

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

CHARLES' DRUG STORE
Wednesday Morning May 29, 1844

Texas and Oregon.

On Friday last the House of Representatives, after a motion was made to lay on the table certain resolutions in favor of the annexation of Texas, which prevailed, 103 to 78, Good's motion to take up the Oregon bill was lost, 69 to 85. These votes, says the Intelligencer, indicate a sound state of opinion on both the Texas and Oregon questions. There is little chance of a vote passing the House of Representatives violating an existing treaty with one nation, by acts of territory in the South, or abrogating existing treaty stipulations with another, to force unseasonably the natural tendency of things in the Northwest.

On Thursday, in the Senate Mr. McDowell offered a joint Resolution proposing the annexation of Texas to the Union by an Act of Congress, with the consent of the two Governments. The Treaty is, therefore, virtually abandoned by those who introduced it, and the question will again be submitted to the public.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township, to Miss CATHERINE BAKER of Monroe township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

State Sabbath Convention.

This Convention, which meets at Harrisburg tomorrow, promises to be a very large one. At a meeting of citizens of this borough on Monday evening an additional number of delegates was appointed from this place. The fare on the Cumberland Valley railroad will be half price for delegates to the Convention.

The Ascension!

Our friends from the country must not forget Mr. Clevenger's Balloon Ascension on Saturday next. It will undoubtedly be a splendid spectacle, and the inflation will be in full view of the public. The fare on the rail road will be reduced to half price on that occasion.

Dr. Durbin's Travels.

Observations principally in France and Great Britain. By John P. Durbin, D. D., President of Dickinson College. In 2 vols. New York—Harper & Brothers.

We are under obligations for the pleasure of reading the new work of Dr. Durbin, which has just appeared, and have therefore no need to hazard a judgment upon it in anything like a review. It will be sufficient for us to say that we have read it with equal interest and enjoyment, and a degree of satisfaction much enhanced by the fact that its author is an esteemed citizen of our borough. Dr. Durbin offers much that is new and interesting both in his descriptions of places and in his remarks upon European Religion, Governments and institutions. His views widely known, prevailing opinions on many points, but has taken care to furnish his positions carefully and strongly. Mr. Chandler of the U. S. Gazette, who in a good many steps higher than ourself toward Mr. Macaulay, we observe notice Dr. Durbin's work in warm terms of praise.

The following notice we extract from the Baltimore "American."

Moses, Harper & Brothers have just issued in their usual handsome style two beautiful volumes entitled Observations in Europe, principally in France and Great Britain, by J. P. Durbin, D. D. The author is a well-known and highly educated student of the author and his peculiar fitness for a nice observation of men and manners, his friends to look for a narrative of much more than ordinary interest and we are sure, that will be disappointed. The route taken by Professor D. is not a new one, and he has therefore to labor to seek out what have hitherto escaped the notice of other travelers. It is, however, something of novelty, an account of nearly everything into existence. To that denomination of Christians of which the author is one of the most prominent divines, the religious information given in the book will be quite interesting. So well executed engraving embellish the volume, and the manner in which it is printed will be a great service to all.

It will be remembered that the travels of the author were not confined to Europe. He extended his visit into Egypt, Asia, Minor, Arabia, Palestine and Greece. The narration of this part of the journey is yet to be published, and we doubt not that the observations of the learned author will attract great attention.

The Agricultural Society.

We are glad to find that a growing interest continues to be manifested in the success of the Agricultural Society of this county. A meeting of the Managers was held on Saturday last in the Court House, at which many of our most influential Farmers were present, and at which a large accession of names was received to the Constitution of the Society.

We understand that the Managers have resolved upon a public Exhibition and Sale of their produce, to be held on the 1st of June, at the farm of Frederick Watts, Esq., near this borough. Mr. Watts has been engaged for several years in agricultural operations, and the society is fortunate in having his able and efficient services rendered to their important cause.

Some valuable and interesting statistics relative to Agriculture for the year of 1843, will be found in Dr. Dwyer's paper, compiled from the agricultural data made to Congress by Hon. Henry L. Ellsworth Commissioner of Patents. This document abundantly bears witness of most valuable information relative to recent improvements in Agricultural processes, implements, machinery, &c. which ought to be in the hands of every farmer who can obtain a copy.

Temperature Proportion.

The procession of the Washington Temperance Benevolent Society of this borough, on Saturday afternoon, last, made quite an encouraging show on the streets of Lancaster. Five hundred members of appropriate motto and handsome Rural decorations, which bore in the procession which marched through the several streets adorned by its excellent field of flowers.

This grand and elegant display of temperance, was witnessed by a large concourse of people, who were greatly pleased with the appearance in this city of so many that were connected with the Society, and is weekly enlarging its list of members. It has the good of humanity for its object—the best wishes of community should be given for its success and prosperity.

The Masonic Association.

At a meeting of the Masonic Association of Cay, Chester and Lancaster county, the proprietor making every preparation for the great Masonic festival to be held here in this county. Every Lodge will have a suitable number with appropriate decorations of devices. Various Committees are to be formed in other communities to assist in the celebration of the great Masonic festival.

There will be a great number of Masonic Lodges holding their annual meetings in this city, and the proprietors of the various buildings will be anxious to accommodate them.

There will be a great number of Masonic Lodges holding their annual meetings in this city, and the proprietors of the various buildings will be anxious to accommodate them.

There will be a great number of Masonic Lodges holding their annual meetings in this city, and the proprietors of the various buildings will be anxious to accommodate them.

There will be a great number of Masonic Lodges holding their annual meetings in this city, and the proprietors of the various buildings will be anxious to accommodate them.

There will be a great number of Masonic Lodges holding their annual meetings in this city, and the proprietors of the various buildings will be anxious to accommodate them.

There will be a great number of Masonic Lodges holding their annual meetings in this city, and the proprietors of the various buildings will be anxious to accommodate them.

At a meeting of the citizens of Carlisle held at the Court House on Monday evening for the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the State Convention for the purpose of the following resolution, which passed, 103 to 78. Good's motion to take up the Oregon bill was lost, 69 to 85. These votes, says the Intelligencer, indicate a sound state of opinion on both the Texas and Oregon questions. There is little chance of a vote passing the House of Representatives for violating an existing treaty with one nation, by acts of territory in the South, or abrogating existing treaty stipulations with another, to force unseasonably the natural tendency of things in the Northwest.

On Thursday, in the Senate Mr. McDowell offered a joint Resolution proposing the annexation of Texas to the Union by an Act of Congress, with the consent of the two Governments. The Treaty is, therefore, virtually abandoned by those who introduced it, and the question will again be submitted to the public.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to be regretted that Mr. Kneeland, at his bookstore, on East High Street, 12 cents per copy.

Mr. W. asked our neighbor of the Volunteer, two weeks ago, if the printing of paragraphs in which Mr. Clay was denominated as "a man utterly destitute of every thing, like, correct, moral, and political principles," did not really give him pleasure. It is now known that Mr. Clay, in his speech at the meeting of the West Patriotic township,

It is to