

E. BEATTY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

CARLISLE. PA.

Wednesday, February 14, 1844.

TOR PRESIDENT

HENRY CLAY, Stablect to the decision of a National Conventio

DEMOCRATIC WHIG PRINCIPLES. SPECIALLY "FOR THE PUBLIC EYE."

OUR CREED.

- 1. A sound National Currency, regulated by the will and authority of the Nation. 2. An adequate Revenue, with fair Protection to
- American Industry.
 3. Just restraints on the Executive power, em-
- bracing a further restriction on the exercise of the Voto.

 4. A faithful administration of the public domain,
- with an equitable distribution of the proceeds of sules of a among all the States. 5. An honest and economical administration of the General Government, leaving public officers perfect freedom of thought and of the right of
- suffrage; but with suitable restraints against improper interference in elections.

 6. An amendment to the Constitution, limiting the incumbent of the Presidential office to
- These objects attained, I think that we should he Government .- HENRY CLAY.

DEMOCRATIC HARRISON STATE CONVENTION.

The members of the Democratic Harrison party consistently buttled for "the Supremacy of the Laws," who are opposed to all mysteries, whether of the Government or otherwise, which are inaccessible to the public eye—those who are op-posed to favored classes and monopolics either of office or power-those who are tired of experiments upon the Commerce, Manufactures and Corrency of the country, and all others who are convinced of the necessity of so reforming the abuses of the State and National Governments as to secure their prompt, faithful, economical and congress, setting the wrongs and grievances of the ability to the people, on the part, of those by whom they are administered, are requested by the State Central Committee of the Democratic Harwing the wrongs and grievances of the state of action to the people of the people, on the part, of those by whom they are administered, are requested by the State Central Committee of the Democratic Harwing the wrongs and grievances of the following article in relation to Gen. Markle's services that the improvement in business and the vices in the last war. It is these services that his friends think render him peculiarly deserving the country, and especially in the great staple of the grateful remembrance of the people whom the rison party, to meet in their several Counties and Districts, and in conformity with former usages, to elect Delegates in proportion to the number of Senators and Representatives in the State Legis-Stature from such Counties and Districts, a to STATE CONVENTION, to be held at Harrisburg, on MONDAY, the 4th day of MARCH next, at 12 O'clock M. to nominate a snitable candidate for Governor, to be supported by the friends of good order at the next General Election, and to do such other nets and things as may be deemed necessary. The several County Committees will be careful to give the proper notices in their respective

CEORGE FORD. Lancaster. HARMER DENNY, Alleghony. JOHN TAGGART, Northumberland, WILLIAM F. HUGHES, Huntingdon, JOHN TAGGART, Northumberland, WILLIAM F. HUGHES, Phila. co. JOHN S. RICHARDS, Berks. JACOB EYGANT, Northamptor

Two large spots on the Sun are said to be visible now with a small glass. - the purpose of attemping the moral and religious improvement of the Gipsies.

LTMr. Spencer, it appears, got twenty votes for Judge of the Supreme Court, among which were five whig votes. There were twenty six . CJ General Jackson is described by a correspondent of the Plebian, writing from the Hermitage, on the 15th ult., as being in an exceedingly precarious state of health.

A new paper, called "The Old Warrior." has been started at Harrisburg, by J. W. Colfroth, which advocates the nomination of Gen. Markle | State, the word "Virtue" being imperiect. Color for Governor. The Westmoreland Intelligencer, of paper, rose white. Pittsburgh Gazette, Pittsburgh American, Spirit of the Age, Beaver Argus, Washington Reporter. and Somerset Herald, have all declared for the General, and a number of other papers have notice | bill, Rawden, Wright & Hatch, Engravers. ed him favorably.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Girard Bank was held at Philadelphia on the 6th. 'The debt of the Bank, according to the statement of the assignce, amount to $338,000. To meet this they hold stock of the Stonington Rail Road, nearly sufficient to pay that amount. The amount of debts, &c., due the Bank is upwards of $1,000,. '600. What it is worth cannot now be ascertained. Vicksburg and Norristown Railroad stock, form two pretty heavy items. The Bank, it is conceded, has forfeited its charter. Some of the stockholders arged an application to the Legislature for a re-charter.

The Courier of Bangor (Maine,) says, that Mr. Casey, of that neighborhood, was thrown in. orphan children." The National Intelligencer to a magnetic sleep by Dr. Deare on the 27th alt. and whilst in this state, his log, which from infancy had been deformed, and had caused him much pain and inconvenience, was amputated .had experienced, was like that of some one prick. ter the trusts; and that the plan of education pro-

Tt is said that about 2,000 persons in Mis. alleged inconsistency with religious liberty and souri are making proparations to emigrate to Or- the spirit of toleration." egon Territory next spring. 'A Western member of Congress, in a debate upon "Oregon, said there were already 20,000 emigrants from the United States in the Territory.

Amos Abbott, the Whig candidate for Congress in the 3d District of Mussachusetts, has at last been elected by a clear majority of 64 votes. The Mussachusetts delegation in Congress is now Wcomplete - 8 Whige and 2 Locofocos.

A Loudon paper says, that a fire new burning on the hearth of Mr. Stradling, of Somerset was kindled in 1762, by one of his ancestors, and has never been suffered to go out.

