1 Let none of our readers omit a careful perusal of Mr. Stewart's speech under our Congressional head.

O'Hon. T. M. T. McKennan is now much talked of as the Pennsylvania candidate for the Vice Presidency.

Campbell's Foreign Semi-Monthly Maga zine for January 16, has been received and is replete with good roading. It is embellished with a mezzotint likeness of Thomas Carlyle.

The Clay Minstrel!

"The Clay Minstrel," or National Songster-t which is prefixed a Sketch of the Life, Public Services, and Character of Henry Clay, by John S. Littell, President of the Clay Club of Germantown, has just been published. This is one of the best works of its class that we have yet met with. The songs are excellent, and the life well written and admirably suited for popular perusal. The work is also handsomely bound, and is neat and creditable in all its arrangements. We commend st heartily. The "book with the yaller kiver" which every Whig found it necessary to have in 1840 will be quite as requisite in 1844.

Tille Clay Minstrel, and the Clay Almanac for 1844, may be had at Mr. Hunter's Book store, East High street, next door to Mr. Brown's hotel.

County Temperance Convention. The proceedings of the County Temperance Convention which mot in this borough, on Wednesday last, will be found in today's paper. The Convention was well attended by delegates from nearly every Society in the county, and comprised a large number of gentlemen of the highest charprincipal proposition brought before the Convention, being the question as to the necessity of further legislation, was thoroughly discussed in all yet lead to difficulties. its aspects and with decided ability. The numbers and spirit of the Convention-afforded gratifying evidence of the continued and deep interest | exclude N. Sargent, Esq., the "Oliver Oldschool" which is felt in the progress of the cause of Tem. of the United States Gazette, from a Reporter's (perance in this county.

Washingtonian Revival! The cause of Temperatice which has beer in a very languishing condition in our borough for some time, has had a new and lively impulse given to it within the last week. About forty named, we understand, have been added to the joining any Society. These thappy results have been achieved mainly through the efforts of Mr. Cuntingham, a travelling Lecturer, who arrived in Jown on Weenesdey flast, and lectural several evenings, accompanying his addresses with the exhibition of Dr. Sewall's plates representing the dangerous offects produced upon the stomach, by drinking ardent spirits. The wivid pictures pronented by these truthful representations seldom fail to alarm those whose sensibilities have be come so blunted that the most cloquent appeals of persuasion are entirely lost upon them.

This new movement, combined with the efforts of the new Beneficial Temperance Society, which tity of delegates to the National Convention. is weekly receiving large accessions to its adil of members, we trust will keep the good canno go ing onward and onward until Temperance shall striumph over all obstacles-until poverty and crime, sorrow and suffering-for Intemperance is the prolific cause of all these-shall be forever banished from our community, and dappiness and prosperity prevail throughout its berders.

Our State Legislature

ATOur readers, are no doubt heartily fired of hearing it said that the State Printer question is it is even to. We cannot find that any other publie business has been touched. If any of their constituents should ask either Mr. Heck or Mr. Eckels from this county what they and their feldow members had passed in the Legislature, we doubt exceedingly whether they could duswer in any other terms than did an English member of Parliament once to a similar interrogation addressed to him by his Sovreign. "Passed! we have passed one month of time, may it please your Majesty !" said the honest member. - But to do The inspections this week comprise the following them full justice, we understand Messrs. Heck and Eckels did lend their votes to pass a resolu- and 44 half bbls.; City Mills, 2,381 bbls., and 385 'tion for the repeal of the clause in the Retrenchment Bill of last session, which allows members but ten dollars worth of statiohery ; but their votes were not sufficient and this athall but if roper reform still oxists in the bill. We also understand that both of them voted against a resolution for fixing the opening of the morning session of the House at nine o'clock, one hour earlier than before.

.The Investigating Committee in the print. ing question were expected to make a report today. The principal facts clicited by this Committoo are, that Mr. McKinley, (the State Printer) notes to the amount of $5,500-$3,000 of which was to be paid to McCurdy of the Intelligencer, and $2,500 to Fenn, of the Telegraph, in the event of McKinley's election as State Printer ... for which they were to influence the Whige in his favor! Mr. McCordy also testified that he had been offored $1500 on the other side. There is no doubt that Covernor Porter made a strong attempt to Meal in barrels at $2 124, and Pennsylvania at elect his man (Dimock,) but the editors of the Union were more successful. The State Printer .. has an address in his last paper, in which he acthe desperate protext of foiling the enemy (Porter) at his own game-routing him by the use of his own weapons and dealing out the lex talionis !" Such is the state of things in Harrisburg.

