90-Mr. Cothren, agent for the sale of Mitchell's Maps, is now visiting the various parts of this -county with these superb articles. We have examined them, and can confidently pronounce them the most beautiful in execution, and the cheapthe kind in the country, and with pleasure recommend them to the citizens of this county. Mr. Clay in the South.

When it is recollected that the fare going and coming in this way will be but TWO DOLLARS —that passengers by this route, will be afforded an opportunity of witnessing the beautiful scenery along the Susquehanna and the noble Chesapeake Bay—when it is borne in mind, too, that the Baltimore Convention will undoubtedly prove to be the greatest collection of Freemen that ever as-sembled in the United States, or that may assem-ble for years to come—but above all, and inde-pendent of the desire to witness the are sights, and mingle in glorious fellowship with the true hearted Whigs from évery part of the Union, when the whig reader reflects upon the powerfall The speech on our first and that on the op posite page, will give our readers fair specimen of Mr Clay's addresses to the people of the South. His late opinions upon the Tariff have been so much misrepresented, garbled and falsified by the loco foco papers, that it would be well for both friends and enemies to read carefully the speech influence which this immense gathering of the delivered at Charleston, S. #### Splendid Parade!

The fine company of U. S. Light Artiller under Capt. WASHINGTON, paraded in town, on Saturday morning last, with their battery, making an elegant appearance and attracting much attention and admiration, as they, passed through the streets.

We learn that orders have recently been issued from the War Department directing the general recruiting service to commence on the 1st of June next, for the supply of vacancies in the ranks of the different regiments caused by the discharge of those whose terms of enlistment have expired. This, we presume will require a School of Discipline for the recruits that may be enlisted, and in that case we would beg leave to call the attention of the Hon. Secretary of War to the many and superior advantages of the station near Carlisle, for that purpose. This post, we believe, enjoys the reputation of being the most healthy in the Union-a most important consideration in every respect. It possesses advantages also which make it probably one of the most comfortable, hind at the same time economical stations in the buntry. Its position in a rich and abundant vulley, enables it to obtain supplies for subsistence on ferms of the greatest advantage to the Gov. croment. The Garrison buildings here are substantial neat and comfortable, and capable of accommodating a force of two thousand men, while their location is the most beautiful in the neighbothood of our borough. Its position is also favorable in many respects to the maintainance of a good character and good discipline among the men. The present Commander at this post, sustains a high character, no less as a military disciplinarian than personally, and is admirably qualified to take charge of such a school. These, with other consderations, of no less worth that might be mentioned; point to the station here as worthy the highest attention of the Secretary of War in selecting a place for the purpose spoken

The County Meeting.

The 'Volunteer' gives the whig county meet ing quite a lengthy notice, in its own peculiar style, thus showing conclusively the alarm felt by our opponents at the spirited and energetic manner in which the whigs have opened the campaign in this county. If the meeting had been the small and spiritless gathering the 'Volunteer' represents it; it would not have required so elabo. tate an effort to prove the fact as the Volunteer enters into! At any rate the whige are fully sat isfied with the numbers, character and spirit of their meeting, and hall it as the sure harbinger of success to their principles next full. By the way, we should like to know why a 'Democratic' County meeting was not held during this Court as has been the invariable custom? Was it be cause the leaders dared not ask the people to come out that they might have resolutions in favor of Ma rtin Van Buren and Muhlenberg crumed down their throats by the clique in town? Answer us Captain!

A Sign.

The subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public that he has removed from his old stand on West High street, to the public house hately kept by David Blean on South Hanover street, in this borough, sign of Wushington and Jackson. Where he will be always glad to see his friends from the Country and Travellers, and accommodate them in the best and most comfortable manner. His BAR shall be constantly supplied with the choicest liquors, and his TABLE with the best the market can furnish. A careful OSTLER always kept in atten hace—and nothing shall be left undonce to please alt who call with him. BOARDERS taken by the week, month or year, ANDREW ROBERTS. April 17, 1844. The 'Volunteer' thinks the Whig rejoicings over the Connecticut victory evince a thankful ness for small favors, and endeavors to prove that it is not much of a victory after all. No, the Whige only gain the Legislature, a Governor and two U. Senators by it + that's all !! Our friend of the 'Statesman' acknowledges the victory, but consoles himself by some very poetical imaginings upon the discomfiture of the Whigs next full; when, as he predicts, "sighing winds will sing the requiem of whiggery, and that 'same old coon' will have passed away from, the turbulent scenes f political life !" (That will do as a poetical dash but there is too much plain prose about the Conecticut victory to be disposed of so easily !