Tho U. S. Senate, during the Executive session, on Thursday, ratified the convention with France for the reciprocat surrender of fugitive

37 Large delegations to the Young Men's Con vention of Ratification to be held in Bultimore

Henry Clay-I did and I did Not. "I voted for the Tatiffs of 1816, '24 and '32." are Mr. Clay's letter to Gen. Bledsoe, under date

See Mr. Clay's letter to Mr. Merriwethor, of Georgia, under date of Oct. 24, 1843.

the Speaker of the House in 1816 and 1824, test lies in the enthusiastic rivalry of the friends devoted to the advancement of those great interests; and in the very letter last above quoted, to ances indicate the choice will be made. The ten-Mr. Merriwether, says, when reminded that his acity with which Gen. Kvin's friends cling to

"You are right so far as the Record is concerned, that I did not vote for the Tariff's of 1816 and 24, but I supported their principles, and have always admitted that I was in favor of them."

Had this paragraph been suffered to appear with the above, it would have explained an apparent contradiction in Mr. Clay's two letters, butas that would have also destroyed the little political capital they hoped to raise, it was of course

A Place with no Newspaper! TI will be recollected that Hon. Henry A. Visc once boasted in Congress that there was no ther of the remaining candidates. the Baltimore Patriot, in a late letter, furnishes the following admirable commentary on this dec-

"Hast ever been, gentle reader of newspapers, in Account county, Virginia? If you had been there one day in the year 1810, you would have seen how good it is to have no newspaper to anounce coming events.

Mr. Wise was expected to speak in a taveruporch in Drumwond Town, and Whigs and Locos were notified of it by a man riding through the town on horseback, who lifted up his voice, and ames in the achievement of that glorious political victory in 1840, the result of which was the election of that pure, venerated and much lamented patriot General William Henry Alwise is fur to be delivered of a speech this after poon at 4 o'clock, right into mista William. "What a blessing to have no newspapers!— What a saving of ink and paper! Down with the editors—they earry an ink-horn about them, and they write about nouns and verbs."

A bid for the Mormons!

The Nauvoo Times and Seasons, of a late date, contains a correspondence between Joe Chief Magistracy T'

In roply, Mr. Calhoun assures Joe, that should he be elected President, he " would-strive to administer the government according to the constitution and laws of the Union; and as they make no distinction between citizens of different religious creeds, I should make none."

A SIY THE!

A Whig county Convention recently held in Illinois, passed the following resolution: Resolved, That we approve of General Jack son's declaration, contained in his veto message of 1832, that a "National Bank is convenient to e government and useful to the people, and might e so constituted as to obviate constitutional ob-

The Public Works of Michigan. the sale of the public works of tha purpose of liquidating her debt.

Mechanics' Bank of the City and County of Philadelphia.—5's, spurious. Vignette, a female with child in her arms. On right end a female nd book; on left end Washington. Does not in the least resemble the true notes. In the spurious the title of the Bank is the "Mechanics' Bank," omitting the "city and county of Philadelphia." Monongahela Bank, Brownsville, Pa,-2's, Rc lief issue. Engraving of the title of the Bank very heavy and blurred. May be detected by the motto at the bottom of the coat of arms of the

Mechanics' Bank, Baltimore, Md.—5's, spuridence, "pledged their lives, their fortunes, and dence, "pledged their lives, their fortunes, and dence here." Mechanics' Bank, Baltimore, Md .- 5's, spuriend, steamboat, &c. On left denomination of the

Doylestown Bank, Doylestown, Pa .- 5's, spurious. Vigneite, femule with a child, reapers, &c. On right end, female with book; and on left, Washington in a sitting posture.

10's, spurious. Vignette, Declaration of Inlependence. On right end, Pat Lyon at his forge, on left end, sailor holding the American flag.

The Girard Will Case is now pending in argument before the Supreme Court of the United States at Washington. This suit is brought by the heirs at law of the late Stephen Girard to recover back from the city of Philadelphia the sum of two millions of dollars, bequeathed to that corporation for the purpose of building and endowing a College "for the education of poor white male" states that the objections to the legacy are "that the request is void by reason of the uncertainty in the description of those who are to enjoy its benefits; that the corporation of Philadelphia has When he awoke, he stated the only sensation he no authority to receive such a grant and adminisposed is repugnant to the laws of Pennsylvania, on account of its anti-Christian tendency and its > FASSETT.—The Grand July have found a true bill ugainst young Fassett, for " an assault and attempt to kill" Tutor Dwight of Yale College. Mr. D., it will be remembered, died of the wounds inflicted on him. Fassett will be tried at New Haven this week.

The Reading Gazette says, that from a full tatement made by the officers of the Berks County Bank before the Investigating Committee of the Legislature, it appears that the over issues were made upon the strength of Attorney General Johnson's opinions, and without any fraud, or and a personal contest for life or death, was waged personal benefit to the officers of the Bank. The for awhile between them, until victory sided with Gazette adds that "the inference is general that "the braye Markle, and the savage rolled a lifeless the Commonwealth must redeem these issues."

Col./Johnson.

