President Tyler and the Locos. A PRESIDENTIAL CALCULATION ! UTThe Washington correspondent of the N. Y. American, savs:

"Tyler is outrageous about the election of Blair and Rives, as Printers. He says the contest is now narrowed down to Clay and Van Buren, and the chances are two to one in favor of Clay. Now no thanks to him for this as news-we knew it long since but it is news that he should at length have a perception of the traille. The Madisonian several days ago published an article in taply to some strictures of the Globe, upon Mr. Tyler's opposition to Blair & Rives be-ing elected printers. This article in the Madiso-nian was evidently from the pen of R. Tyler, and in the some and those indefined make nament. in the course of it, he makes the following calcu-

Intion: "Mr. Tyler placed his opposition to Blair & Rives on the ground of wrong and persecution, and on that of the accessity of union in the party. We think this argument of the necessaty of con-cilitation pecullarly strong. Judging from the late elections, the Whig vote, in all human prob. ability, will prevail in the following States at the coming Presidential election, even with the most stremuous exertions of the united Democratic par-Ay to prevent it, viz: It to prevent it, viz:

Electing certain,

Electing certain, 65 The battle ground must then be in the States of Ganacelcut, New York, Penneylvanis, Louisi-ans, New Jorzey, Indiana, and Mississippi-97 siectorial votes in all. One hundred and thirty-eight rotes, are necessary to an induction. The Whigs having one hundred and ton, have to strug-gis for twenty screen electors. The Democratic condidate listing sixty five votes, has to struggle to obtain sowniy, five votes. This very state-ment of the case is sufficient to cause any Kopab-liens appeared to Mr. Clay and his policy to field constant, as to the result. Such 1s, benefit, is the fact, and his unwise to attempt to state.
