HERALD & EXPOSITOR

CARLISLE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, October 9, 1844.

☞ Among the prominent gentlemen invited to the Whig Mass Meeting in Philadelphia, was Ex-Governor Ritner, of this county. He was unable to be present, but transmitted a letter of acknowledgment, which exhibited his devotion to the Whig cause and candidates.

Zoological Exhibition.

☞ It will be seen by their advertisement, that our borough will be visited by the celebrated Menagerie of Raymond & Co. on Saturday next. The collection, we understand, is a very large and fine one, and will afford a pleasing and instructive Exhibition.

Carlisle Band.

☞ It has been matter of surprise that the musical taste of our borough has not hitherto prompted the organization of a "Band." Musical genius and taste we unquestionably have in town—we know of some pianos, touched by fairy fingers, with a power and sweetness that "takes the prisoned soul and lays it in Elysium"—every now and then in "the stilly night" we hear the stirring notes of a bugle—while in every street and at every hour the passer by has the presence of some humble imitator of Ole Bull revealed to him by either harsh or exquisite "catgut scraping."—we have indeed musicians of every kind and degree, but yet we have hitherto had no Band. A band of music is certainly both an ornament and a source of pleasure to every community, and no place is made up till it has one.

We are truly glad to learn that a number of spirited young men have formed an association within the last fortnight for the purpose of supplying this deficiency. They are now in course of instruction under the charge of Mr. R. K. Burns, well known as an accomplished musician. The band will be composed of ten performers on brass instruments, and from the progress they have already made our citizens will soon have an opportunity of hearing them publicly. We trust their enterprise will meet with encouragement and assistance from the liberal of our community.

Mr. Burns' card will be found in our advertising columns.

Marion Foundry.

☞ We visited, one day last week, the splendid "Marion Iron Foundry" of F. H. Keeney & Co., situate in the Western end of Church alley, and immediately in the rear of the Hotel of Mr. Henry Rhoads. We were shown by the proprietors well finished, highly polished and beautiful stoves of various sizes and patterns. Besides stoves, they manufacture wheels for cars, and every description of castings. The Messrs. Keeneys are enterprising and business men, and we trust they may meet with abundant encouragement in their department of mechanism. The Foundry affords constant employment to many worthy and industrious men, and if they do not all vote to sustain the Whig Tariff of 1842 by giving their suffrages to Mr. Clay, they will at least have the satisfaction of knowing that he and his party have always advocated and supported the interests of the American Mechanics in preference to those of Foreigners.

No Thanksgiving Day!

☞ It seems we are to have no Thanksgiving Day this year, for at least none by appointment of the Governor. The United States Gazette says, in reply to a letter on the subject from the Rev. Dr. Coleman of Philadelphia, Gov. Porter says that "unless he should change his present opinion he will not recommend a day to be set apart this year for Public Thanksgiving."

This is little less than an outrage upon the moral feeling of the community. Governor Porter established the precedent of Public Thanksgiving in Pennsylvania in 1843, and not even in New England itself was a Thanksgiving Day ever more universally observed. That such a day would be appointed this year, was expected, we believe as a matter of course. The Governor's determination cannot fail to disappoint and mortify the feelings of all good citizens.

The game blocked in Pittsburg!

☞ The increased Locofoco majority in Baltimore was obtained by means of about a thousand illegally naturalized foreign voters. The same attempt will be made in Philadelphia unless the Native Americans prevent it. In Pittsburgh that game is about being effectually blocked. We learn from the Age, that the keeper of a low Groggery there, named George W. Holthouse, was arrested on Wednesday last, and on his examination before the Mayor, it was ascertained that he had vouched for between twenty and thirty foreigners within the past few months, all of whom caused as having been under eighteen on their arrival, although some were nearly forty years of age, and very few of them five years in the country.

The Whigs and Native Americans are now taking the most energetic measures to put an end to this work, by the appointment of committees in each election district composed of men who know the qualifications of voters; and if any one with fraudulent papers, dares to deposit a vote his arrest will immediately follow.

Gambling Unmasked.

☞ This is the title of a small volume, containing the personal experience of the Reformed Gambler, J. H. Green, designed as a warning to the young men of this country, written by himself. The author of this work gives in its pages a variety of incidents, principally of scenes of Gambling houses in different cities of the Union, which show the pernicious effects of this science, by vice in sapping the foundations of virtue in youth, and which finally lead to utter destruction. It is a story of startling interest.

It may be had at the Book store of Messrs. Myers & Haverstick, 19 North Hanover street.

Up and at them.

☞ The Whigs of Cumberland county did noble yesterday! They have now the field cleared for action! The great battle is yet to be fought. Let every man fight like a its gallant old county with redoubled energies and redoubled zeal to engage in the contest. We can and must carry the County in November for HARRY CLAY. Let every man go, (those who were there.) Our opponents have employed every means which they deemed necessary to secure the victory. Let us be up and at them.

'Old Mother Cumberland' again in the Whig Line!