This gentleman has addressed a letter to the Editor of the Globe, "dofining his position" with regard to the Providential nomination. He says: It at once aroused and cheered the whole country and the says:

"" Should it be the pleasure of the Convention side, and under its influence the North. Western

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

The selection of a Whig Candidate for scoverer, pompously ask how the paragraphs of Hon. Geo W. Toland are pushing his claims an be reconciled with each other, or openly with an energy that attests their strong attachcharge Mr. Clay with uttering a falsehood. The ment to a gentleman who well deserves the conexplanation however is easy. Mr. Clay was fidence reposed in him. But the heat of the conand of course did not vote on the final passage of of Gen. Irvin, of Centre, and the friends of Gen. nittee, where his elequence and votes were both ly evinces a determination to battle to the last, in rally under with the certainty of victory!! their favor. And from one of these two, appearname does not appear on the list of Yeas for those him as the strong man, is only equalled by the unewspaper in his district! A correspondent of Being undecided, in preserence, therefore, as to either of the candidates now in the field, we car only wait patiently until the nomination come from the body authorized to settle the matter, an then give to the nominee a hearty, warm and cordial support. In the meantime we think it due to our readers to lay before them all the information necessary to make them acquainted with the movements of those who are agitating and discussing the subject. The delegates of this coun. ty are not instructed in favor of either of the can. didates, and would no doubt like to have the pub. lie mind indicated as to the choice of those whom they represent. It is due to them, however, to say that the delegates from this county, Messrs. Kennedy and Brindle, are gentlemen in whose judgment and attachment to the Whig party, the Whigs of this county have the utmost confidence and there is not the least doubt they will act it the State Convention as the best interests of the Whig party require. With these views, and having given heretofore several articles in favor of Gen. Irvin, we trans Smith and John C. Calhoun. The Prophet, after fer to our columns from a Harrisburg paper, the ple, should fortune favor your ascension to the gallant deeds of the lamented Harmison and his official effects of the present Tariff, and requestimpatriots have given to enjoy the blessings of > GENERAL JOSEPH MARKLE. A slight glance at his glorious history will exthit this so clear to all, that no one after knowing it, can hesitate for a moment to unite with us pronouncing him by, far, the "strongest MAN" the State, of any and all parties. In reviewing his history, we must be excused, if our feelings hanld comel us into a warmer expression of fee ings of gratitude than may comport with the character of a cool politician, deliberately calculating chances and prospects. But, we cannot help it, we have for him feelings of gratitude which we cannot suppress—feelings in which we believe a great inajority of the people of Pennsylvania will participate with us, when they understand the for us all, in the second War of Independence.

At one of the earliest and most gloomy periods of the War, subsequently to Hull's surrender, and when the people of the frontier were trembling for their families, in fear of the unobstructed rav-The Committee of Ways and Means in the Michigan House of Representatives, submitted a report on the 24th ult., accompanied by a bill for d to this call, were the friends and neighbors of the gallant Markle, in Westmoreland. The hardy young farmers of his vicinity, immediately gailiered around him, organized a strong troop of cayalry, and made him their Com orable and gratifying proof of their confidence in his ability and patriotism.

Their march to join the North Western Army vas soon commenced. But when they arrived at Pittsburgh, such were the embarrassments and difficulties of the Government, that no funds, no supplies of provisions or necessary equipments were ready for them, nor could any be had.

What was to be done? Did the gallant Mar-

-did he faiter ? No !-Having put his hand to the work, he was not the man to turn back, when his country's cause and sufferings pointed hun onward! In a spirit of patriotism which showed him to be a worthy successor to those men who, in placing their signatures to the Declaration of Indepen fered to mortgage his farm for three thousand dol lars to obtain the necessary supplies and equip ents, to enable him to continue his march !! Such generous devotion to his country was not, movever, met in a corresponding spirit of patriot-sm by those to whom he applied-and he was But still he was not discouraged. Angry, yet determined, he threw himself upon his horse, and leaving his troops in the city, he started for home Night and day, over a miserable road and through a then almost wilderness, he rode un tiringly, until he reached his own neighborhood Summoning his friends and the people for miles around—with the speed of the Fiory Cross among ne hills of Clan Alpine-he laid before them the state of the case, and pledged them his farm for security for re-payment, he gathered from each one of them his little heard of disposable coin, until the required amount was obtained, and his saddle-bugs were full, when he immediately startd back again, riding all the time with the speed of a courier, and a power of endurance of fatigue which, extraordinary, even at that time, is won-derful to us at this day! Soon his command was on its march again, and a comparatively short time, he was enabled to oin them to another division of troops. They saw early service. The desperate battle and glorious victory of the Mississinewa Towns, on the Wabash, afforded the division of volunteers o which he was attached, the high honor of h ing the first to roll back the tide of war upon the enciny, and to rouse the drooping spirits of the people of the frontier.

It commenced about day light on the 18th of The troops were suddenly attacked by a large body of several hundred Indian warriors, and a desperate contest ensued. For more than an hour December, 1813. the roar of musketry—the sharp crack of the rifles—the clang of steel—the hideous yells of the savage—and the excited hurrans of the Americans warge—and the vactor intermission. The battle word most fiercely on the right wing, where warkle was with his command. He and his men were in the thickest of the fight. His first Lientenant Waltz, was shot down by his side. He himself was in deadly peril for awhile, from which he was rescued by his own bravery and skill. He was singled out and attacked by a huge Indian, corse on the earth?

Finally, the Indians, after having lost many of their people, broke, and fled before the impetu ous charge of cavalry, led on by Markle and others, and the Americans remained masters of the

The effect of this victory was most magical. next May, are being appointed in every section of the Union.

Should it beight pleasure of the Convention side, and under its influence the North Western in the Union.

