UV B. PALMER, Esq., No. 59 Pine street, be low Third. Philadelphia, is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the " Herald & Expositor," and give receipts for the same. Our thanks are tendered to Hon. HENRY FRICK and Hon. JAMES BLACK, of the U.S. House of Representatives, for valuable public documents.

Temperance Convention.

The County Temperance Convention assem bles_to-day_at-10_o'clock, A.M. in the Court House, and a public meeting has been also announce ed for the evening in the First Presbyterian Church, where we are informed some good speaking may be expected.

The 'Volunteer' sneers at the size of the Whig meeting held last week, and says it " presented a beggarly account of empty boxes." The meeting was held on one of the stormiest evenings we have had this season, and there was no attempt made to rally our friends whatever; but with all this we venture to assert that it was not much smaller than the last Buchanan meeting, and twice as large as any meeting that could be possibly gathered together in this county of friends of Van Buren-whom the Volunteer bes itatingly brings upon the carpet in his last!

Mr. Rives' Letter.

Let the great length of Senator Rives' letter deter no one from giving it a careful reading, as ' it contains facts and principles connected with the coming Presidential campaign that should be familiar to all. We would especially invite our strange determination, nor for the sudden and demogratic brethren to give it an attentive perusal,

From Harrisburg.

The public business seems to be quite at. stand in Harrisburg. The State Printer question absorbs the whole interest of our legislators, and keeps up a continual squabbling between the Excentive and the Legislature. The members say plya, to Miss MARGARET GOULD, of this place. they cannot go to work because the Governor has not transmitted the reports of the different · departments of Government. The Governor replies that his duty is to furnish these to the . State Printer, and no such officer is yet an. pointed in his opinion. These reports the Governor has, however, made public through several of the Harrisburg papers, but not the "Union," tive head to day.

A resolution was offered in the House some days ago by Mr. Strauss, instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire into the expedience of so amending the Constitution as to call the Legislature together axly enery other year, by which from two to three hundred thousand dollars would be saved to the State every two years. On solute necessity of closing their accounts at once.—

Those having claims against me will present them second reading of this resolution, the years were 465 and nays 27. Mr. Eckels, of this county, voted in the affirmative and Mr. Heck in the negative On third reading the resolution was adopted, and Mr. Heck wisely concluded to give his vote in its favor. It would be no doubt a good reform, for if any State suffers from bad legislation it is ours. A long debate has also been had in the Heuse on a proposition of H. H. Laughlin and Jos. Mor rison, jr. to do the transcribing business of the House for $900 a session. After a day consumed in debate the proposition was rejected. The bill relating to Election districts which was vetoed by the Governor, was passiff into a law by the Constitutional majority. The investigation can be constitutional majority. The investigation can be constitutional majority. constitutional majority. The investigating committee have not so far shed much light upon the charges made against the Printers in the Governor's Mossage.

Nominations and Rejections!

We learn from the Washington papers that the same time will be offered one new one horse on Tuesday evening the U. S. Senate, in Executive session, confirmed the nominations of a number of marshals and district attorneys, and also the entire list of appointments and promotions in the Army, submitted by the President. Among the confirmations is that of Gen. George M. Keim, as Marchal of the Eastern District of Pennsyl-

On Monday the Senate rejected, by a vote said to be 34 to 8, the nomination of David Henshaw, of Mass, as Secretary of the Navy.

On Wednesday last, the Senate rejected the President's nomination of Isaac Hill, of New Hampshire, to be Chief of the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing for the Navy.

On the same day, Mr. Wise, of Va. was renominated to the Senate by the President as Minister to France. Several other Executive numinations were also sent in. The military committee of the Senate has ununimously reported against the confirmation of James M. Porter, and his rejection by the Senate is daily expected. Mr. Spencer's nomination it is also thought will be rejected.

TIt is stated in the Bedford (Pa.) Enquirer, that the friends of the late Charles Ogle, formerly a member of Congress from that district, have brought a suit against the editor of the Bedfora Gazette, for the publication of the maligious libel, in which he was charged with retracting on his death bed, what he had said of the gold spoons and other extravagances of Nan Buren.

The Canal Commissioners have appointed Edward F. Gav, Esq., to be Superintendent of Motive Power, and Supervisor of Repairs, on the Philadelphia and Columbia Railroad, to take ef-planations were made, and existing differences arranged. So now look out for a hold fight against Van Buren.

Shunk and Mublenberg. The Harrisburg Union says that of the delegates thus far appointed, 38 are for Mulenberg and 32 for Shunk. The remainder are instructed for the other candidates, or not instructed at all.

Mr. Sprague of Rhode Island has resigned his seat in the U.S. Senate. It is thought Mr. Simmons of the same State will plac resign-Their places will be filled by Whigs.

Tennessee. At a recent meeting of the Whig members of the Tennessee Legislature, the Hon. John Bell AME to the premises of the subscriber, in Dick-and Gustavus A. Henry were nominated as can-didates for Presidential Electors for the State, and didates for Presidential Electors for the State, and W. Martin and L. P. A Hard Case.

"A strange scene was enacted before Judge Parons, in Philadelphia, on Friday last. It appears that a young couple (whose names are not given) when the wife went home to see her parents. As she did not return, the husband wont after her, but was informed by the parents that she did not wish to go with him, and that he could not be permitted to see her. Thinking that she was restrained by them, the husband got out a writ of below the state of the state abeas corpus. The parents appeared, with their daughter, and in answer to the question by the court, whether she was willing to go back and court, whether she was willing to go back and live with her husband, she returned a decided Craekers and Vinegar, Tobacco and Cigars, Corn negative, but would assign no reason for her negative, but would assign no reason for her unaccountable dislike which she had evidently taken to him. The writ was dismissed, the court having no authority in the matter.