The Whig County Ticket elected!!

☞ We give below the returns of the election so far as we have been able to gather them. If they are accurately reported, Mr. Shunk succeeds by the diminutive majority of ten or fifteen votes, while the entire Whig County Ticket is without doubt elected. The contest of yesterday was closely waged by both parties—it has totally defeated the expectations of our opponents who boasted that Shunk would receive an old-fashioned Jackson majority. Instead of the hundreds the old Hero could have carried, he has the contemptible majority of a score! The loco foco party has the most perfect organization in this county—yesterday they had their whole vote out—every man was on duty—the utmost exertions that desperate men were able to put forth were used, and they have barely escaped a defeat. The Whig vote was large, but it was not near all out, and besides that there are scores of Shunk men in this county who will not support Porter. We are content now with the success of our County Ticket—in November Old Mother Cumberland will be carried triumphantly for CLAY!

Shunk's majority so far as heard, 35

In Upper Bickid on township the members of Assembly have a majority of 50, which it is probable will ensure them a majority of near 100 in the county.

The districts of Hopewell and Lisburn yet to hear from, which will probably reduce Shunk's majority 20 to 25. The official returns may materially change the whole result.

Whigs, recollect that in 1840 we were beaten near 200 at the State election!

MAKE WAY FOR MARYLAND!

The Whig Cause Triumphant!

☞ The election in Maryland on Wednesday last resulted in a glorious and triumphant victory for the Whigs. From the returns given below it will be seen that the majority of Thomas G. Pratt, the Whig candidate for Governor is 539!—He is the first Whig Governor that has yet been elected by the people! The Legislature is also overwhelmingly Whig in both branches, thus securing the election of a Whig U. S. Senator! Thus have the Whigs of Maryland achieved a glorious triumph, notwithstanding the extraordinary means used by our opponents to cast an overwhelming majority in the city of Baltimore. The voice of the State is certain for HENRY CLAY. Our adversaries can no more rally themselves for the contest after the prostration of their strength consequent upon their late desperate and convulsive struggle. Let our friends all over the Union join with us in congratulations. Maryland has taken her stand; she will maintain it beyond all peradventure.

If the thunder of her broadside has not been so loud as some expected, the execution which it has done is as effective as though the report had shaken the heavens.

GREAT ZOOLOGICAL EXHIBITION!

WILL visit Carlisle, on October 12, 1844, and the whole retinue of Wild Living Animals, from the Philadelphia Institute, under the direction of Raymond & Co.

The wonderful HERR DRIESBACH, accompanies this Menagerie with his Lions, Leopards, &c., subduing, magnetizing, and even driving them in harness.

On the entrance to Carlisle, on the morning of the 12th inst., about 10 o'clock, the great four Elephant team will precede the cavalcade, harnessed to a Car, drawing the music to the place of exhibition.

The science of Natural history must, in some degree, have occupied our race in all ages, and in every degree of civilization, as we depend upon the objects around us for food, shelter and amusement. Why should not man, in a state of refinement and wealth explore the great museum of nature, to enhance his temporal gratification, add to his stores of knowledge, and increase his veneration for the wonderful Author of all things?

This department of human knowledge seems so attractive and useful, as to deserve a place in every system of education, and should be taught, not in colleges merely, but in every public school. The American public will, by the opening of this exhibition, have access to by far the greatest number of animal wonders that ever came within their view; and the opportunity is not only a fit one to be seized upon by both sexes of the highest respectability, but becomes an incumbent duty of every parent or guardian to indulge those under his charge with a sight of those prodigies of nature that may never again be presented in one exhibition. Since the decline of theatrical amusements, the show of animals has become a leading feature in public entertainments, and patronised by all the intelligence and respectability of society. The advantages derived by a visit to a well arranged Menagerie are apparent. It is the concentration of all that is beautiful and sublime in nature's mighty work; and one wholly divested of every moral objection frequently made use of against places of amusement in general.

☞ Admission 25 cents. Children half price.—Canvas sufficient to contain 4000 people. A large number of seats for ladies and children.

WHITE HALL NURSERY,

CARLISLE, PA.

THE season for transplanting FRUIT, and indeed all deciduous TREES of the hardy kinds, is fast approaching. The reason for this preference for fall planting, is obvious; when trees are transplanted at that season, the earth becomes, during the winter, properly settled about the roots, and they are ready to throw out fibres in the spring. The proprietor of the above establishment has, for this fall's market, the following trees, to wit:

12,000 APPLE TREES,

Comprising the choicest varieties;

1,000 CHERRY TREES,

including all the most approved kinds.

Also a very choice collection of

PEACH, PEAR, PLUM & APRICOT

Trees, as well as a large assortment of

Evergreen and Ornamental

Trees, such as Balm of Gilead, Fir, Arbor Vitæ, American Juniper, Norway Fir, all the different kinds of Linden, Sugar Maple, Silver Maple, Red Flowering Maple, Yellow Flowering Maple, English El