This now thought by the knowing ones that if Mr. Yan Buren is lucky, he may possibly run pleasure; and am willing to take my possibly run pleasure; and am willing to take my possibly of the pleasure of the public and the public in the barter and those who that an alread of Lames G. Birney, the Abolition candi-

It is hardly necessary to say that the name of Markle was conspicuous among these.

After this we find him at Fort Meigs, undergo See McClay's letter to Gen. Bledsoe, under date of July 28, 1843.

"You are right, so far as the record is concerned, that I did not vote for the Tariffs [of 1816 or 1824." See Mr. Clay's letter to Mr. Merriweth. pinion from many township and county meetings and on the side of Markie, enthusiastic, which in favor of particular candidates. The claims of r, of Georgia, under date of Oct. 24, 1843.

The above is going the rounds of the loce foco ress, most of whom, following in the wake of its in Berks, Mercer and other counties. The friends in Berks, Mercer and other counties. Douth, which each of them had repeatedly braved in company, alone could separate them.

Thus very briefly have we sketched the services of him who is now only a peaceful, and hard-fisted Farmer in Westmoreland County, That he is the strongest man,—the most available—is plainly evident—and it would be the height of poing only on questions where there is a tie,) but he was their ardent and effective supporter in comwas their ardent and effective supporter in comtheir choice with a spirit and energy which plaintheir choice with a spirit and energy which plain-

Twenty-Eighth Congress. GENERAL TICKET MEMBERS .- On Tuesday last, tiring pertinacity with which Gen. Markle's Mr. Dromgoole, of Virginia, moved the discharge friends urge his peculiar claims to that title. Both of the Committee to whom had been referred the of them are known to possess the requisite qual-ifications for the office, and to be citizens of that Congress who had been elected by General Tick high character which furnishes the best evidence et, with a view to bring it before the House for a that they will discharge its duties with integrity. It decision. Considerable opposition was made to the beard of Managers; to superintend the general labels of the Board of Managers; to superintend the general labels. For our own part having early indicate a superintend the general concerns of the superintend the general concerns of the superintend the general labels. vailable. For our own part having early indicat. course of the "majority" in such matters. Varied our preference for Hon. T. M. T. McKennan, ous motions were made, and a scene of indescrias the Whig Candidate for Governor, and being bable confusion followed for an hour. Often half disappointed in our hopes by his peremptory refu- a dozen numbers; were upon the floor at once, ad-

The Reports of the Committee on Elections, majority and minority, were then read. The major. ity Report declaring that the law of the last Con. gress was unconstitutional, and that the members from New Hampshire, Georgia, Missouri and Mississippi were as well entitled to their seats as any others; and the minority Report declaring that the members had not been duly elected, and that the Speaker inform the Executive of the four States, that there were no members here from the four States.

Mr. Elmer, chairman of the majority committee, then opened the debate. He was followed by Messrs. Belser, Dillingham, Woodward, Brown, Collamer and others. The debate still continues.

The twenty-first Rule .- This matter oppears to he as far from being settled as it did a month ago. There is daily discussion upon it in the House of Representatives-much, too, of exciting charac-

Joint resolutions from the General Assembly of Vermont have been forwarded to Congress, setting ing their Representatives to resist, to the utmost, its repeal.

Likewise, from Massachusetts, setting forth, that under no circumstances can the people of that State rogard the proposed annexation of Texaction, in any other light than as dangerous to the as, in any other light than as dangerous to the peace and prosperity of the Union, and the enjoyment of those blessings which it is the object of a free government to secure.

On Wednesday, in Senate, Mr. Berrien preented Resolutions adopted by the Massachusetts Legislature, proposing an amendment of the Constitution to prevent a representation of three-fifths of the Slaves. The Resolutions from Georgia declare that the proposed amendment would be a gross violation of the compromises of the Con-

WA bill has been introduced in the House of Representatives, to provide for the holding of elections for Presidential electors on the same day throughout the Union. We think the plan a good

Pe insylvanta Legislature.

The Bill allotting the public printing to the lowest bidder, passed committee of the whole in the House of Representatives by a vote of about two to one! on Wednesday.

SOFA bill is before the Legislature for a new County, out of parts of Washington, Alicgheny, Armstrong and Westmoreland, to be called Carroll. It finally passed the House on Thursday, by vote of 69 to 17.

pr On Monday last in the House of Representatives of this State, Mr. Breekenridge, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a bill to a. holish Capital Punishment.

The following bill has been reported in the Senate, by Mr. Craig of Washington county, from the ley, and the Board ordered that the President Committee on Vice and Immorality:

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c.—That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for the qualified citizens of the several wards, disthe qualified citizens of the several wards, districts, and townships, in this Commonwealth, to meet in every year at the time and place of holding the election for Constables of such ward, district or the part than and then and the constables of such ward, district or the part than and the constables of such ward, district or township, and then and there determine by ballot, as heroinafter provided, whether there shall be any licensed Inns or Taverns, within the limits of said ward, district or township.

