DEMOCRATIC WHIG PRINCIPLES, SPECIALLY "FOR THE PUBLIC EYE."

OUR CREDIT.

A sound National Currency, regulated by the will and authority of the Nation.

An adequate Revenue, with fair Protection to American Industry.

Just restrictions on the Executive power, embracing a further restriction on the exercise of the Veto.

A faithful administration of the public documents, and judicious distribution of the proceeds of sales of oil among the States.

An honest and economical administration of the General Government, leaving public officers perfect freedom of thought and of the right of suffrage; but with suitable restraints against improper interference in elections.

An amendment to the Constitution, limiting the functions of the Presidential office to a four-year term.

These objects attained, I think that we should cease to be affiliated with that administration or of our Government.—HENRY CLAY.

THE Albany Journal says—Though Texas cannot be annexed to this Union, yet Tyler, if he thinks proper, may annex her to Texas, with the consent not only of the Senate, but with the approbation of the whole Union.

THE St. Louis Democrat says, that about five hundred individuals have already collected at Independence and vicinity for the purpose of emigrating to Oregon. They expected to be joined in the course of the present month by about fifty hundred more persons who are amongst the most hardy pioneers of Wisconsin, Indiana, Illinois and Iowa.

The Leavenworth papers make an ad about

Mr. Clay's being "bound over to keep the peace."

Now the facts are these, that after some sparring between Mr. Clay and Mr. King, when the former was in the Senate, the latter penned a challenge in the Senate Chamber, and was arrested; and Mr. Clay, as a matter of policy, was also bound over to prevent his receiving the challenge in case Mr. King should choose to forfeit his bond and send it.

THE most severe condemnation of Gen.

Cass's perfidy and dishonesty upon the annexation of Texas comes from several local news papers, the Harrisburg "Union," for one. To show how Gen. Cass sacrificed his principles for the Presidential bait, the Detroit Advertiser says,— "that until the appearance of Mr. Van Buren's letter the understanding that Gov. Cass was opposed to annexation was universal in that city, and with the sanction of his friends, many of whom signed the remonstrance of our citizens."

ENCAMPMENT AT HAGERSTOWN.

THE Hagerstown, Md., papers state that the encampment to be held near Hagerstown on the 4th of June will exceed the great Baltimore encampment of 1842. Capt. Ringold's company of flying artillery, 500 Fort M'Henry, and Capt. Washington's corps from the Carlisle battalion will be present, it is said, to confound, for the sake of superiority, Governor Porter of Pennsylvania. Will also the camp with his protectors? Provisions for the five days are to be furnished at various companies at $1.50 per man.

THE Jacksonians have written a letter to the editor of the Nashville Union, denouncing "that he ever wrote a letter of which rumors had spoken" to Gen. Jackson, of S. C., withholding the charge he made in 1829, against Mr. Adams and Mr. Clay. As this charge was proven to be utterly false, by Gen. Jackson's own witness, and as no respectable man has ventured to repeat it for a number of years, it was hoped by those who regard the fame of Gen. Jackson as the highest, that his name should go down to posterity unblotted, at least, in any connection with this slander. It was hoped, for these reasons, that Gen. Jackson, had written the letter referred to. But he seems not to have arrived at that point of his life, when the sense of justice triumphs over passion, and the desire to do right triumphs over interest.

For the charge itself, it is the arbitrary and unscrupulous slander—it is too contemptible to even deserve a rebuke at this late day. It is one of those slanders which an honorable man could easily and to which the life of Mr. Clay has given the lie, even more emphatically than we can express it.

THE Reading Journal, for last week, comes to us much improved by a large, and entirely new type. We hope that it will continue to do so.

The editorial column is, however, marked by the usual ability and tact of Brother Richards. We do not observe any thing in the epistolary department. We congratulate our friend upon his fine prospects.