Union and Harmony!

The Gettysberg 'Star," of Saturday last, comes to us with the proceedings of a very large and enthusiastic Antimasonic and Whig meeting. held in that county on Tuesday a week. The proceedings are of the most spirited and harmonious character, and furnish evidence that the Whigs and Antimasons of the 'Young Guard' will be found shoulder to shoulder doing their de. ty and their whole duty in the coming contest, in Javor of Henry Clay! A. R. Storenson, Esq., was appointed delegate to the 4th of March State Convention, without instructions. The enthusiasm manifested upon this occasion leaves no proom to doubt that Adams county will fully nodeem her promise to give one 1000 majority !

CA practice has spring up within a week past, among some brainless persons, oither in or out of the Legislature at Harrisburg, of writing letters for publication in the Philadelphia penny papers containing accounts of riots, fires, atreet alternations, &c., which the writers state had occurred in that borough, all of which are described in such glowing terms, as to excite the utmost consternation at a distance. One of those writers gave intelligence in a letter to the Philadelphia of the Washington Hotel by fire, with the loss of one life and the injury of several individuals. The weather for some days has been playing very fickle to the numerous young ladies and gentlemen who about this time have their most joy ous anticipations associated with sleighing. Sev. eral times within a week past has expectation been on tip-toe for a fall or snow, and as often been disappointed. The weather at this time, however, looks decidedly snowy in its indications and will probably soon gratify to their heart's content all who are looking forward to the enjoyment of sleighing.

Confident that you will not set down aught in me lice, nor aught extenuate, through fear or favor, in subscribe myself on behalf of many of your subscribe.

We had not intended interfering in this matter because nothing is more unpleasant to us than to give publicity to such occurrences, and because we were not present during the progress of the trial referred to, and can only give the facts as reported to us by others. The as the affair has been introduced to the public notice by the party most interested, and become the subject of newspaper discussion, we do not consider ourself at liberty to refuse compliance with the request of our very respectable correspon ent, and will therefore give a plain statement of the facts alone as we have obtained them from an undoubted and disinterested source. We shall enleavor to do sous faithfully as possible, believing, as our correspondent alleges, that neither the statenent in the 'Statesman' or that in the 'Voluntee re interesty correct—the one not stating the case i full, and the other not giving it impartially, and makng, besides, at least one erroneous statement.

The trial which has given rise to this difficulty be ween the Court and the Editor of the Statesman. who is a member of the bar, was an action for the recovery of money lost in gambling, in which Mr. P. F. Ege was defendant. The evidence in the ase disclosed the fact that Mr. Ege had last winter established in his office a Faro bank, which had been requented occasionally by several members of th bar, amongst many other visiters, and at which gainbling operations had been quite extensively car ried on. It also appeared that Mr. E. kept at this time a barrel of whiskey in his office. It was encavored to be shown that this liquor was drugged B. Murray. for the purpose of producing temporary imbecility of the mental faculties of the adventurers in the game and thus render them easy victims. But or this very material point the statement of the Vol inteer' does injustice to Mr. E., as we understan from good authority that no proof was given to sho hat anything stronger than cinnamon was put in th iquor, and this only for the purpose of rendering o them by the 'Volunteer.' The 'Statesman's' version of the affair is given in the following paragraph from that paper of the 18th :

A response to this call was promptly and cheerfully given by every gentleman concerned, including the defendant, and such explanations and assurances tendered for the future as satisfied the Court. The Court gave no intimation of an intention to pursue the matter further, tuchanna, and believe there is none of importance. and it was hoped and scemed to be considered by all

Upon the opening of the Court on the following morning, we understand Mr. Ege rose and appar ently much to the surprise of the Court addressed i in reference to the proceedings of the evening before, It would not be proper to give a hearsay report of his emarks, as they must necessarily have a very important bearing in the decision of this question, which we liave no right to projudge. Suffice it to say, that in the reply of his Honor the remarks of Mr. E. were characterized as being in bold defiance of the Court and as derogatory to the character of the Court and Bar, and the Court therefore felt it to be a duty

These are in brief the correct particulars of the case and will give our readers the means of asertaining the particular cause which was alleged for ntering the rule of Court. We have given a plain statement without coloring and without comment, because we believe it would be manifestly injust to do so in a case the merits of which are yet to be ar-nod before the Court. This is a statement of the affair as it relates to the persons engaged. We have endeavored to give it no andae leaning to either side. A more important view of it would be in its relation to and bearing up on the character of our borough, but of this it would nothing avail to speak, and we shall therefore occu py no further space upon the subject.