Section 2. That every qualified citizen may de-liver to the Judges of said election, a printed or written ticket, marked on the outside "Inns," and on the inside "For License." or "Against License" as the case may be, and the votes thus given shall be carefully counted by the judges of suid-election, and a certificate thereof stating the number of votes for and against a license, shall be made out and signed by said Judges, and delivered to the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sossions, for the county in which said ward, district, or township is situated; and the said Clerk shall file the said certificate in his office, and furnish the Court at the next session thereafter, with an abstract of said certificates, showing the results of said elections, for which service he shall receive one dollar from the county treasury. And if there shall be a majority of votes in any ward, district, or township, in tavor of a license, the Court may grant license for Inns or Taverns, within the limits of any such ward, district or township, us formerly. But if a majority of votes are against a license, the Court shall not grant a license for any Inn or Tavern, within said ward, district or township, for one year hereafter, nor until it shall be determined by voto in favor of a license as

Section 3. That so much of any law as is hereby altered or supplied, be and the same is hereby are riches and all they can procure if the possesso is deprived of health-how much harder too is the bitter lot of the poor, when sickness is added to poverty. Why, therefore, will either of these classes trifle with that inestimable blessing -health? It is well known that the greater portion of all the complaints that prevail in this climate owe their origin to Colds, and it is almost equally well known, the most sure as well as agreeable cure for Colds, and and their attendant miseries, is to be found in Pease's sales 1000, barrels Superfine Flour were effected and their attendant miseries, is to be found in Pease's sales 1000, barrels Superfine Flour were effected at $4.50 per bil. On Wednesday, the market the following persons of these assections, read the fully papers, and you will find Thousands larve certified that this popular medicine is the best known for the cure of Colds, Consumption, Whoopin-in-cough, Inducenza, Asthma, Catarrah, Bronchitis, From the venerable Ex-President Andrew Jackson, down to the last one that has been cured. President Tyler approves of it for Colds and Coughs. Mr. Houck of the State of New York, and the Hon. R. H.-Morris, also have added their testimonies. The whole clergy of the city of New York, brought up by an enddess array of all trades and professions, in the all certified to its curative power.

HEALTH! HEALTH!! HEALTH!!!-How useless

Sold at MYERS & HAYERSTICK'S Drug and Koney Store, North Hanover street, soler Agents for the last of the city of Now York is the Sole of th most sure as well as agreeable cure for Colds, and AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY MEETING.

The Board of Managers met in the County Hall Wednesday, the 7th January. There were preresidents; Geo. W. Sheaffer, Troasurer, and pointed Secretary. Christian Titzel, Jacob Zug, Robert Laird and George Brindle, Managers, besides a great numper of the members of the Society, who by the Constitution may be present at meetings of the Bourd.

The Committee appointed at the first meeting of the Society to revise the Constitution, now made oport of the same, which was carefully examined nd unanimously adopted as follows:

CONSTITUTION.

Article 1st. This Society shall be styled the Cumberland County Agricultural Society.
Article 2d. The object of this Society shall be the advancement of Agriculture in all its branches and the encouragement of Rural economy.

Article 3d. The officers of this Society, shall consist of a President, Seven Vice Presidents, Nine Managurs, a Recording Secretary, a Corres-ponding Secretary and a Treasurer, to continue in office one year; all officers to be elected by balat the annual meeting in October; by the members of the Society.

Article 4th. The duties of the President shall meetings; he may from time to time, make such communications as he may think proper. Article 5th. The duties of the Vice Presidents shall be to examine into and report to the Board o Managers, at any annual or special meeting the disappointed in our hopes by his peremptory relusul to accept the nomination, we find it difficult now to make up a positive opinion in favor of either of the remaining candidates.

Being undecided, in preference, therefore, as to

Being undecided, in preference, therefore, as to other matters as may promote the object of the Society.

Article 6th: The duties of the Recording Secretary shall be to attend all meetings of the Board of Managers to keep a list of all members, to superintend all publications ordered by the Society, to give public notice of all meetings and keep ty, to give public notice of an increase and a record of all the proceedings.

Article 7th. The duties of the Corresponding Secretary shall be to correspond with other Societies and individuals on all subjects of the Societies and individuals on all subjects of the suppointment of icty, and transmit notices of the appointment o Article 8th.—The duties of the Treasurer shall he to keep the money and property of the Society, to keep a regular and just account of all receipts and expenditures, to be exhibited at each annual neeting, and when called for; also, a list of the members; and when his term of office shall exire, to deliver the books, funds and property of he Sceiety to his successor.

Article 9th. The Society shall hold a regular annual meeting on the fourth Thursday of October, at such place as shall be fixed upon by the manimity. Board of Managers, when a public exhibition shall be held, unless otherwise ordered by the Article 10th, The President, Vice Presidents and Managers, with the Proasurer and Secreta-ries, shall constitute the Board of Managers, to decide upon all reports and experiments, or mo-dels of implements of agriculture; they shall ap-point the committees from all the members of the Society, provide and arrange suitable accommodations for all cattle shows, ploughing matches, or fairs; they shall adjudge and distribute all remiums of excellence directed to be awarded.

Article 11th. The Board of Managers shall Vice President shall preside, and so on in rotation; and in the absence of any officer, the Board may supply his place by a temporary appointment.
A quorum for business shall consist of not less than seven members. Any member of the Society may be present at any meeting of the Board of 'Article 12th. Any person may become a member of this Society who will sign this Constitu-tion and pay to the Treasurer the sum of one dollar annually; a member may resign at any time by signifying his intention to the Recording Secof signifying this intention to the Recording Sec-etary, and paying all arrearages to the Treasurer, Article 13th, The Board of Managers may elect ionorary members by a vote of two-thirds of the neimbers present.

