The 'Statesman' complains of our statement of the legal case in our last paper; as doing him injustice. If it did so it was altogether unintentional on our part. In giving a statement we desired to confine ourselves to a simple narration of serve that the resolutions of Mr. Cooper, recomthe facts that had transpired in Court, without es- | monding a sale of the Public Works and the dispousing the cause of either party; for most of tribution of the proceeds of the Public Lands, as our citizens seem to look upon the affair as a mere a means of ridding ourselves at one fell swoop of controversy between individuals. We certainly our enormous debt, are spoken of with almost uniwrote our article without a grain of personal feeling to move us, and only desired to comply briefly but as correctly as possible with the request of our correspondent, and have done with the mat-

If we liave done palpable injustice there shall be no hesitation in making all just amends. We States Gazette, in one of his late letters, speaking find on referring to the 'Statesman's' own version of the affair as given in his last paper, that the only material point in which it differs from that given by us is with regard to certain evidence offered by the defendent. The 'Statesman' says :---"It was shown by evidence in the case that the game of Faro at which the plaintiff lost his money was started at the frequent solicitation of S. D. Adair and others, the defendant having several times before refused to enter into the game.-The evidence showed the game to have been fairly and honestly conducted, and that plaintiff hadboasted of having beaten the Fare bank out of a considerable amount." . This, with the proof that defendant, and we should certainly have included | Sevier, of Arkansas. it in our statement had we been present in Court and known these facts to have been proved. It is due also to state that the rule of Court is based upon the evidence in the case together with the declarations made in court by the defendant.

testimony taken, without comment, or without third teller is Mr. Kissim. giving an opinion as to whether the State Printer was legally elected or not. It seems to be decided, however, that the Legislature will not canfirm that election, but that a law will be passed on limits for debt! This accounts for those bitgiving the printing to the lowest hidder. The ter surcasms in Martin Chuzzlewit against the printers seem to be in extremely bad odor with almighty dollar." the present Legislature, a resolution having been passed instructing the Committee on Reform to bring in a bill authorizing suits to be brought that there are two persons in Monaghan townagainst all such public printers and binders as ship, in that county, in the prime of life, each of may have wrongfully received any sums of mo | whom are the fathers of twenty-four children?ney for public printing and binding. A resolution has been passed in the House providing for the payment of the semi-annual interest due on the 1st of February, by the issue of certificates of debt bearing interest. In Senate, a resolution has at length been passed providing each member with newspapers equal to the cost of two daily newspapers -the recolution was, how ever, finally amended to apply to future sessions The discussion of Mr. Cooper's resolutions was commenced on Thursday last, but after a speech by him and Mr. Boal, of Lycoming county, their consideration was postponed for the present.

Fire in Shippensburg! We understand that a fire broke out in Shippenshurg, yesterday morning, about three o'clock, in two dwellings, one occupied by Mr. John Butts and the other by Widow Laughton both of which were burned to the ground before the fire could be arrested. En rapidly did the fire do its work of destruction, that it is said the inmates of one of the houses escaped from it with difficulty. None of the furniture was saved from the flames, a loss that will full deverely upon the sufferers. We have not ascertained that there was any insurance on the property. A small amount of p money here laid out would have enabled the owners to have looked upon the smoking ruins with scarcely a feeling of regret. The advertisements of several of the best Insurance Companies will be found in our columns.

Rebellion.

Mr. Kinsloc, of the Shippensburg a Tru Democrat," takes ground in a strong article against Mr. Van Buren; and dendunces Mossrs Gorgas and McLanahan, Senators from this Dis trict, for signing the address lately put forth in his favor. The "democrate" of Shippensburg have determined to prevent the nomination of Mr. Van Buren if possible ! The Democrat says ! "In this borough we stave, one hundred and thirty-this democratic votes. Of this number forty or fifty have already, or are prepared to sign a protest against the notification of Van Buren, and setting forth that should be be the candidate, they will be forced to stay away from the election.

This evinces a determined spirit, but we fear the patriotic movement is confinenced too late to accomplish its object!

"Old Shunk" Triumpliant! We understand that at the 'democratic' County Convention, held yesterday in this borough; to A LL persons knowing themselves to be appoint delegates to the 4th of March Convention late firm of RHEEM & HALBERT, are requested Mr. Shunk triumphed by a vote of nearly two to their acc one! Col. Lewis Hyer, of Allen, and Reflert Me! Cune, of Southampton, both decided friends of Shonk, were elected delegates on the first ballot

Cumberland County Beef! The Messes Nones; of this borough, slaughtered on Friday last, a Bullock which liad been fed on one of their farms, which weighed 1050 points. One of his kidneys, we understand, reached the extraordi-mary weight of seventy founds! This that challenges the Country for a parallel.

U.S. Senator, will resign his seat before long—the resignation to take affect on the first day of Marchunext.

ALL those intlebted to the subscriber, will please call and pay off accounts on or before the 20th inst, and sare costs; and oblige yours. February 7, 1844.

The Supreme Court. The Washington correspondent of the U. of the sittings of this high tribunal, very justly says; "It is refreshing to pass out of that political maelstrom-that tempestuous, windy, beliowy ocean, the House of Representatives-into the still-life scenes of the Supreme Court, where mind grapples with mind, though with all the high courtesy which formerly distinguished the contests of gallant knights in the presence of the fair
