Trumbull and Noah Webster will almost render New Haven a place of pious pilgrimage.

John D. Bemo, the converted Seminole Indian, has been preaching at Little Rock, Arkanans. He is now engaged disseminating the doctrines of christianity among his tribe.

New York Election.

THE STATE OF

The election of members of the Legislature, &c., took place in the State of New York on Tuesday the 7th inst. In the City the Whigs carried their Sheriff by a large majority, and one of the mem, bers; and the average locotoco majority is only 462. Last year it was between one and two housand. The Whigs think they would have entried all but for the Native American ticket. hich received between 7 and 9000 votes, and listracted their strength.

So far as heard from, through the State, the subsciptions and advertisements for the "Herald) Whigs have gained, Schenectady county, all Whigi last year, 243 loco. Montgomery hearly ill Whig; last year 513 loco. Albany 400 Whig; ast year but 200. Orange 500 Whig gain since last year. Westchester Whig, the first time for here at least, on the nights of the 12th and 13th, many years. Columbia 700, Whig gain. Partial returns have been heard from a number of counties; but enough is not yet ascertained to form an opinion as to the general result. The locofoco majority was so large last year that we doubt whether the Whigs can overcome it. There is no doubt, however, it will be very much reduced. Since the above was put in type, news has been on Monday evening, was a very slim affair, in received from the Western part of the State, every respect, and will have its only importance which puts a different aspect on the matter. It in the glowing terms in which it will probably be seems the Whigs in the West permitted the elecset forth in the Volunteer. Buchanan stock | tion to go against them by default, and have therefore consigned the State again to the tender mercies of Locofocoism, by a large majority. It is now almost certain that the Locofocos have carried every Senatorial District-an increased num ried every Senatorial District—an increased number of Assemblymen—and a popular majority of nearly 25,000 votes. The aggregate vote taken is about one-third less than usual—probably about 300,000, in a constituency of 450,000.

The great contest of 1844 will waken the people up, and then a different result may be leaded by the contest of 1844 will waken the people up, and then a different result may be leaded.

ple up, and then a different result may be looked for. It is proper to say that the present result was not unexpected to the Whigs.

The article pointed out by our friends of sions of this county, Hon. Judge Dunner, of York the Columbia "Protector," was taken out of an exchange paper, and the last number of their against Messrs. John Hamilton, publisher of the spirited little sheet gave us the first information of its true paternity. We should not have withheld the credit had we known to whom it was due. Our acknowledgements are also due to our sen sible friend of the Norristown Herald. But he will grant, we think, that in the particular case Messrs, Watts, Biddle, Todd and Graham, Pros- he alludes to, it "would not have looked well" to give the credit in full!

We also grant ourselves a "previous pardon" in two similar cases of larceny upon our good town "Intelligencer," and promise not to do the like again! We might justly reproach some of our brethren for uncreditable conduct toward us but we generously forbear. It might not be difficult to prove ourselves "more sinned against than sinning," in this particular.

TA full account of the action of the English povernment, and the arrest of O'Connell, will be found in to days paper.

ITThe New York American gives the follow ng capital incident, which it says is entitled to the merit of truth as well as excellence :

"A discussion arose in one of the Harlem Rail. and cars between two men, one a whig, the other a Lee, as to the merits and prospects of the different candidates for the Presidency. After some considerable talk the loco observed, "at all events while you are pledged to one man " "Admitted replied the whig, "we go for Harry of the West, as our first and only choice." "How absurd," replied his antagonist: "Suppose Clay dies, what will you to then?" "Do?" answered the whig "what will I do? By Jove, I'll vote for his Executors