Article 14th. The Board of Managers shall Article (410. The Board of Antager have power to make all by-laws, rules and regulations, as may be proper for the better regulation and government, and to promote the interests of Article 15th. This Constitution shall not be altered except at a regular annual meeting, and then only by a vote of two thirds of the members of the Society present: and of which amendment revious notice shall have been given by the Sec.

etary.
Article 16th, The members of the Society do hereby pledge themselves each to the other, that they will support the Society and use their in-fluence and opportunities to promote its design. Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed whose duty it shall be to make all neces sary arrangements for the first full meeting, exhiion and cattle show to be held near Carlisle on the 4th Thursday of October next; and that it be the duty of said Committee to fix the subjects of competition and the premium to be allowed to each, and that they make report to the next meeting of the Board on the 3d Saturday of May next.
Whereupon the President appointed Major Wm.
M. Henderson, David Sterrett and Thomas Bradhould be added to the committee, and that they should also report a set of by-laws for the gov-trainent of the Board and Society. Resolved, That in the organization of the

Cumberland County Agricultural Society, we anticipate important benefits to its members and the munity, and that the extent of its usefulnes ill be measured by the numbers who unite with t, and the carnestness and zeel with which they

Resolved, That it is the desire of the Society to nave united with them the name of every respec table man in the county, who is either engaged in the business or feels an interest in the improvenent of agriculture; and it is hereby made the duty of every member of the board to procure the signature of individuals agreeing to join the So-Adjourned, until the third Saturday in May next.

FREDERICK WATTS, President.

THE MARKERIS.

BALFIMORE, February 9, 1844. BEEF CATTLE.—The market day for gener sales has been changed from Monday to Thurs lay; and this week only about 500 head were offered, all of which were taken at 4 to $5, with some extra at $5.50 per 100 lbs. Hogs are without variation, but firmer, selling at $4.50 and Dressed, the supply of which is light, at the same

FLOUR.—In City Mills we have not a trans action to report; holders want $4 621 for standard brands. There have been moderate sales of Howard street from store, at $4 .50; and dealers are taking it at $4 371. There is no Susquehanna in GRAIN .- No Wheat of consequence arriving aticularly within the last two or three days, on on account of the snow; but good to prime red will command 95 to 98 ceats. No sales of Corn the store price 42 to 43 cents for white, and 44 to 45 for yellow. Outs are held at 29 to 35 cts. PHILADELPHIA, February 9, 1844.

FLOUR .- Just after our last report was made,

COLONIZATION MEETING.

At a meeting of a number of gentlemen, o Wednesday last, in the Session Room of the 2nd sent Frederick Watts, Esq. President; An. Presbyterian Church, called to consider the prolrew Frazier, Skiles Woodburn, David Sterrett, priety of re-organizing the Colonization Society Christian Stayman, George H. Bucher, Thomas of Carlisle: On motion, President J. P. Durbin H. Bradley, and William M. Henderson, Vice was called to the chair, and S. Elliott was ap-

After consultation, it was, on motion, Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, it is important to revive the Colonization Society of Carlisle by an election of officers. Resolved, That we now proceed to nominate of the consist of a President, Vice President officers, to consist of a resident, vice research, Secretary and Treasurer, and an Executive Committee of five persons to serve until other officers are elected: Whereupon, the following persons were duly nominated and elected:

President—Rev. J. P. DURBIN.

Vice President—Rev. T. V. Moone.

Vice President—Rev. T. V. Moore.
Secretary—Dr. Samuel. Elliott.
Treasurer—Thomas H. Criswell.
Executive Committee—Messrs. J. B. Parker,
William D. Seymour, George Keller, James Hamilton, and Renick Angney.
On motion, it was Resolved, That the Secretary and Treasurer be ex officio members of the Executive Committee, and that the Committee have power to fill any vacancy in their number in the intervals of the meetings of the Sheiety. Resolved. That to this Committee be entrusted the duty of presenting the claims of this cause to the community—of securing their co-operation and contributions, and of taking any other mens ures deemed advisable for the promotion of it Resolved. That the proceedings of this meeting e published in the papers of this borough.

SAMUEL ELLIOTT, Secretary.

Louisiana, O. K.! TThe Hon. Henry Johnson, ("every inch : Vhig,") has been elected United States Senator place of Judge Porter, whose death we noticed few weeks since. The vote on joint ballot stood, 37 for Johnson, 36 for General Walker, (Loco,

The term for which Mr.-Johnson is elected, ex ends to the 4th of March, 1849.

The United States Senate has confirmed the unination of Henry A. Wise as Minister to Mr. Webster.

This gentleman has addressed a letter from Washington to his New Hampshire friends, which has been made public. The New York Express says: "Mr. Webster comes out there 'right side up, clear, unequivocal and emphatic. He defer his own promotion to that of Mr. Clav."

CA bill has been introduced into the Texiar longress to annex that Republic to the United States. It is supposed that it will pass with great &7 The American brig John M. Clayton, Moore Master, whilst on her passage to Barbadoes, was fired into several times by a British man-of-war schooner, and finally boarded and overhauled by her officers.

The Tariff. The amount of imports has been lessened in wo years thirty-eight millions, six hundred and aghty-five thousand, two hundred and eighty-two dollars, while the revenue yielded under the new turiff last year, over that of 1840, is about two millions, and is half a million more than in any year (except one) that has been received within four years: The exports of 1843, were $10,802,360

In favor of the United States Maryland Election. An election for members of Congress, under the new apportionment law, takes place in Maryland to day. We shall give returns in our next. IJ A Mrs. Harrison (says an English paper) has completed one third of a task of walking 1000 miles in a thousand consecutive hours, and its said will accomplish the herenlean task.

DR. WISTAR'S GREAT DISCOVERY.-It was once said "There is nothing new under the sun,". This Hundreds of Pills, Panaceas, Expectorants and Specifics of all sorts have been puffed into notoriety all made mainly of the same ingredients, adding new materials to the healing art. But Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry turnishes a new medical agent -a new principle evolved from nature's own depository. It cures Asthma, incipient Consumption. Liver Complaint, and all diseases of the Laugs when nothing else will. An honorable member the Canadian Parliament writes that it has cured him of Asthma of ten years' standing. A. William Esq., Attorney at Law, 58 William street, N. Y was cured of the same disease of twemy four years standing. Mr. Cozens of Hadosfield N. J. makes affidavit that it cured him of supposed Consumption after physicians had given him up to die; and so o indreds of others. W-Remember, we prodively of in an case, galm of inical cures produced by this invaluable remedy.— Be sure to get Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry Sold in Carlisle, by S. T.I.I.IOTT, only agent for this borough. The Philosophen's Stort -- In other words a partices for all diseases—was diligently sought for , but never found, by the old alchemist. In these modern days, however, one medicine has been in cases. We mean Jayne's Tonic Vermituge, which is certified by men of the highest standing in society to be a speedy cure for worms, intermittent fever, dyspepsia, piles, dysentery, acidity of the stomach and howels. Its stomachie, as well as alterative qualities, are highly beneficial in all cases where disease is accompanied by a partial prostration of the bodily powers. While it removes obstruction, it imparts tone and vigor to the digestive functions.

Devolting House to Rent.

Stone DWELLING HOUSE, on North Hanover street, next door to the two-story. Once the anover street, next door to the Post Office, now occupied by Mr. Clemens MacFardane. It is an exceedingly confortable, loase has eight good plastered rooms, two of which are papered, and there is also an entry from the street. The house has also recently been painted. It has all the necessary outlendings, such as Smalle house, &c. and an excellent garden. For terms, &c. inquire at the Store adjoining, of Carlisle, Jan. 10, 1844.

me and vigor to the digestive functions. Prepared and manufactured by Dr. D. JAYNE biladelphia, and for sale in Cartisle by T. C. STE VENSON, sole Agent for this Borough.

13 Reasons why the Brandreth Vegetable Uni ersal Pills are especially adapted to this climates No care required in using them. No change of diet.

The body is less liable to take cold when unde heir influence than at any other time. May be taken morning, noon or night, with a certainty of good results; that is, provided they perate freely upon the bowels. As a cathartic they are the most mild and in vigorating medicine that can possibly be admin-Caution-No Drug Store has the genuine Bran-dreth Pills for sale. Sold in Carlisle by CHARLES BARNITZ, sold gent for this borough.

How Assurd and Dishonest it is for any one to recommend any particular Panacea as an infallible sure for all stages of consumption, because in doing so they claim the oreative power! for in some case the Lungs become like unto a honey comb--- a mere sales 1000 barrels Superfine Flour were effected shell, without substance. In such instances Dr. ut 34 50 per bbl. On Wednesday, the market Steeling's Pulmonary Syrup, promotes expectorafion, thereby alleviating, and giving as much case, as 800 bbls. at $4 60, and since then 500 bbls, have any other medicine. It he s been used with remarkable success in curable, Consumption, Whooping Cough, Measles, Spitting of Blood, Sor cness in the Breast Side, Back Sourlet Fever, Bronchitis, Croup, Asthma, &c.

The wife of Reuben Maps, Crosswicks, N. J. was ntirely cured of a Cough of Three Years standing by Steelling's Pulmonary Syrup. For salo in its purity in Carlisle at SAM'L. EL-LIOTTES Dang Store. Remember only 50 cents per

Washington Hotel,

CORNER OF MARKET STREET & MARKET SQUARE, HARRISBURG, PA.

The Subscriber begs leave to inform the public that he has leased this well known House, which has recently undergone a thorough repair, and has furnished it anew with the best of Bedding and offler Furniture, said is how prepared to a comounte Members of the Legislature and Travellers in the very best style, and upon saidl terms as cannot fail to please.

W. T. SANDERS.

W. T. SANDERS.

Dec. 20, 1843. CHESNUT TIMBER. WILL be said by auction, on THURSDAY, the 15th day of February next, at 10 o'clook, A. M. at the house of the Widow Keehler, hear the land, a quantity of five Chesnut Timber Land. situate on the north side of the South Mountain about six miles from Carlisle, sur veyed in lots of 10, 22, and 30 acres each. The terms will be made known at the time of sale; and the title warranted against the world.

the world.
One of the sons of Mrs. Kechler, and also Henry Hartzell, who resides near the Gap Tavern, will show the land, any time before the sale.
WILLIAM GRIMS HAW, Agent for the Farmers & Mechanics Bank, January 24, 1844.

OYSTER'S POINT FOR RENT.

HE subscriber will rent for one year, that well known Tavern Stand, known as Oyster's Point, in Cumberland county, three miles west of Harrisburg, at the Torks of the Harrisburg and Carlisle Turnipke and Trindle road. The house is very large with sheds &c. &c. Three acres of land attached thereto. The property is worth the attention of those who wish to keep a public house. Apply to the subscriber at New Camberland, Camberland county, personally, or by letter post paid.

CHARLES OYSTER.

January 24, 1844.

Now for the Bargains! MIE subscriber begs leave to inform the HILL Subscriber begs leave to inform the citizens of Carlisle and its vicinity, that he has just returned from the city with a splendid assortment of BOOTS AND SHOES, consisting of Men's. Fine Call and Coarse Boots---also Men's and Boy's Monroes. He would also inform the LADIES, that he has purchased a lot of J. Willis's Double Soled Turn rounds, Fancy Slipper

Double Soled Turn rounds, Fancy Supper and Walking shoes.
Also a large assortment of Misses and Childrens Shoes. (All sewing of rips done gratis.).
He also purelased a lot of Kid and Morocco skins all of which he will manufacture into work at the shortestnotice, and in a next and workmanlike manner cheaper than they can be had at any other estimates the shortest of the state of the shortest of the state o aer cheaper than they consider tablishment in the place

Be sure to call at hirs Shor Store and Manufactory in North Hanover street, nearly opposite the Bank.

11. C. MALOY.

11-10

Carlisle, January 5, 1814. Drugs, Medicines, &c., YERS & HAVERSTICK have just opened their f.dl assortment of Drugs, Paints, Oils, Dye-Stuft, Patent Medicines, Perfunery and Farey Goods, which they will self wholesale or retail, at the very lowest prices, also of assorted sizes, patterns and prices.

Archer's Patent Lard Lamps,

Glass Lamps of all sizes and -patterns for burning either Oil or Lard. Lamp Shades and Chimnies officer Off or Layd. Famp Statues and Commission assorted sizes.

Best Sperm and Whale Off, Sperm Caudles, Almond, Castile and Country Soapi, as low as they can be had from the city.

(1) Carlishe Borough Notes for all purchases takin at par.

[becember 13, 1813.

3m-7

HA. A HE DD N. S. HO. 26 HA BINESS, Wholesale Dealers in Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods,

No. 46, North Second Street. A few Joors South of Arch street, Philadelphia. OULD respectfully invite the attention of country buyers to their large assortment of yy country naves we may no so young suitable to the season.

They have on band a large stock of Foreign and Domes ic Goods, laid in at lower prices than they, an now be had and are prepared to offer inducements.

For Salo or Rent. THE two story BRICK HOUSE situated in Main, Street, now in the feenipancy of Mrs. Brown, Possession given on the 1st of April next, JOHN W. CRAIGHEAD.

January 17, 1811. House and Store for Ren.t ROOM, now occupied by N. W. W. ROOM, now occupied by N. W. Woods, and situated on the south-west corner of the public square of this horough, is offered for rent. Possession given on the 1st of April next. It is one of the most eligible business stands in the borough. Episiers of

GEO, EGE.

Houses for Rent. ITHE HOUSES AND LOT belonging to Rev. R hert Emory, lately occupied by Mr. Edward S. Walker; possession given immediately. Also the HOUSES, Orchard and Lot, now in the occurrence of Mr. Change Physics and Lot, and the companions of Mr. Change Physics and Lot, and the companions of Mr. Change Physics and Lot, and the companions of Mr. Change Physics and Lot, and the companions of Mr. Change Physics and Lot, and the companions of Mr. Change Physics and Lot, and the companions of Mr. Change Physics and Lot, and the companions of Mr. Change Physics and Change Ph in the occup mey of Mr. George Ringwalt, adjoining. P. osession given on the 1st of April act. For trems apply to the subscriber agent for the owner, M. D. SEAMOUR.

December 6, 1843.

For Ment. In THE subscribers will rent that large and commodious ROUSE at present in the occupancy of Miss Surah E. Miller, situated on High Street, opposite the Mansion House Hotel. The Garden attached to the House is large and well filled with choice full trees. The house is well calculated for a Bourding House or Store. Possession given on a Boarding House or Store. Possession given on the 1st day of April next.

Droching Mouse to Rent.

December 27, 1843.

Houses for Rent. WO comfortable Brick Houses. Possession given on the first of January, or on the first of April next.
Rent to suit the times.

Houses to Rent. A two story Brick dwelling Tlouse with stabling, A &c., situated in West High street. Also, a two story brick dwelling house with a store-room, ware-house &c., in North Hanover street. Also, the shop adjoining the same now occupied by Mr. Malloy. Also, the frame dwelling house and shop adjoining the Post Office. Also, a small frame dwelling house in West Louther street, and a small two story brick house in rear of the same on Dickinson Alley. Possession to be given on the 1st of April next. For terms apply to tur terms apply to JNO. B. PARKER.

December 20, 1843 HOUSES TO RENT.

ONE two-story House and several smaller dwellings, well situated, are offered for rent. Also, a corner room fatted for a grocery store, will be rented for that purpose or otherwise. Enquire of JACOB SENER. Carlisle, November 22, 1848.

NOTICE IN BANKRUPTCY.

PETITION for discharge and certi-PETITION for discharge and certificate under the Bankrupt Law, has been filed by WILLIAM BIGLY, Currier, Cumberland county, and FRIDAY, the 12th of April next, at 11 o'clock A. Mais appointed for the bearing thereof, before the said Court, sitting in Bankruptey, at the District Court, Room in the City of Philadelphia, when and where the creditors of the said Petitioner, who have proved their debts, and all other persons in interest, may appear and show cause, if any they have, why such Discharge and Certificate should not be granted.

FRA'S. HOPKINSON.

Clerk of the District Court.

Philadelphia, Jan 17, 1844.